

INDEX

- Abdel Aziz Fahmy Bey, 36, 114
 Abdel Halim-el-Biali, 171, 172
 Abdel Rahman Fahmy Bey, 38, 69, 104
 Abdul Hamed Said, 148
 Abdul Latif Bey el Mukabati, 26
 Adly Pasha Yeghen, communicates with Zaghlul re negotiations with Milner Mission, 22, 23, 367; appears before the Milner Mission (1920), 368, 371, 372; Lord Milner's letter to re the Sudan, 390; collects a considerable body of support, 35, 38; becomes Prime Minister (1921), 39-42; and the headship of the treaty delegation (1921), 42; in London as head of the delegation, 44, 51, 52, 243; returns to Egypt and hands in his resignation, 53; refuses to support Sarwat, 54; negotiations with (1922), 56; inaugurates a Liberal Constitutional Party, 71; and Egypt's right to the Sudan, 72; invited to form a Ministry (1923), 73; leader of the Constitutional Liberal Party, 78; becomes Prime Minister (1926), 163, 168, 175, 176; his education, character, and career, 176; and the election of Omdehs, 181; and Zaghlul's anxiety for the Constitution, 187; resigns (1927), 199, 225
 Administration obscured by political issues, 4, 5; principles of good, 358, 361, 362
 Administrative affairs, the Chamber's interference with, 182, 183
 Afifi, Doctor Hafiz, 281, 291, 293, 295, 298, 401, 322
 Ahmed Lutfi Dey el Said, 26
 Ahmed Zaki Abdul Seoud Pasha, 175
 Air Force, 345-9
 Alexandria, disturbances in (1921), 43, 55; warship despatched to (1927), 208; evacuation of British forces stationed at, 396
 Ali Abdul Latif, 119, 120
 Ali Shemsi Bey, 176
 Allenby, Viscount (High Commissioner), on bargaining with Egypt for her independence, 8; and the terms of peace with Turkey affecting Egypt, 17; and the Milner-Zaghlul Agreement, 31; and the treaty negotiations (1921), 31, 34-37, 39-41, 43, 44; his personality and position, 45; letter to the Sultan, and despatch to Lord Curzon, on the granting of independence, etc. to Egypt, 55-63; tenders his resignation (1922), 58, 59, 61; comes to London, 61; returns to Egypt and declares the recognition of independence, 63; and matters arising from the adoption of independence, 66-74; and the new Constitution, 76; interview with Zaghlul Pasha, 81; reports on Zaghlul's aspirations, 85-9; on increase of propaganda and rioting in the Sudan, 90; his action on the murder of Sir Lee Stack, 94-103, 107; and the appointment of Sirdar, 105; resigns post of High Commissioner (1925), 112, 309; his policy and character, 113, 356, 360; writes to Ziwar Pasha on the cost of Sudan administration, 158; and Zaghlul's return to power, 162
 Alliance, offensive and defensive, Anglo-Egyptian, 86, 373
 Amos, Sir M., 93
 Amos, Sheldon, 57, 60, 61

- Anglo-Egyptian agreement (1887), 100
- Anglo-Egyptian Convention, see Sudan
- Annexation of Egypt, 57
- Anti-British propaganda associations, 380
- Arish, El, 405
- Arms Law, 257
- Army, British, in Egypt, its influence, 156, 356, 357; maintenance and purpose of, 31, 242, 261, 263, 373, 381, 396, 399; privileges and immunities of, 265; the question of its withdrawal, 50-2, 86, 92, 93, 239, 258, 323, 339, 396; these forces do not constitute an occupation, 395, 396
- Army, Egyptian, armament employed by, 263; Army crisis (1927), 198-222, 312; Army questions: correspondence between Lord Lloyd and Sarwat Pasha (1927), 400-406; future of British officers in, 246, 251, 260, 263, 264, 405; conversion of British personnel into a military mission, 253-5; evacuation of all Egypt units from the Sudan, 135, 137; subversive propaganda in, 119, 121, 403; training, 260; training of personnel, 263; functions of the Inspector-General, 401, 402, 404, 406, 407
- Army Council, Egyptian, 201
- Assemblies Bill, 257, 267-9, 271-4
- Assuan Dam, 282
- Atbara, disorders at, 91, 119
- Auditor-General, 280, 286
- Azhar, El, University, 13
- Bahr-el-Ghazal province, 126, 350
- Baldwin, Stanley, and the Egyptian Army crisis (1927), 213-19, 221; and the Sarwat treaty (1927), 235; and Lord Lloyd's resignation, 324
- Bank Misr, 199
- Bargaining, the Egyptian likes, the Englishman dislikes it, 86
- Bassal, Hamid Pasha el, see Hamid Boyle, Mr., 44-7
- Brentford, Lord, 318
- British Empire, the question of Egypt as part of, 18-20, 337
- Brown, Mr., of Educational Department, 63
- Brown, Mr., of the Ministry of Agriculture, 69
- Cairo, disturbances in, 16, 43, 55; evacuation of British forces stationed at, 396
- Capitulations, abolition of, 18, 295, 339; exemption of foreigners from taxation under, 291, 298, 299, 313; protection of foreigners under, 31, 299, 374, 375, 383, 389; reform of, 247, 248, 250, 251, 254, 255, 262, 398, 399
- Cave, Bimbashi, 68
- Chamberlain, Sir Austen, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and Egypt's infringements of the status quo, 93; and Allenby's ultimatum on the murder of Sir Lee Stack, 95, 100; and the Anglo-Egyptian condominium, 136, 137; and Zaghlul's return to power (1926), 163; and the Army crisis (1927), 209, 213, 219; Lord Lloyd's draft to, on Army questions (1937) 406; negotiates a treaty with Sarwat Pasha (1927-28), 227-30, 233-41, 245-57, 266, 323, 327-330; and the Assemblies Bill, 268, 271, 273; and the collapse of Parliament (1928), 277; and the taxation of British subjects, 291-293, 314, 315, 320, 321; note to Lord Lloyd on British intervention and policy in Egypt, 293-9, 301*n.*, 308, 322; and the reorganisation of judicial courts, 301, 315; Mr. Henderson charges Lord Lloyd of divergence of opinion with, 305, 308, 312-23; and the Nile Waters Agreement, 314; on the purpose of British troops in Egypt, 395, 396; and the Sudan, 397; on the protection of foreign interests, 398, 399
- China, extra-territorial rights in, 297
- Chown, Captain, 124
- Churchill, Winston, 38; and Lord Lloyd's resignation, 310, 311, 315, 319
- Clayton, Sir Gilbert, 57, 61
- Commercial treaties, 250, 252
- Communications, security of, 64, 239, 261, 373, 381, 395, 399
- Communications, Department of, 70

- Constitution of Egypt, 144; Milner Mission to report on the best form of, 11, 34; the framing of, 66, 70-9; its promulgation, 75; future of, 186; utterly unsuited to the nature of the people, 142
- Constitutional Liberal Party, 78, 80, 109
- Consular Courts of Justice, 299-302, 315, 375-7, 398
- Consular officers, 376
- Cotton growing and prices, 16, 41, 42, 129, 130, 134, 188, 351
- Cremers, Carter, 104
- Crime, political, 15
- Cromer, Evelyn Baring, 1st Earl, on how the Protectorate was regarded, 19; his policy, 356, 357
- "Cromerism", 156
- Culture, British, 359
- Curzon, Lord, his admonitory letter to the Sultan, 51, 55, 56, 61; on the purpose of British troops in Egypt, 395, 396; on the development and future of the Sudan, 397; on the protection of foreign interests, 398, 399
- Customs, evacuated, 103, 104; seizure of (1924), 101, 102; tariff, 315
- Cyrenaica, 79
- Darfur, rising in, 124, 125
- Dar Masalit, 127, 128
- Debt, Commissioners of the, 398, 399
- Declaration of 1922, 141-3, 149, 156, 159-61, 183, 185, 195, 206-8, 219-221, 224, 243, 244, 256, 259, 267, 272, 294, 298, 307, 323, 327, 333-335, 339, 340, 354, 356, 399; its principles outlined, 63
- Defence of Egypt, 30, 64, 239, 260, 273, 381, 395, 399, 400, 407
- Demonstrations, Assemblies Billand, 268, 272
- Deputies, salaries of, 92, 188
- Dinkas, 126
- Diplomatic relations, threatened rupture of (1924), 102
- Diplomatic representation, 31, 373, 374, 377-81
- Dowson, E. M., 57
- Drinking water supplies, 282
- East, the Englishman's kinship with, 1; benevolence towards, and ignorance of, 2
- Elections (1923-24), 80; (1925), 110-112; (1926), 153, 154, 158, 163
- Electoral law, revision of, 112, 152-4
- Evacuation of Egypt, 50, 54
- Extra-territorial rights, 297
- Fakhry, Gaffar, see Gaffar
- Fellaheen, 16, 21, 27, 100, 226, 302
- Fergusson, Captain, 348, 349
- Finance, Ministry of, 201, 279
- Financial Adviser, 31, 86, 88, 92, 97, 98, 103, 186, 264, 373, 388, 398
- Financial position (1914-21), 20, 41
- Forces in Egypt, see Army
- Foreign affairs, Egyptian, control of, 51-3, 66; Egypt to be guided by England in her foreign relations, 242, 377; Ministry of, 379
- Foreign control, 388
- Foreign experts, engagement of, 250, 252
- Foreign interests, protection of, 11, 30, 31, 64, 86, 92, 97, 98, 101, 107, 242, 250, 252, 260, 302, 313, 339, 340, 374, 388, 395, 398, 399
- Foreigners, laws not applicable to, 31, 299, 374, 375, 388, 389
- Frontier Administration, 201, 402, 404-7
- Frontier negotiations with Italy, 114, 149, 150
- Fuad, King of Egypt, and the sending of a treaty delegation (1921), 34; tour of the provinces, 35; his attitude towards Adly Pasha, 39; takes the title King of Egypt, 66; on bad terms with his Prime Minister Sarwat Pasha, 70; resists the inception of a constitutional monarchy, 71, 73; his claim to be styled King of the Sudan (1923); his speech to Parliament (1924), 83; Zaghlul forces his hand, 93, 110; breaks up the Coalition Ministry (1925), 114, 122; and a Palace Government, 115-17; Lord Lloyd visits him, 147; his growing power 148; and the Italian frontier question, 150; dismisses an Under-Secretary, 153; and Zaghlul's resumption of office, 164; speech to Parliament (1926), 177; his dislike of the Parliamentary régime, 179, 180, 274, 276, 279; and Zaghlul's hold on the country, 187; opens Parliament (Nov.

Fuad, King of Egypt—continued
 1926), 189; hostility, towards Zaghlul, 190; and the Army crisis (1927), 204, 207; visits England, 223; and the draft treaty of 1927-1928, 256-8; his relations with Mahmoud Pasha, 278, 285; dissolves Parliament (1928), 276-8; moves towards autocratic government, 279; opposes the appointment of Sidky Pasha as Auditor-General, 280

Gadalla, El Hag Ahmed, 171, 172
 Gaffar Fakhry Bey, 275, 286
 Gash river delta, cotton growing, 129, 343
 Gebel Aulia Dam, 282
 General Assembly of 1913, 27
 Gezira Plain, 121; cotton growing, 129; irrigation of, 95, 97-101, 104, 107, 123, 130, 137, 342-4
 Ghaffir tax, 291, 314, 321
 Government of Egypt—Adly Pasha forms a Ministry (1921), 39; the Egyptian people look forward with painful apprehension to the formation of a purely native government, 45; resignation of Adly Pasha (1921), 53; Premiership offered to Sarwat Pasha who fails to form a Ministry, 53, 54; creation of a parliament with a constitutionally responsible government offered (1922), 56; no Ministry exists (Jan. 1922), 58, 59; Sarwat Pasha forms a Ministry (March 1922), 64; the framing of a Constitution, 66, 70-9; unpopularity of Sarwat Pasha's Ministry, 70, 71; resignation of Sarwat Pasha, and appointment of Tewfik Nessim Pasha, 72; Adly Pasha invited to form a Ministry (1923), 73; the Ministry formed by Yehia Pasha, 74; resignation of Yehia Pasha and appointment of Zaghlul Pasha (1924), 81; Zaghlul resigns and is replaced by Ziwar Pasha, 103; Parliament dissolved (1924), 110; again dissolved (1925), 112; a Coalition of Ittehadists and Liberals, 114; the Ministry reconstituted, 114, 147; two possible alternatives—government of the Wafd, or government based upon the autocratic power of the King, 115-17; new policy inaugurated with the Declaration of 1922, 120-145; opposition to Ziwar Pasha's Ministry was extreme, 151-3; 155; meeting of the National Congress, and the distribution of seats (1926), 158; the question of allowing Zaghlul to take office again, 158-68; the Ministry of Adly Pasha, 168, 175-92; Parliament meets (Nov. 1926), and Zaghlul is elected President, 189; Adly Pasha resigns, and Sarwat Pasha becomes Prime Minister (1927), 199; Nahas Pasha becomes Prime Minister (1928), 270; Nahas dismissed, and Mahmoud becomes Premier, 276; Parliament is dissolved, and the King moves towards autocratic government (1928), 276-82; see also Constitution; Independence; Protectorate

 Grey of Fallodon, 1st Viscount, 333-338

Gum, 351

Gwek Wonding, 347, 349

Hafiz Bey Ramadan, see Ramadan
 Halim-el-Biali, Abdel, see Abdel
 Hamid Pasha el Bassal, 36
 Hanna, Morcos, see Morcos
 Hatton, Mr., murdered, 55
 Henderson, Arthur, becomes Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, 290; brings charges against Lord Lloyd, 304-26, 328; negotiations for a treaty (1929), 330-2; on the purpose of British troops in Egypt, 395, 396; on the future and development of the Sudan, 397; on the protection of foreign interests, 398
 Henderson, Neville, 146, 178, 229, 230, 233, 245
 High Commissioner, Milner Report and, 383
 Hisb-el-Malek, 111
 Hisb-el-Watan, see Nationalism and Nationalist Party
 Hopkins, Price, 63
 Hornsby, Sir Bertrand, 323
 Huddleston, Colonel, 135, 401, 406
 Hurst, Sir Cecil, 12, 367
 Hussein, King, attempted assassination of, 106

Hassan Rushdi Pasha, 38, 43
Hussein Sirry Bey, 279

Indemnity, Act of, 56, 63, 76
Independence of Egypt—agitations and demands for (1919-20), 8, 12-15, 24, 27-30, 33, 52; Milner Mission recognises Egypt's independence, 29, 30, 372; the immense majority prefer British rule, 45, 46; Britain agrees to recognise Egyptian sovereign independence (1921), 53, 56; Lord Allenby's despatch (1922), and Britain's reply, 56-63; the demand for complete independence, 60, 61, 201, 230; Egypt declared an independent sovereign state (1922), 63, 66; the Declaration of 1922 did not give Egypt complete independence, 333; Lord Grey on, 333-338; Milner Report and, 334; difficulty in giving complete independence, 336
India, and full self-government, 3, 4; analogy between India and Egypt, 336, 337
"Indirect rule", 362
Inspector-General, 401, 402, 404, 406, 407
Interior, European Department of the, 97, 99
Irrigation, 95, 97, 98, 250, 282, 287, 288, 342-4, 392, 397
Italy, frontier negotiations with, 114, 149, 150
Ittehad, or Party of Union, 111, 113, 114, 163, 191
Jaghboub, 149
Jordan, Michael, 63
Judicial Adviser, 31, 86, 88, 92, 93, 97, 98, 103, 186, 264, 373, 388, 398
Jurisdiction, Courts of, 299-302, 315, 377
Kamel-el-Shishini, Hassan, 171, 172
Kashaba Bey, 201
Kassala Cotton Company, 130, 343
Kassala—Port Sudan railway, 130
Kershaw, Judge, 165, 170-3
Kershaw, Private, 63
Khartoum, disorders at, 90, 91; demonstration by the Cadets' school, 117; Sudanese troops mutiny (1924), 135, 136

King of Egypt, 66

Labour Party, and Egyptian affairs, 82, 85, 87, 91, 282, 302, 304, 316, 325-41; Labour members of Parliament visit Egypt, 48, 49
Latif, Abdul, see Abdul
Latif, Ali Abdul, see Ali
Laws not applicable to foreigners, 31, 299, 374, 375, 388, 389
Lawyers' Association, 64
League of Nations, 3, 249, 251, 252, 255, 260-3, 377, 396, 397
Legality of our position in Egypt, 18-20, 89
Leith-Ross, Sir F., 287
Liberal Party, 71, 111, 114, 122, 147, 148, 152, 154, 158, 163, 164, 166, 169, 226, 232, 244, 270, 271, 273, 275, 279
Lloyd, Lord, succeeds Allenby as High Commissioner (1925), 122, 143; asks that certain conditions be laid down before accepting the post of High Commissioner, 145, 146; and Letters of Credence for presentation to the King of Egypt, 146; his arrival and reception in Egypt (1925), 147, 154; visits the Sudan, 153, 352; summoned to the Cabinet (1927), 234; Mr. Henderson brings charges against him, and he resigns the post of High Commissioner (1929), 304-26; speech in House of Lords on the Declaration of 1922, 335; opens Sennar Dam (1926), 344
Lloyd George, David, and the Milner Mission Report, 36, 37
Locarno treaties, 249
Lukikos Courts, 127
Lutfi, Ahmed, see Ahmed

MacDonald, James Ramsay, 319; his first intervention in Egyptian affairs, 82-4; negotiates with Zagh-lul, 85-90, 92, 93; and Egyptian political agitation in the Sudan, 133; his advice to Lord Lloyd on his departure for Egypt, 143; his statement that Egypt is a British Protectorate, 206; on the purpose of British troops in Egypt, 395, 396; on the future and development of the Sudan, 397; on the protection of foreign interests, 398

- Mächell, Colonel, 176
 Macmahon, Sir Henry, 309
 McNeill, Tennant, 124
 Mahdiism, 345, 346, 350, 391
 Maher, Ahmed Bey, 107, 166, 170-172, 190, 194, 199
 Maher Pasha, Ali, 26, 279
 Mahmoud Osman Mustafa, 171
 Mahmou'd Pasha, Mahomed, a member of the treaty delegation (1920), 26, 36; elected Vice-President of the Chamber, 148; his character and career, 175, 278; supports Nahas (1928), 270, 271; resigns from the Cabinet, 275; becomes Premier (1928), 276; proposes the dissolution of Parliament, 277; a strong supporter of the Constitution, 278; Sarwat's dislike of, 283; his relations with King Fuad, 285; and the settling of urgent questions between Britain and Egypt, 287; and the reorganisation of judicial courts, 300; and Egypt's relations with Great Britain, 303; negotiations for a treaty, and the end of his political career, 330-2
 Mahomed Ali family, princes of, 13
 Mahomed Tewfik Wahabi, 119
 Mahomed Zaghlul Pasha, 153
 Makram Obeid, 104
 Makwar Dam, 123, 129
 Malakal, disturbances at, 120
 Martial law, 41, 56, 63, 72, 74-7, 250, 252, 376
 Maxwell, General Sir John, 11
 Mazloum Pasha, 38
 Medical services, 282
 Meetings, Assemblies Bill and, 268, 272
 Military mission, 253-5
 Milner, Alfred, Viscount, President of the Milner Mission, 11, 12, 17, 26, 390; resigns from the Cabinet, 38
 Milner Mission (1919-20), its arrival in Egypt, 11; its terms of reference, and members, 11, 12, 14, 15; agitation for independence and boycott of the Mission, 12-14, 21; discards the Protectorate, 15, 24; returns to England, 15, 22; and the status of the British in Egypt, 18; and the cause of the disorders, 20; and the Nationalist movement, 21; suggests a treaty between Britain and Egypt, 22, 369; proposes negotiations with Zaghlul, 22, 367; Milner-Zaghlul Agreement, 25-33, 368-71; terms of the Agreement, 31, 372-94; the British Government suggests the selection of an Egyptian delegation (1921), 34-44; the Government continue the negotiations, 48-65; the Mission's policy of concession and treaty, 113; and the retention of British officials, 198; Report, 17-22, 34, 36, 367-94
 Minorities, protection of, 64, 86, 92, 399
 Mixed Courts of Justice, 299-301, 375, 376, 389, 389n., 398, 399
 Mohamed Fahmy Ali, 170, 172
 Mohamed Said Pasha, 27, 38, 39
 Mokattam newspaper, 27
 Morcos Hanna Pasha, 175, 177
 Mudirs, 70, 110, 162, 163, 269, 286
 Municipal tax, 291, 292, 298, 314, 321
 Murderous attacks on Europeans, 12, 63, 68, 69, 72, 73, 87, 94
 Nahas Pasha, Mustapha, on account of his hostility to Britain he fails to get into Zaghlul's Cabinet, 168; and the draft treaty of 1927-28, 256-258, 397; becomes Prime Minister (1928), 270; and the Assemblies Bill, 271-4; and the estates of Prince Seif-ed-din, 275, 286; dismissed from Premiership (1928), 276; leader of the Wafd, 285
 Nashaat Pasha, 114, 117, 148, 150, 151
 Nationalism, promoting of, within the Empire, 3
 Nationalism and Nationalist Party (Hisb-el-Watan), 21, 24, 27, 29, 46, 47, 367
 Nationality Law, 376
 Native Courts, 377
 Nekrashi Bey, tried and acquitted in connection with the murder of Sir Lee Stack, 104, 107, 170, 172; Secretary of the Education Committee, 191, 194; supports Zaghlul's army policy, 199
 Nile Commission (1925), 104, 288, 289

- Nile Waters Agreement (1929), 288-290, 314, 335
- Nile waters, allocation of, 246, 247, 255, 390, 392, 394, 397; jeopardized by Italian projects in Abyssinia, 79
- Nomad Sheikhs. See Finance of 1922, 127
- Nubas, 126
- Nuer tribe, 126, 348
- Nyala, outbreak in, 124
- Nyerol, 347
- Occupation of Egypt, 17, 18
- Officers' Committee, 402-4, 406
- Officials, British, murderous attacks on, 63, 68, 69, 72, 73; the Milner Mission destroyed their confidence, 50; Milner Mission Report, and the position of British officials, 383-9; their retention, conditions of service, etc., 31, 67-9, 72, 77, 84, 95, 97, 90, 103, 105, 107, 183-6, 191, 194-8, 247, 255, 261, 264, 312, 374, 399; see also Police
- Officials, Egyptian, 383, 384*n.*, 385*n.*
- Omar Toussoum, Prince, 27
- Omdehs, 110, 180, 257, 269
- Omdurman, rioting in, 90, 119, 131
- Ottoman Loans, 91, 287, 399
- Palestine, our mandate in, and failure there, 3, 6
- Parliament, see Government
- Parmoor, Lord, 317, 325, 331
- Patterson, R. S., 57
- Peach, Mr., 63
- Petrol tax, 291, 292, 314, 322
- Pigott, Colonel, 68
- Police officials, 247, 251, 253, 254, 264; command of the police forces, 398
- Political Associations, Law of, 147
- Political crimes of violence, 15
- Port Said, outbreaks at (1921), 55
- Press censorship, 41
- Protectorate—H.M. Government announce their intention to maintain (1919), 14; Milner Mission abandons maintenance of, 15, 24; Turkish recognition of, 17; purpose underlying its declaration, 19; under the Protectorate Egypt became part of the British Empire, 19; not a satisfactory relationship between Britain and Egypt, 37; surrender of (1921), 53, 55, 56; abolished (1922), 63
- Public Health, Department of, 70
- Public meetings, 257
- Rahman, Abdel, see Abdel Rahman
- Railway administration, 84
- Ramadan, Hafiz Bey, 118
- Reading, Lord, 325
- Recruiting and Supplies, Departments of, 201
- Religious toleration, 375
- Representation in foreign countries, Egypt's right to, 31, 373, 377-81
- Representative, British, 31, 374
- Responsibilities, Imperial, 7, 9
- Responsibility, Oriental politician and, 23-5
- Rifaat Bey, 136
- Robson, Mr., 72
- Rodd, Sir Rennell, 11
- Roosevelt, Theodore, 339
- Royal Air Force Depot, 396
- Royal Court Council, 275
- Rushdi Pasha, see Hussein Rushdi
- Ryan, Corporal, 87
- Salisbury, Lord, 317
- Sarwat Pasha, Abdel Khalek, 38; and the visit of four Labour members of Parliament to Egypt, 48; offers to accept Premiership upon Britain granting certain concessions (1921), 53-5, 59, 60; negotiations with (1922), 56; forms a Ministry (1922), 64; unpopularity of his Ministry, 70, 71; and Egypt's right to the Sudan, 72; resigns (1922), 72; defeated for the Presidency of the Chamber (1925), 112; employs his power for personal ends, 117; Minister of Foreign Affairs (1926), 175; becomes Prime Minister (1927), 199; correspondence with Lord Lloyd on Army questions (1927), 400-6; visits England and negotiates a treaty (1927-28), 223, 226-41, 245-58, 266, 267, 323, 327-30; and the interference of Deputies with the administration, 225, 226; resigns (1928), 258, 269; and the Assemblies Bill, 272; his death, career, and character, 283; and the reorganisation of the judicial courts, 299; on British interests, 341
- Schools, maintenance of, 376

- Scott, Mr., 30, 51
 Secret political societies, 118
 Seif-ed-din, Prince, 275, 286
 Selby, Mr., 248
 Self-determination, the principle of, 46, 47
 Self-governing institutions in Egypt, see Independence of Egypt
 Self-government as part of our Imperial policy, 3-10, 361
 Sennar Dam, 342, 344
 Seoud, Ahmed Zaki Abul, see Ahmed
 Shafik Pasha, Mahomed, 16, 43
 Shahin Bey, 201
 Shemsi, Ali, see Ali
 Sidky Pasha, Ismail, member of the treaty delegation (1921), 43; joins the Cabinet (1924), 109, 110; and the elections of 1925, 110-12; his good administration of the Interior, 112; occupies an important position in the Coalition, 114; negotiates with Italy in regard to the Western Frontier, 149, 150; attacks the Royal expenditure, 180; and the appointments of Financial and Judicial Adviser, 186; against the appointment of Nahas, 270, 271; suggested for the post of Auditor-General, 280, 286
 Sinai, 396, 405
 Sirdar of Egyptian Army, appointment of, 104, 108, 204; functions of, 406
 Sirri Pasha, 16
 Society of Vengeance, 38, 69
 Soliman, Youssef, see Youssef
 Solvehcy of Egypt, 388
 Spender, J. A., 12
 Stack, Sir Lee, murder of, 103, 104, 106, 107, 164, 165, 170-4, 243; his work in the Sudan, 132
 Stamp duty, 291, 292, 298, 314, 322
 Sudan, air-borne traffic, 345; Air Force, uses of, 345-9; authority over the various tribes, 125-7; Convention of 1899 and the Anglo-Egyptian condominium, 100, 121, 132, 134, 136-9, 389-93, 397; cotton growing, 129, 134, 351; debt owing to Egypt, 397; defence of, 132-4, 397; Sudan defence force, 97, 105; military forces in, 393; Egyptian forces in, 397; withdrawal of Egyptian officers and units from (1924), 97, 98, 100, 101, 104, 107, 135, 137; economic depression (1920-22), 123; economic position, (1925), 351; education, 393; Egypt and its administration, 86; Egypt's claim to, 72, 75, 83-6, 94, 133-9, 392; Egypt's contribution towards the cost of administration, 138, 223, 394, 397; Egyptian conquest of, and breakdown of Egyptian authority over, 391; financial position, 351; foreign consuls in, 389*n.*; Fuad claims to be styled King of the Sudan, 73; government, system of, 391, 393; Governor-General, 104, 389*n.*, 393, 394; Governor-General murdered, 94-104; grain tax, 128; Great Britain's right in, 389, 391; gum, 351; increase in Egyptian propaganda (1924), 90; increase of the area to be irrigated under the Gezira scheme, 95, 97-101, 104, 107; independent development of, 392, 394; "indirect rule" in, 345; judicial system, 128; Milner Report on, 389-94; Mixed Tribunals not recognised in, 389*n.*; municipal councils instituted, 126; mutiny of troops in Khartoum, 135, 136; native administration encouraged, 126-9, 344, 350, 393; Nile control and the status of the Sudan, 288, 289, 392, 397; outbreaks of violence, 124; people and tribes, 391; political agitation in (1924-25), 115, 117-21, 131-3; railway charges, 351; railway development, 130; responsibility of H.M. Government in, 295; revenue (1920-22), 123; (1923-24), 131; (1925-27), 343; Sudanese hatred of the Egyptians, 101, 391; taxation, 351; Turkey's claim to suzerainty over, 389*n.*
 Suez, outbreaks at (1921), 55
 Suez Canal, defence of, 85, 92, 93, 336, 395; neutrality of, 382; prohibition of aircraft, 264
 Talaat Pasha, Ahmed, 43
 Tanta, riots at, 13, 16, 42, 64
 Taxation of foreign residents, 291-3, 296, 298, 302, 313, 315, 320
 Tewfik Nessim Pasha, 39; appointed Prime Minister (1912), 72

Thomas, Sir Owen, 12
 Thompson, Lord, 336
 Transition, age of, 363
 Treaties, treaty proposed by the Milner Mission, 22-65, 242, 369, 372-94; draft treaty of 1927-28, 228-31, 245-67, 323, 327-30; negotiations by the Labour Government (1929), 316, 326, 330-41
 Turkey, failure to conclude peace with, 16; peace terms with, as affecting Egypt, 17
 Tyrrell, Sir William, 203, 204, 205, 217n.
 Vengeance, Society of, see Society of Vengeance
 Verschoyle, Mr., 88
 Wafd, 26, 39, 64, 68, 69, 74-6, 80, 95, 107, 109, 111, 112, 114, 115, 117, 118, 147, 148, 152, 158, 163, 166, 169, 170, 180, 192, 194, 198-200, 202, 212, 216, 225, 226, 232, 244, 246, 248, 257, 266, 269, 270, 273, 274, 276-8, 281, 285, 286, 302, 327-31, 340
 War of 1914-18, discontents created by the War, 20, 21; prosperity enjoyed as a result of the War, 20
 Wari, disturbances at, 119
 Wassef, Wissa, see Wissa
 Watanist Party, 90, 118, 148, 158, 163
 Water supply, see Nile
 Western political ideas, implanting of, 360
 Westernised natives, 358, 359
 Wheat shortage, 16
 White Flag, League of the, 119
 Wingate, Sir Reginald, 309, 391
 Wissa Wassef Bey, 275, 286
 Yefia Pasha Ibrahim, deputises for the Prime Minister, 113; becomes Prime Minister (1923), 74, 76; settles the question of the retirement and compensation of European officials, 77; his good work received little recognition, 78; resigns (1924), 81
 Youssef Soliman Pasha, 43
 Yuzbashi Bilal Riyak, 124
 Zaghlul Pasha, refuses to recognise the Protectorate and demands independence, 14; Milner Mission proposes negotiations with, 22, 23, 367; conversations in London with the Milner Mission (1920) 23-6, 368-72; Milner-Zaghlul Agreement, 25-33, 372-94; his influence diminishing, 35; and the headship of the treaty delegation (1921), 38, 39, 42; his jealous rage against Adly Pasha the Prime Minister, 40; carries on his campaign against the Ministry, 44; makes violent attacks on the Government, 48, 49; arrested and deported (1921), 54-6, 62; his popularity, 71; unconditionally released (1923), 74, 75; returns to Egypt and opens his campaign, 79; his success at the elections of 1923-4, 80; becomes Prime Minister (1924), 81; and the release of prisoners, 82, 83; and the law regarding indemnities to be paid to officials, 84; his negotiations with Mr. MacDonald (1924), 85-9, 92, 93, 143, 144, 243; makes one of his spectacular resignations, 92; his administration had done nothing of real internal value, 92; tenders his resignation 93; refuses to allow the post of Judicial Adviser to continue, 93; did nothing to stop the campaign of hatred of Great Britain, 94; Lord Allenby's communication to, on the murder of Sir Lee Stack, 95, 99; resigns (1924), 102, 103; his period of administration had lost him many supporters, 110; and the elections of 1925, 110-12; defeats Sarwat Pasha for the Presidency of the Chamber, 112, 148; employs his power for personal ends, 117; his attitude in regard to the Sudan, 134; exhibits a discernible tendency towards moderation, 155; the question of his taking office again (1926), 158-70, 312; his bitter hostility to Great Britain, 160, 165; work as President of the Chamber (1926), 177-83, 187, 188, 191, 194, 199, 225, 226; and the retention of British officials, 186, 195; his anxiety for the Constitution, 187, 195; again elected President of the Chamber (1926),

Zaghlul Pasha—continued

190; and the Army crisis (1927), 207, 215, 216, 223; supports the Assemblies Bill, 268; his power over the wild men of his party, 269; his name linked with the Wafd, 302; dies (Aug. 1927), 231

Zaghlulists, 36, 38, 78, 90, 115, 116, 154

Ziwar Pasha, Ahmed, becomes

Prime Minister (1924), 183; his character and aims, 109, 110; visits Europe, 113, 114, 147; and the Sudan, 136, 138, 139; returns from Europe, 148; hostility to his Ministry was, same, 151-3, 155; revises the electoral law (1925), 152-4; his courage and unswerving loyalty, 153; persecution of, 183; and the restoration of Parliamentary Government (1926), 326

THE END