

INDEX

- ABACUS and architrave of Greece, i. 83
Abdur Rahman, Amir of Afghanistan, character as a ruler, ii. 195
   death of, ii. 195, 264
   former relations with Lord Curzon
   (as Mr. George Curzon M.P.) in 1894, ii. 262, 263
   objection to British representative sent to Kabul (1899), ii. 263, 264
Acropolis, the, i. 74, 75, buildings on, architectural beauty
   of, i. 75, 76, 81
Adalia, withdrawal of Italian troops from,
   iii. 276
Adam, unfinished design for house at Kedleston, i. 128
Adam's Peak, Ceylon, mystery of shadow of, i. 125
Aden, banishment of regiment to, on account of Rangoon outrage, ii.
   72, 73
Aden, boundary delimitation of, complaint of Viceroy as to action of Home Government in, ii. 238
Adly Pasha, negotiations with, iii. 248, 249 visit to London with Zagul Pasha to discuss Egyptian difficulties, iii.
   246 Administrative officers, too frequent transfer from one district to another, remedy for, ii. 163
Admiralty and Air Board, friction between, iii. 146
   and aerial defence, iii. 144
Advocate General, difficulties created by,
   in Legislative Council, ii. 106
Afghan war, Third, short-lived adventure of, ii. 43
Afghanistan, i. 66
   Amir of, i. 297
   Abdur Rahman, death of, ii. 195 and British Government, ii. 347 treaty between, ii. 365-367 attitude of Lord Curzon towards,
   ii. 365
   attitude of, regarding treaty with Great Britain, ii. 348 displeasure of, regarding Anglo-Russian Agreement, iii. 44
   Lord Curzon's letter to, i. 205, 206 opposed to construction of railway through Khyber Pass, ii. 43 relations with, i. 211, 212, 213 border of, concentration of Russian troops on, rumour of, ii. 101 concessions to, in Anglo-Russian agreement, iii. 43 crisis over, ii. 273 defeat inflicted on British Arms in (1880), i. 95
   difficulties with, Home Government's refusal to deal with question,
   ii. 268
   frontier of, visit to (1887), i. 130 importation of arms and ammunition into, ii. 264, 265 obscurity of situation in (1901-1902),
   ii. 208
   political frontier of and administrative frontier of India, territory lying between, ii. 38, 39
   relations with, i. 298
   of Russian Government, ii. 124, 125
   visit to, i. 71
   and the Pathirs, journey to, i. 207, 208 and Russia, suspected relations between, ii. 267, 268
Africa, South, dispatch of troops to by Viceroy, appreciation of action in England, ii. 171
   Lord Curzon's impressions of,
   iii. 47
   loss of British prestige in (1881), i. 95

INDEX

- Africa, visit of Lord Curzon to (1908-1909), iii. 102
 West, French aggression on, i. 253
- Agra, ancient buildings of, work regarding, ii. 332, extreme beauty of Taj at, i. 128 Moghul buildings at, i. 129 progress of works at, review of, ii. 211
 visit to (1887), i. 128
- Agricultural Banks (India), Bill for creation of, ii. 292
- Agricultural Co-operative Credit Societies, ii. 293
- Agricultural Institute at Pusa, founded by Lord Curzon, ii. 294
- Ahmednagar, plague centre, ii. 84
- Aidin, claim of Greece for, iii. 265, 266
- Air Board, new, Lord Curzon head of, iii. 143
- Air Department, advocacy for, by Lord Curzon, iii. 142
- Air Ministry, Lord Curzon's influence on establishment of, iii. 147
- Ajanta, caves of, visit to, ii. 211
- Ala-ed-Dowleh, attitude of, to Lord Curzon, ii. 315
- Alexandria, impressions of, i. 79
- All Souls' College Oxford, Fellowship of, Lord Curzon's election to, i. 55, 90, 91; iii. 71 requirements for admission to, ii. 188, 189
 Lord Curzon a Fellow of, iii. 71
- Allenby, Lord (High Commissioner in Egypt), discussion on Egyptian question between Lord Curzon and, iii. 250 offers of, to British Cabinet, with view to settlement of Egyptian question, iii. 249 resignation of, iii. 250
- Allies, conflicting counsels among regarding Turkish demands, iii. 310 disunion among, relating to signing of treaty of peace with Turkey, iii. 93
- Amanuenses, Lord Curzon's dislike of employment of, i. 176, 177
- Amanullah, Amir, enterprise of Third Afghan War, ii. 43
- Ambassadors, Conference of, details of Treaty with Turkey filled in by, iii. 271
- Amber, disappointment at, regarding Mardana Gateway, i. 230
- Amiens, Peace of, celebrated by ball at Government House, Calcutta, ii. 255
- Amphitheatre at Great Durbar, ii. 225, 226 design for, ii. 227
- Amphill, Lord, left in charge as Viceroy during Lord Curzon's absence from India, ii. 340
 Government of, in relation to Afghanistan, ii. 346, 347
 Letter to, ii. 411
- Amritsar, Golden Temple at presentation of clock to, ii. 336
- Anaradhapura, metropolis of Buddhism, i. 126
- Anatolia, Government set up by Mustapha Kemal in, iii. 273
- Ancient Buildings, interest in, shown by Lord Curzon, ii. 95, 96, 147; iii. 73
- Ancient Monuments Preservation Act, ii. 330
- Anglo-Chinese Frontier Commission, attack on, by party of Was, ii. 114
- Anglo-French difference over Syria, iii. 265
- Anglo-Persian Treaty, negotiation of, iii. 217 provisions of, iii. 218
- Anglo-Russian Agreement, Lord Curzon on, iii. 42
- Anglo-Russian Convention (1907), iii. 212, 214, 219 criticism of, iii. 219
- Anglo-Russian Question, study of, i. 142
- Angora, iii. 262
 real seat of Turkish government, iii. 273
- Anson, Sir Williams, Warden of All Souls' College, iii. 93, 97, 99, 106
 death of, iii. 109
- Anti-Suffrage League, fund collected for, by Lord Curzon, iii. 190
 Presidentship of, accepted by Lord Curzon, iii. 190
- Antwerp, fall of, iii. 124
- Apis (sacred bull of Egypt), stabbing of, by Cambyses, recorded by Herodotus, i. 82, 83
- April, torrid climate of India during, ii. 115
- Arab state in Mesopotamia, foundation of, with British support, iii. 161

INDEX

- Arabia, separation from Turkish domination, iii. 262
 Arabian architecture, characteristics of, i. 80
 Archaeology, Director General of, in India, appointment, ii. 212
 Architectural beauties of Fatehpur Sikri, ii. 95, 97 Architecture, Arabian, characteristics of, i. 80
 "Argonaut," Durbar on quarter-deck of, ii. 316
 Aristotle, i. 75
 Armenia, separation from Turkish domination, iii. 262
 Armenians, Massacre of, i. 245
     by victorious Turks, iii. 272, 273
 Armistice, acceptance of, settlement of Near Eastern question dependent upon, iii. 288 question of government after, iii. 195, 196
 Army, British, demobilisation of, with undue haste, iii. 242 fear of defeat of, in war through exhaustion, iii. 234
     Lord Curzon on compulsion in, iii. 118
 Army Scheme promoted by St. John Brodrick, ii. 172
 Arnold, Sir Edwin, praise of Mardana Gateway, Amber, i. 130
 Arnold, Matthew, lectures at Eton Literary Society, i. 28
 Arnold Prize, won by Curzon, i. 55, 56, 91, 92
 Art, works of, Curzon's sense of appreciation of, i. 63, 64
 Art industries and handicraft of India, work for, ii. 338, 339
 Artistic temperament, emotional character of, possessors of, i. 65
 Ashmead-Bartlett, Sir Ellis, indignation against Lord Curzon, i. 279 maintenance of independence of China, i. 280
 Asia, British dominion in, Lord Curzon's fears for future of, ii. 276
     Central, journey to (1888), i. 70
     Minor, advance of Italian and Greek forces in Turkish dominions in, iii. 266, 267 indecisive battles between Greek and Turkish forces in (1921), iii. 278, 279 political evolution in, i. 308 spell cast by, i. 119, 120 tour in, 141
 Asiatic affairs and British government, ii. 273 questions arising during the war, Lord Curzon's profound acquaintance with, iii. 154 territories of Turks, encroachment of Italy and Greece on, iii. 266 Asiatic Society of Bengal, ii. 157 address to, ii. 331, 332, 338
 Asoka, graven edicts of, ii. 144
 Asquith, Rt. Hon. H. H. (Lord Oxford), i. 46; ii. 172; iii. 111, 227, 197 assistance in question of proposed University Commission, iii. 97 attempt to compel acceptance of Parliament Bill, iii. 56
     congratulations on George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 304 decision to postpone appointment of University Commission, iii. 107, 108 educated at Balliol College, i. 38
     fall of Administration of (1916), iii. 185
     letter to, iii. 135
     Lord Curzon's offer to, iii. 121 on double system of control of Foreign Office affairs, iii. 318 pledge of, to married men, in war, iii. 136 visit to Ireland (1916), iii. 185 Assam, general features and character of, ii. 113
     visit of Viceroy to, ii. 112, 113, 114
 Athens, Curzon's impressions of, i. 74, 75 restoration of Caryatides to, plea for, i. 77
 Athens and Rome, contrast between, i. 75
 Atkinson-Willes, Admiral G., in command of naval force to Persia, ii. 314, 315
 Attic Virgin, marvellous figure of, ii. 96
 Austrian army, attack on from Italian front, iii. 152
 Ayerst, Lieutenant, murder of, ii. 36
 BAGHDAD, capture by British army (March 1917), ii. 160 restoration to Turkey impossible, iii. 160
 Bagnolles, visit to, iii. 361

INDEX

- Baird, Major (Lord Stonehaven), iii. 143, 145, 205
- Baker, Sir Edward, ii. 75
- Baldwin, Rt. Hon. Stanley, iii. 309 appeal to the country on issue of protective tariffs, iii. 364 letter to, from Lord Curzon, on Foreign Office, iii. 353 letter to, relating to tenure of Foreign Secretaryship, iii. 353
- Balfour, Arthur, i. 241, 251; ii. 358
 and occupation of Wei-hai-Wei, i. 285
 under Mr. Lloyd George, iii. 147
- Balfour of Burleigh, Lord, rumoured appointment as Viceroy of India, i. 293
 Chairman of Oxford University Endowment Fund, iii. 95
- Balfour, Rt. Hon. A. J., apprehensions as to affairs in Afghanistan, ii. 262, 267
- Balfour, Earl (earlier, Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour), ii. 172, 207, 281; iii. 28, 216, 218
 and extension of Lord Curzon's Viceroyalty, ii. 278 anxiety of public on Eastern affairs, 1898, i. 281 character as a politician, ii. 122 despatch to, from Lord Curzon on encroachments of Italy and Greece on Asiatic territories of Turks, iii. 267 duties of Lord Curzon as Foreign Secretary undertaken by (during summer of 1922), iii. 289 letter from Lord Curzon on advance of Italian and Greek forces into Turkish dominions of Asia Minor, iii. 267
 First Lord of Admiralty, iii. 146
 Lord Curzon acting as Foreign Secretary in absence of, iii. 201
 Russia's seizure of Port Arthur, i. 279 selected Romanes Lecturer (1910), iii. 102 success of at Washington at end of 1921, an asset of the Coalition Government, iii. 294
- Balfour, Miss (Hon. Mrs. A. Lyttelton, D.B.E.), i. 66
- Balfour, Right Hon. G. W., i. 114
- Balkan States, co-operation invited to prevent inroad of Turks, iii. 300
- Balliol College, Oxford, career of Lord Curzon at, 1878-84, i. 37-50
 Lord Curzon an Honorary Fellow of, iii. 71 names of celebrated athletes educated at, i. 38 names of diplomatists educated at, i. 38 names of scholars educated at, i. 38 names of statesmen educated at, i. 38 pursery of public men, i. 38
- Balliol Masque*, collection of rhymes, i. 41 lines descriptive of Lord Curzon in, i. 41 principal contributors, i. 41
- Baluchistan, Durbar of Chiefs and Sirdars of, address to by Viceroy, ii. 118 railway extension from, into Persia advised against, by Lord Curzon, iii. 455
- Bannerjee, Sir S. N., downfall of, ii. 76 final speech delivered on passage of amended Calcutta Municipal Bill (1923), ii. 76 opposition to Calcutta Municipal Bill, ii. 74, 55
- Bannu, visit to, ii. 120
- Barr, Sir David, ii. 218
- Barrère M., iii. 323, 325
- Barrow, Maj.-Gen. Sir E., recommendation of, by Lord Curzon, for post of Military Supply Member, ii. 386
- Baths, method of taking, in Early English times, iii. 79
- Beaconsfield, Lord, funeral of, i. 248
 George Curzon's refusal to write official life of, i. 66, 67
- Beautiful in art and nature, Curzon's long of the, i. 63, 64, 72
- Beeching, H. C. (Dean of Norwich), contributor to Balliol Masque, i. 41
- Beldorney Castle, holiday spent at, i. 249
- Belgian refugees, Lord Curzon's hospitality to, iii. 109
- Belgians, H.M. the King of the, degree of D.C.L. conferred on at Oxford, iii. 110
- Belgium, reparation claims of, criticised by Lord Curzon, iii. 359
- Bell, Moberly, criticism of George Curzon's foreign policy, i. 303, 304
- Bengal, Eastern, Lord Curzon's speeches in, with regard to Partition of Bengal, ii. 325

INDEX

- jealousy of, shown by other Provinces of India, ii. 161
- Northern, visit to, Viceroy's report on, ii. 209
- opposition to educational reform in India shown in, ii. 193
- outlying districts of, poor administration in, ii. 324
- Parliament of, how created, ii. 75
- partition of, Lord Curzon's first reflections on, ii. 220
- Lord Curzon's attitude, ii. 326, 327, 328
- outcry against, ii. 322, 323, 327
- provincial boundaries of, question of, ii. 321
- and Assam, new province of, ii. 329; legislation of, ii. 329
- Bengal Chamber of Commerce, ii. 258
- countervailing duties on imported sugar advocated by, ii. 30
- Bengali students, anger of, with Lord Curzon relating to speech at Convocation, ii. 364
- Beni Hassan, rock tombs of, i. 83
- Benson, Mr., iii. 69
- Benson, A. C., estimate of Lord Curzon's debating powers at Eton, i. 33
- Berar, administration of, under Treaties (1853, 1860), ii. 216
- wastefulness in, ii. 217
- incorporation of, into British India, ii. 321
- question of, history, ii. 214, 215
- restoration to Nizam, opposed by Lord Salisbury, ii. 216
- districts, assignation of, ii. 215
- to Indian Government agreed to by Treaty (April 1902), ii. 219
- question of, ii. 217
- Treaty respecting, ii. 214, 215
- Bergne, Sir H., testimony of, regarding George Curzon, i. 395
- Bhopal, state visit to (1899), ii. 86
- Big game shooting, ii. 167, 168
- Bijapur, ruins of, ii. 144
- vandalism at, exciting indignation of Viceroy, ii. 144
- Bill for Creation of Agricultural Banks (India), ii. 292
- Birdwood, General, evacuation of Gallipoli under, iii. 132
- Birkenhead, Lord, (F. B. Sleigh), iii. 28
- question in House of Lords regarding letter of M. Gounaris to Lord Curzon, iii. 330
- rebuke of Sir George Younger's action by, ii. 294
- Black Hole of Calcutta, victims of, restoration by Viceroy of obelisk erected in memory of, ii. 158, 159, 257
- Blavatsky, Mme., i. 127
- "Blessed Damozel", influence of, on George Curzon's mind, i. 184, 195
- George Curzon's love of, i. 184, 185
- Blood, General Sir Bindon, letter to George Curzon, i. 297
- Blunt, W. S., on brilliancy of conversation shown by George Curzon, i. 60
- congratulations of George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 306
- president of Crabbet Club, i. 159
- Board of Trade and Shipping Control Committee, iii. 138, 139, 140, 141, 142
- Bojh-Gaya, Buddhists' shrine at, ii. 337
- Bodiam Castle presented to nation, iii. 75
- story of, iii. 75
- Bodleian Library, Sanskrit manuscripts for, iii. 59
- new printed catalogue, aided by University Endowment Fund, iii. 95
- Boers, Lord Robert's successes against, ii. 102
- Bombay, Lord Curzon's great reception at, ii. 361
- Presidency Government of, isolation from Central Government, ii. 56, 57
- reduction in status proposed by Viceroy not accepted by Home Government, ii. 59, 60
- visit to (1899), ii. 83
- incidents in, ii. 144
- welcome extended to Viceroy at, ii. 348
- Bombay Municipal Corporation, addresses of welcome to Lord Curzon, ii. 21, 148-150
- Bompard, M., iii. 323, 325
- Botanic Garden, Oxford, Tercentenary of, Lord Curzon's address at, iii. 110
- Bowles, T. Gibson, indignation against Lord Curzon, i. 273
- reply to in Parliament, i. 272
- Boxer Rising, i. 282, 285, 286
- Brackenbury, General, i. 207

INDEX

- Bradford, meeting of National Union of Conservative Associations at, i. 108
- Brasenose College, Oxford, Quatercentenary of, iii. 104
- Brassey, Hon. T. A., iii. 94
benefactor to Oxford University, iii. 91
- Brett, Hon. R. B. (afterwards Lord Esher), i. 57
- Briand, M., fall of ministry of, iii. 281 policy of, iii. 280, 281
- Britain, see Great Britain
- British Academy, Lord Curzon elected a Fellow of, iii. 71
- British Agents at Kashgar, hostile attitude of Russian representative to, ii. 37
- British and French Governments, relations between becoming strained, iii. 238 strained relations between, cause of, iii. 231 views on reparations contrasted, iii. 356
- British Army, capture of Baghdad by (March 1917), iii. 160
- British Army officers as administrators, opinion as to, held by Lord Curzon, ii. 109, 110
- British Cabinet and Amir of Afghanistan, ii. 366 and Lord Curzon, policies of, fundamental difference between, ii. 205, 206, 224 strain between, ii. 277 rift between, ii. 367
blunders of, during war, iii. 126, 127 disapproval of Viceroy's action in direct appeal to King Edward in matter of Indian taxation, ii. 242 refusal to sanction Conference at Lhasa to settle Tibetan difficulty, ii. 274
- British Delegation in Paris, iii. 260
- British diplomacy, restraining influence on France, iii. 227
- British Empire, destruction of, aimed at by German governing classes, iii. 211 representatives of, reply drawn up by Lord Curzon to French Government, an expression of view of, iii. 240
- British foreign policy, Lord Curzon's criticism of, ii. 206 observations on, i. 254
- British Government, contempt of, displayed by Tibetans, ii. 205 economic view of Reparations question taken by, iii. 356 in India (1925), ii. 256 (footnote) military operations conducted in Persia by, iii. 212 questions of vital British interest in Egypt reserved to discretion of, iii. 250 rectitude of, in post-war dealings with other nations, emphasised by Lord Curzon, iii. 244
- "British Government in India," 1925, posthumous work on, by Lord Curzon, ii. 256 (footnote) quoted, ii. 53
- British interests, defence of, in affair between Russia and Persia, ii. 206
- British Museum, Elgin Marbles, removal from original site, Lord Curzon's views on, i. 76, 77
Imperial Library resembling, established in Metcalfe Hall, Calcutta, ii. 258
Lord Curzon Trustee of, iii. 71
- British Nation, rapid demobilisation of forces demanded by, iii. 242
- British newspaper press opinion on creation of North West Frontier Province, ii. 135
- British note as to reparations, iii. 361
- British officials, death during relief work in famine districts (1896), Viceroy's tribute to, ii. 81
- British policy, attitude regarding, i. 239 towards Persia, difference of opinion regarding, between Viceroy and Home Government, ii. 98, 99
- British shipping, work of, during war, iii. 140
- British soldiers, outrage by, at Rangoon, ii. 71, 244 laxity of civil and military officials in connection with, ii. 71 punishment, ii. 72
- British soldiers and natives, conflicts between, ii. 244, 245 relations between, ii. 164
- British support of Arab State in Mesopotamia, iii. 161
- British troops, supply of, from India to South Africa, ii. 68, 69

INDEX

- Brodrick, Rt. Hon. W. St. J. (Earl of Middleton), i. 202, 208, 228, 241, 247, 251, 274; ii. 333, 387, 398, 410 appointed to India Office, ii. 280, 289, 343 Army Scheme of, ii. 172 attitude of, in military controversy, ii. 394, 395 championship of, by Lord Curzon, ii. 172, 173 despatch of, ii. 405, 406 relating to government of India, ii. 373, 379 letter from, relating to military controversy, ii. 404 letter of, relating to Lord Curzon's health, i. 260, 261
 letter to, ii. 281, 330
     from Lord Curzon on military controversy, ii. 404 relating to Lord Kitchener, ii. 355, 358 letters to relating to China, i. 282
 Lord Curzon's observation to, criticising foreign policy of Cabinet, ii. 206 rift in Lord Curzon's friendship with, ii. 241, 287 scheme of, for India, ii. 407 and Lord Curzon, coolness between, ii. 405 relations between, ii. 343, 344
     and military controversy, ii. 382
     and reform of House of Lords, i. 135, 139
     and scheme for India of Defence Committee in London, ii. 288
- Brown. See Capability Brown
- Brown, Sir James, ii. 118
- Brown, Percy, work of, ii. 338
- Browning, Oscar, Curzon's intimacy with
 i. 23, 69, 70
 epigram on, preserved by Curzon, i. 61 premature congratulations from, iii. 352 views on success in relation to education, i. 51
- Brusa, iii. 262
- Brussels Conference, question of counter-vailing duties on sugar imported into India referred to, ii. 31
- Buchanan Riddell, Sir Walter, iii. 100
- Buckle, G. (of The Times) opinion of Lord Curzon, ii. 173
- criticism of George Curzon's foreign policy, i. 303
- Buddhism in China, i. 124 metropolis of, i. 126
- Buddhist metaphysics, signification of upadana in, iii. 383
- Budget, Indian, annual discussion on, at Legislative Council, value of, ii. 106
 Viceroy's opinion regarding, ii. 210
- Budget Speech of Lord Curzon (history of first half of his administration), ii. 165
- Budget Speech of Viceroy, attitude of newspaper press towards, ii. 165
- Buildings, religious and historic, casual occupancy of, ii. 338
- Bunder Abbas, ii. 100
- Barma, historic buildings of, indifference to, ii. 200, 201 home of distinctive civilization and culture, i. 200 outrage in, perpetrated by British soldiers, ii. 71 prolongation of existing railway to Chinese frontier advocated at India Office, ii. 203
     Lord Curzon's reason against, ii. 202, 203 railway construction in, ii. 201, 202, 203 religion of, ii. 200
 Upper, frontiers of, geographical and political importance of, ii. 200
     visit to, ii. 199, 200
- Burrows, W. O. (Bishop of Chichester), contemporary with Lord Curzon at Eton, i. 21, 28
- Bushire, ii. 101
- Butler, A. S. G., appointed architect at Kedleston, iii. 83
- CABINET COMMITTEE to promote Home Rule Settlement, draft of new Home Rule Bill by, iii. 185
- Cadorna, General, iii. 153
- Cairo, i. 79, 80
 society at, i. 84
- Calcutta, first impressions of (1887), i. 127, 128 improvements effected in, ii. 258 jealousy of, shown by other provincial capitals of India, ii. 161
 Madrassah (institution for instruction in Muslim law) formation by Warren Hastings, ii. 184

INDEX

- Calcutta Municipal Act (1899), amendment of, ii. 75, 76
  proposed amendment of, ii. 28, 29
  Lord Curzon's objections, ii.
  28, 29
Municipal Bill, ii. 73 action of Lord Curzon with regard to, ii. 74, 75 opposition of Indian Nationalist Party to, ii. 74
press of, hostile to Lord Curzon, ii.
322 pride in, shown by Lord Curzon,
ii. 257, 258
seat of Government at, removal to Delhi resented by Lord Curzon, ii.
259, 260
  selected by Lord Curzon as site for Victoria Memorial Hall, ii. 156 slums and congested native portion of, improvements in, ii. 259 smoke nuisance of, ii. 258
University, Convocation of, Lord Curzon's speech at, as Chancellor,
ii. 363
  matriculation examination, number of candidates for (1917), ii.
  194
  welcome of, to Lady Curzon, ii. 362
- Cambon, M. Paul, iii. 232, 302 unpleasant situation of, iii. 233
- Cambridge, Lord Curzon Rede lecturer
at, iii. 71
- Cambyses, stabbing of Apis by, recorded by Herodotus, i. 82, 83
- Campbell-Bannerman, Sir Henry, iii. 46 on George Curzon and Russia,
  i. 296
  becomes Prime Minister, iii. 21 letter announcing postponement of University Commission, iii. 98
- Camperdown, Lord, debate on Parliament Bill, iii. 57
- Canal colonies, success of, ii. 55, 56
- Cannes, meeting of Supreme Council at (January 1922), iii. 280
- Canning, Lord, ii. 93
  archæological survey of Northern India by, ii. 352
- Canning Club, i. 44
  annual dinner, i. 47, 93 reconstruction effected by George Curzon, i. 46, 47
  secretaryship of, accepted by George Curzon, i. 46
- Canton, impressions of, i. 123
- Capability Brown, a lack of information as to, iii. 77
- Capitoline Hill, disappointment at, i. 73
- Carlton House Terrace, London home of Lord Curzon, i. 314
- Carnegie, Andrew, on Peace, iii. 118
- Carpenter, Dr., lecturer at Eton Literary Society, i. 28
- Carpenter, J. Estlin, iii. 104
- Carson, Lord, iii. 181
- Caryatides plea for restoration to Athens,
i. 77
- Cave, Lord, iii. 111
  successor to Lord Curzon in Chancellorship of Oxford University, iii.
  111
- Cave, Lady, brother of, iii. 111
- Cave monasteries and temples at Ellora,
ii. 95
- Cecil, Lord Robert, iii. 201, 216
- Cenotaph Service, Lord Curzon originator of, iii. 200
- Centenary of Government House, Calcutta (1903), ii. 255
- Ceylon, stay in, i. 125
- Chahbar, ii. 100
- Chaman (Afghan frontier), visit to, i. 130
- Chamberlain, Rt. Hon. Sir A., iii. 218, 313 321
  expression of regret regarding Lord Curzon's attitude on Montagu Chelmsford Report iii. 170 letter to from Lord Curzon on unauthorised publication of despatch from Indian Viceroy iii. 285 letter to, from Lord Curzon on proposed agreement with Soviet Government, iii. 296
  letter to, from Lord Curzon on proposed alliance with Greeks, iii.
  305 question of future government of India raised by, iii., 162 retirement from Secretaryship of State for India, iii. 165, 166
- Chamberlain, Rt. Hon. Joseph, i. 253, 274,
iii. 28, 364
  advanced radicalism of in 1880, i. 45 crusade in favour of Imperial Federation on a customs tariff basis,
  ii. 280
  judgment of, criticised by Lord Curzon, iii. 92
  on occupation of Wei-hai-Wei, i. 285

INDEX

- on Russia's seizure of Port Arthur, i. 279 precipitate advocacy of protection by, iii. 22 strong Imperialism of, iii. 22 support of petition from Mauritius in favour of imposition of counter-vailing duties on sugar imported into India, ii. 31 Tariff Reform Campaign of, iii. 23
- Chanak, reinforcement of, to prevent violation of neutral zone by Turks, iii. 300 withdrawal of French contingents from, iii. 303
- Chancellor's Latin Verse Prize, Lord Curzon's interest in, iii. 112
- Chapekar, Vasudeo, sentenced to death for assassination of Messrs. G. S. and R. S. Dravid, ii. 36
- Charpy, General, iii. 340
- Cheetham, Sir Milne, deportation of Zaglul Pasha from Egypt by, iii. 245
- Chelmsford, Lord, plan of construction of railway from Jamrud to Afghan frontier outlined by, ii. 44
See also Montague-Chelmsford reforms
- Chenab irrigation scheme, success of, ii. 55, 56
- Chicago, materialism of, i. 118
- China and Russia, influence of in Tibet, ii. 273 application to be made to for redress on account of Tibetan invasion of Sikkim, ii. 37, 38 Customs Administrations of, Controller of, iii. 215 frontier of, prolongation of Burmese railway to, Lord Curzon's reason against, ii. 202, 203
 prolongation of Burmese railway to, advocated by India Office, ii. 203
 Lord Salisbury's policy relating to, i. 256
 Russia and Tibet, secret understanding between, ii. 273
 Russian railways in, i. 286
- Chinese Amban, inability to effect a settlement in Tibetan difficulty, ii. 205
- Chital frontier question, how dealt with by Lord Curzon, ii. 41, 42 road to, unauthorized scheme for, frustrated by Viceroy, ii. 60, 61
- Christians, Jerusalem most famous city of, iii. 158
- Christie's, visit to, iii. 67
- Chumba, visit to, ii. 141, 142
- Chumbi Valley, decision as to, in Anglo-Russian agreement, iii. 44
- Churchill, Lord Randolph, i. 50 acknowledgment of Curzon's help in political speaking, i. 93 advocacy of Progressive Conservatism, i. 108 becomes Chancellor of the Exchequer and Leader of House of Commons (July 1886), i. 107 Curzon appointed assistant private secretary to (1885), i. 100 Dartford Programme outlined by, i. 101, 111, 113 haughty mood of, i. 102
 popularity of, i. 108
 principal colleague in Lord Salisbury's Administration (1885), i. 100 resignation of office, i. 109, 112 ostensible and real cause of, i. 109, 110
- Churchill, Rt. Hon. Winston, ii. 175, iii. 28, 312 and the Admiralty, iii. 144
communiqué, drawn up by, dealing with grave position of Near Eastern question, submitted to Prime Minister and handed to press, iii. 302 solution of the Irish problem put forward by, iii. 178
 vacates Admiralty, iii. 125
- Cilicia, heavy defeat of French by Turks in, iii. 272
- Clarke, Sir Edward, iii. 28
- Clémenceau, M., iii. 200, 204 agreement to establishment at Constantinople of international organization, iii. 269 created Member of National Service League, iii. 119
- Cleopatra, bas reliefs of, at Denderah, i. 83
- Cleveland, President, demand of, to Great Britain, i. 246
- Clive, Lord, claims to recognition, iii. 62 erection of statues to, iii. 62
- Clock, presentation of, to Golden Temple at Amritsar, ii. 336
- "Cloister in Cathay," article on, Fortnightly Review, June 1888, i. 124

INDEX

- Coal, supply of, difficulty at Spa Conference, iii. 234
- Coaling station on Persian Gulf, French attempt at establishment, frustrated by Lord Curzon, ii. 45, 46
- Coalition Government, assets of at beginning of 1922, iii. 293, 294 dual system of control of affairs of Foreign Office under, iii. 275 end of, iii. 321
 establishment of (Jan. 1919), iii. 201 formation of, iii. 135
 Lord Curzon's dislike of, iii. 125 member of, iii. 122
 waning prestige and popularity of, iii. 293
- Cockpit at Hackwood, restoration of, iii. 80
- Cole, A. C., i. 25
- Coleridge, Hon. B., succession to House of Lords, innovation relating to, i. 231
- Colleges, proprietary and profit-making, abolition of, in India, means for, ii. 192
- Collen, Sir E., military proposals of, ii. 102, 103
- Colley, Sir George, loss of life of at Majuba Hill, i. 95
- Collings, Jesse, "Three acres and a cow" amendment of, i. 104
- Colosseum in Roman times, mental reconstruction by Curzon, i. 74
- Commander-in-Chief of Indian Army, vacancy in post of, ii. 108, 109 delay of British Government in filling, ii. 111
- Commerce and Industry in India, proposed new department of, ii. 302
- Commercial Bureau, establishment of, in India, ii. 284 Convention between Russia and Persia, injury to British trade from, ii. 307 Department of Foreign Office, Lord Curzon head of, i. 238
- Communism and Monarchical reaction in Germany, forces of, iii. 228
- Compulsory Military Service Bill, iii. 137
- Compulsory military service, Lord Curzon's views on, iii. 135
- Concert of Europe, i. 268-272 loss of cohesion, i. 271, 272
- Conference, Allied, in London, difficulties at, iii. 231 at San Remo (April 1920), iii. 229
 Lord Curzon's diary of, iii. 229, 230 dispersal without solution of important questions, iii. 231 at Spa, iii. 233 held to promote peace between Greece and Turkey, failure of, iii. 273 proposal of, to settle difficulties with Tibet, ii. 274
- Conferences, Allied, dislike of, by Lord Curzon, iii. 227 of Representatives of the Four Great Powers (Supreme Council), iii. 225
- Congress, Indian, outspoken views of Viceroy regarding, ii. 151, 152
- Conservative Administration (1885), formation of, i. 100 fall of, i. 104
 Cabinet, indifference to Dartford Programme of Lord Randolph Churchill, i. 110 Government, establishment under Lord Salisbury (July 1886), i. 107 Party, collapse of, at General Election (1906), iii. 28 defeat of at General Election (1923), iii. 365 leaders of, strained relations of Lord Curzon with, on return from India, iii. 26, 27 revolt against leadership of Mr. Lloyd George, iii. 294
- Conservatives, appeal to, to support National Government, iii. 197 dislike of continuance of Coalition Government, iii. 313
- Conservatism, conception of, by Lord Curzon, fixed in early life, i. 48
- "Conservatism of Tennyson," article on, j. 99
- "Conservatism of Young Oxford," article on, i. 99
- Conservatism, Progressive, advocacy of, by Curzon (1887), i. 111
 advocacy by Lord Randolph Churchill, i. 108
- Constantine, ex-King, recall of to throne of Greece, iii. 277
 abdication from throne of Greece, iii. 305
- Constantinople, authorities at difficulties with, on journey to Persia, i. 149

INDEX

- future of, iii. 263, 264
 Government in, revolt against, fomented by Mustapha Kemal, iii. 269 rumours of renewed military activity of Mustapha Kemal proceeding from, iii. 300
- Contemporary Review*, article in, criticizing Viceroy's action with regard to Rangoon outrage, ii. 73
- Convention of Mudania, Turkish demands, iii. 310 for settlement of Irish question, first stages of, iii. 188 announcement regarding, by Lord Curzon, iii. 186 failure of, main cause, iii. 188, 189
- Conversation, brilliancy of, shown by George Curzon, i. 60
- Cook, E. T., i. 49
- Coolie Emigration to Assam, Bill, withdrawal from Legislative Council, ii. 105
- Co-operative Credit Societies, creation of, in India, ii. 284
- Cornish, i. 23, 70
- Cornwallis, Lord, ii. 184
- Coronation Celebrations (1902), Indian representation at, charges for, how met, ii. 230, 231, 239, 240
- Cotton Excise Duty, Indian, action of Lord Curzon with regard to, i. 68
- Countervailing duties on sugar imported into India, Bill sanctioning passed, ii. 32
- Courtship and marriage of George Curzon, i. 215
- Cowper, Lord, i. 103
- Cox, Sir Percy, ii. 316, 317, iii. 217
- Crabb, George Curzon, iii. 88
- Crabtree Club, iii. 110 character of, in 1890, i. 160 club song of, i. 160, 161
 in early eighties, i. 159 institution of, influence of, on society, i. 159 metamorphosis of, i. 159, 160
- Craddock, Admiral, disaster befallen to, iii. 124
- Craigie, Mrs. (John Oliver Hobbes), letters to, from Lord Curzon, ii. 27, 101, 122
 and Lord Curzon's speech at Guildhall, ii. 341
- Crawford, Lord, iii. 70
- Crete, unrest in, i. 266, 267
- Crewe, Lord, iii. 150, 345, 351, 358 letters to, iii. 127, 364
- Cricketer, George Curzon's aptitude at and interest in, i. 34, 35
- Cromer, Lord, iii. 28, 190 correspondence with, ii. 333 policy of, ii. 277
- Cromwell, former Chancellor of Oxford University, iii. 90
- Cross, Lord, i. 141
- Crossley, Sir Savile (Lord Somerleyton), i. 38
- Crowe, Sir E., composition of British Note on Reparations, mainly the work of, iii. 362
- Cruisers, loss of, in war, iii. 124
- Cunningham, Sir A., ii. 331
- Cunningham, Sir George, iii. 72, 352 assistance rendered to Lord Curzon, as Private Secretary, iii. 255
- Currency policy, adoption of, in India, ii. 283
- Currency system of India, reform in, ii. 164
- CURZON OF KEDLESTON, GEORGE NATHANIEL, MARQUESS OF, K.G.
- Earliest Years*
 Birth, i. 17
 Governess of, i. 17, 18
 School life at Wixenford, i. 18
- Career at Eton*, i. 21
 Achievements in cricket and football, i. 34, 35
 Appointed editor of The Etonian, i. 31
 Devotion to learning, i. 27
 Early evidences of debating powers, i. 33
 Exploits of insubordination, i. 26
 Farewell speeches at Literary Society and at Pop, i. 35, 36
 Friction with masters, i. 23
 Intimacy with Oscar Browning, i. 23
 Letter of invitation to Mr. Gladstone, i. 29
 Letter to Mr. Ruskin, i. 31
 Performances at Speeches, Fourth of June, 1877, i. 33
 Prizes obtained, i. 22
 Publication of Out of School at Eton, i. 32
 Taste for literary work, how fostered, i. 31
 Tenure of office in Eton Literary Society, i. 27, 28

INDEX

- Career at Balliol College, Oxford, 1878-1882*
 i. 37-50
 Illness before proceeding to Oxford,
 i. 38, 39
 Accepts secretaryship of Canning Club,
 i. 46
 Reconstruction of Canning Club under his organisation, i. 46, 47
 Elected President of Union, i. 46 Takes first class in Honour Moderations in classics, i. 52
 Results of final examination (1882), i.
 53, 54, 55
 Elected Fellow of All Souls (1882), i. 55 Obtains Lethian Prize for Essay on Justinian, i. 55, 88
 Obtains Arnold Prize for Essay on Sir
 Thomas More, i. 55, 56, 91, 92
 Attraction to politics, i. 43, 44 Characteristics of manner and conversation, i. 40, 41
 Conception of Conservatism established,
 i. 48
 Contracts habit of sitting up late, i. 51, 52
 Friendship with W. St. John Brodrick
 (Earl of Midleton), i. 51, 52
 Lines descriptive of him in the *Balliol
 Masque*, i. 41
 Pen-portrait of, i. 42
 Political beliefs fixed early, i. 48
 Prolixity of speech, advice of Dr.
 Jowett, i. 44, 45
 Song written by him in Waifs and Strays,
 i. 41, 42
 Speeches at the Union, i. 39, 45, 46 Views on the enfranchisement of women, i. 49
- Egrier Political Career*
 Action of, with regard to Indian Cotton Excise duty, i. 68
 Participation in public functions at Derby, i. 69
 Appointed assistant private secretary to Lord Salisbury (1885), i. 100, 103 Adopted as Conservative candidate for South Derbyshire, i. 92
 Early reputation as political speaker, i.
 92, 93
 Defeated in South Derbyshire, i. 101 Passage quoted from political speech at Stapenhill (Feb. 1884), i. 94 Appreciation of dangers of Egyptian situation, i. 95
 Disillusionment with regard to Mr.
 Gladstone, i. 97
- Candidature for Southport Division of Lancashire, question of expenses solved, i. 106, 107 Elected for Southport Division (July
 1886), i. 107
 Advocates Imperial Federation, i. 108
 Brilliant opening as a politician, i. 108, 109 Advocates Progressive Conservatism,
 i. 111
 Advocates firm foreign policy, i. 113
 Opening speeches in Parliament, i.
 114, 115
 Speech at Free Trade Hall, Manchester,
 i. 116
 Under-Secretaryship for India (1891-
 1893), i. 124, 187, 190
 Policy of, regarding British interests, in Far East, i. 143 Appointment to Under Secretaryship for Foreign Affairs, i. 235 Speech on Uganda Railway, i. 239 Differences in view with Lord Salisbury, i. 249
 Interviews with Baron Marschall, i. 248 Speeches defending Concert of Europe,
 i. 268, 271
 Ill-health, i. 289
 Frontier policy in India, i. 300, 301
 Created Baron Curzon of Kedleston, i.
 314
 Attitude of, in Chinese policy, i. 283
- Travels*
 Abroad with Oscar Browning, i. 69, 70
 First impressions of the beauty of the Taj, i. 64
 Foreign tour (1882), i. 70
 Disappointment at Capitoline Hill, i.
 73
 Early impressions of Rome, i. 73
 Early impressions of Italy, i. 73
 Impressions of Athens, i. 74, 75 Mental reconstruction of Colosseum by, i. 74
 Critical appreciation of ancient Egyptian monuments, i. 81, 82
 Visit to Egypt (1883), i. 79-84
 Travels in Greece (1883), i. 74-79
 Visit to Spain and Tangier (1883), i. 70
 Visit to the Holy Land (1883), i. 85
 Foreign tour (1885), i. 70
 Tour to Canada and the United States and via Japan to India (1887), i. 70
 First journey round the world (1887-1888), 118-133

INDEX

- First visit to North-West Frontier, i.
 129, 130
 First visit to Afghan frontier (1887), i.
 130
 Visit to Japan (1887), i. 118, 120-122
 Journey to Central Asia (1888), i. 70
 Visit to Persia (1890), i. 70, 150
 Continental tour on account of health
 (1891-92), i. 70
 Visit to the Pamirs and Afghanistan
 (1894), i. 71
 Second journey round the world (1892)
 i. 70, 190-192
 Visit to Darjeeling, Agra and Delhi, i.
 128
 Presentation to, of Patron's Gold Medal, Royal Geographical Society,
 i. 208, 210
Viceroyalty in India (1899-1905)
 Appointment to Viceroyalty, favourable reception, i. 294 et seq.; ii. 21
 Farewell functions on departure for India as Viceroy, i. 314-317 Arrival in India, addresses of welcome,
 ii. 21, 22
 Addresses of welcome, replies to, ii. 22
 Expresses satisfaction at reception, ii.
 23
 First impression in India made by, ii.
 22, 23
 Entry into Government House, Calcutta, ii. 23, 24
 Assiduous labours from outset of assuming office, ii. 26, 27 Severe criticism of Departmental methods, ii. 26, 27 Schemes outlined in first months of administration, ii. 28 Indian administration: programme of reform outlined, ii. 27, 28
 Speech to Legislative Council, ii. 27, 28 Action with regard to proposed amendment of Calcutta Municipal Act, ii.
 28, 29, 74, 75
 Estimates of Indian officials, ii. 34 Establishment of friendly intercourse between Government of India and Nepal, ii. 38
 Official audience with ruler of Nepal, ii.
 38 Proposals for dealing with Khyber Pass,
 ii. 40, 41
 Policy with regard to Khyber Pass, press comments on, ii. 42
 Proposals for dealing with Khyber
 Pass, accepted, ii. 41
 Reorganization of tribal levies arranged by, ii. 42, 43 Frustration of French attempt to establish coaling station on Persian Gulf,
 ii. 45, 46
 Justification of course taken in Muscat crisis, ii. 48
 Administrative reforms (1899), ii. 51
 Excessive exertions exciting remonstrance, ii. 54
 Inspection of canal colony, ii. 55 Determination to reform frontier administration, ii. 55
 Complaint at detachment of Madras Presidency from central Government, ii. 58
 Despatch to Secretary of State urging abolition of quasi-independence of Bombay and Madras Presidency
 Governments, ii. 59, 60
 Frustration of unauthorized scheme for construction of road to Chitral,
 ii. 60, 61
 Proposal for reduction in status of Presidency Governments (Bombay and Madras), not accepted by Home Government, ii. 59, 60
 Prevention of purchase of land at Miranshah for future evolution of troops, ii. 61, 62 Reforms in Indian administration, permanency of, ii. 65, 66 Inability to comprehend English anxiety regarding Transvaal, ii. 67 Supply of troops from India in aid of South African war, ii. 69
 Prompt action in case of Rangoon outrage, ii. 72
 Press comment, favourable and adverse, ii. 72, 73
 Action with regard to Calcutta Municipal Bill, ii. 74, 75
 Respite from toil of first year's work
 (1899), ii. 77
 Receipt of report from Rajputana
 States (1899), ii. 78
 Offer with regard to Imperial Service
 Cavalry Jodhpur, ii. 78
 Proposals for reforming leave rules,
 (1899), ii. 79
 Tribute to work of British officials dying during work in relieving famine districts (1896), ii. 81

INDEX

- Viceroyalty in India (cont.)*
- Tour of Indian famine districts (1899) ii. 82
  - Inoculated against plague (1899), ii. 82, 83
  - Visit to famine-stricken district of Kathiawar (1899), ii. 83
  - Visit to Bombay (1899), ii. 83
  - Apprehension as to demoralising effects of relief schemes for famine (1899), ii. 84, 85, 86
  - Visit to Bhopal (1899), ii. 86
  - Impressions of pomp and pageantry of the East, ii. 86, 87
  - On duties of Indian native chiefs, ii. 89, 91
  - Instruction that permission for Native Chiefs to visit countries outside India would be granted by Government of India only, ii. 91, 92
  - Durbar held at Lucknow (1899), ii. 93
  - Address on the political and social value of the Durbar, ii. 93, 94
  - Summary of first year's Viceroyalty, ii. 94, 95
  - Difference of opinion with Home Government regarding British policy towards Persia, ii. 98, 99, 102
  - Despatch respecting policy with regard to Russian encroachments on Southern Persia and Persian Gulf, ii. 99, 100
  - Insistence of view regarding Russian domination of Persia, ii. 102
  - Heavy administrative duties of, ii. 104
  - Withdrawal of Bills from Legislative Council, ii. 105,
  - Suggestion of appointment of Lord Kitchener as Commander-in-Chief, ii. 109
  - Poor opinion of British army officers as administrators, ii. 109, 110
  - Visit to Assam, ii. 112, 113, 114
  - Frontier policy of, not aggressive, ii. 114
  - Health of, told upon by excessive work, ii. 116
  - Criticism of failures in work of officials, ii. 116, 117
  - Address to Durbar of Chiefs and Sirdars of Baluchistan, ii. 118
  - Plain speaking at Durbar address, ii. 118, 119
  - Discussion of frontier problems by, ii. 120
  - Request from Home Government for Despatch on his views regarding recent declaration of Russian Government on its relations with Afghanistan, ii. 124
  - Opposition to presence of Russian agent at Kabul, ii. 125, 126
  - Plan for recruiting Imperial Cadet Corps from Indian aristocracy, ii. 126, 127
  - Ill-health of, in summer of 1900, ii. 128
  - Visit to relief works at Dohad, ii. 129
  - Scheme for better control of North-West Frontier, ii. 130, 131
  - Frontier policy of, ii. 132
  - Summary of case for change in Frontier policy, ii. 133, 134
  - Creation of North-West Frontier Province by (1900), ii. 134
  - Affront at behaviour of Sir Mackworth Young, ii. 140
  - Visit to Chufnba (1900), ii. 141, 142
  - Work at Simla Session of Legislation Council, ii. 142
  - Rumours of invitation to enter Home Government (October 1900), ii. 142, 143
  - Tour round Indian peninsula, ii. 143-154
  - Incidents in visit to Bombay and Madras, ii. 144, 145
  - Indignation at discovery of vandalism at Bijapur, ii. 144
  - Visit to Native States unknown to previous Viceroys, ii. 147
  - Part played by, in Rangoon outrage incident, general approval of, ii. 147
  - Campaign for preservation of ancient Indian Monuments, ii. 95, 147, 211, 330-338
  - On principles of administration in government of India, reply to address of welcome from Bombay Corporation, ii. 148-150
  - Definition of Indian public, ii. 151
  - Point of height of popularity with all classes of Indian people, ii. 152
  - Classes in India with whom not popular, ii. 152
  - Observations on contact between Eastern and Western races in India, ii. 153
  - Opposed to educational system promot-

INDEX

- ing denationalisation in India, ii. 153, 154
- Receipt of letter from Queen Victoria, written shortly before death, ii. 155
- Scheme for commemorating reign of Queen Victoria (January 1901), ii. 156, 157
- Restoration by, of obelisk erected in memory of victims of Black Hole of Calcutta, ii. 158, 159
- Design of Victoria Memorial Hall, suggested by, ii. 161,
- Progress with the twelve reforms initiated by, ii. 161, 162
- Policy of, military and administrative, successfully solved, ii. 163
- Reflections on his position as Viceroy, ii. 166
- Visit to Nepal, ii. 167
- Abilities as a sportsman with gun and rifle, ii. 167
- Advocacy of Mount Everest Expedition, ii. 167
- Dependence on Lady Curzon and expressions of his loneliness in her absence, ii. 169
- Amusing touches revealed in correspondence with Lady Curzon, ii. 170
- Break in his relations with Sir Mackworth Young, ii. 170, 171
- Championship of St. John Brodrick, ii. 172, 173
- Action in case of dismissal of an Indian Civil Servant, ii. 179
- Distress at separation from Lady Curzon, ii. 176
- Unpleasant correspondence with family of Lord Howe, ii. 176
- Great industry of, as Viceroy, ii. 178
- Unwillingness to delegate work to others, ii. 178
- Tribute to abilities of Sir Walter Lawrence, ii. 179
- Despatch on Indian Land Assessments question, ii. 182, 183
- Education in India in vernacular tongues advocated by, ii. 186
- Advocacy of reform in technical education, ii. 187
- Requirements for admission to the Fellowship of All Souls's College, Oxford, stated by, ii. 188, 189
- Directorship General of Education in India, advocated by, ii. 189
- Educational Conference at Simla, summoned by, ii. 190
- Opening address at Educational Conference, in shape of elaborate Minute, ii. 190
- Visit to Manipur, ii. 197
- Address at Imphal, capital of Manipur, ii. 197
- Abolishes project for building fort at Imphal (Manipur), ii. 199
- Deprecation of railway extension into China, ii. 201, 202, 203
- Reasons for uselessness of roads in Western Persia, urged by, ii. 202
- Demand for defence of British interests in affair between Russia and Persia, ii. 206
- Criticism of British foreign policy, ii. 206
- British Cabinet, nature of Lord Curzon's differences with, in matters of foreign policy, ii. 205, 206
- Subject of Frontiers, always appealing to, ii. 200
- Failure to obtain interview with Amir Habibulla, ii. 208, 209
- Stay at Darjeeling, ii. 209
- Discussion of Tibetan difficulty with Political Officer of Sikkim, ii. 209
- Opinion regarding Indian Budget (1902), ii. 210
- Review of progress of works at Agra, ii. 211
- Caves of Ajanta, ii. 211
- Visit to Hyderabad, ii. 211
- Description of Durbar at Peshawar, ii. 212
- Visit to Khyber Pass, ii. 212, 213
- Praise of Colonel Deane (ruler of new Frontier Province), ii. 213
- Diplomatic settlement of Berar question with Nizam of Hyderabad, ii. 218, 219
- First reflections on partition of Bengal, ii. 220
- Proposal to hold great Durbar, solemnizing accession of King Edward VII as Emperor of India, ii. 221, 222
- Difference with British Cabinet, ii. 224
- Items in programme of Imperial Assemblage (1877) excluded by, from Great Durbar ceremonies, ii. 228, 229
- Tour of Central India (1902), ii. 229

INDEX

Viceroyalty in India (cont.)

- Unjust accusations of reckless expenditure from Indian Exchequer, ii. 230
- Successful in insistence that Home Government should pay English expenses of Indian representation at Coronation, ii. 230, 231, 239, 240
- Regret for economy in Great Durbar celebration expenses, ii. 232
- On lessons to be derived from the Great Durbar, ii. 233
- Emotional instability of, increased by strain of work in India, ii. 235
- Differences with India Council, ii. 235, 236
- Accusation against India Council, ii. 237, 238
- Direct appeal to King Edward to support announcement of reduction of taxation in India at Delhi Durbar, ii. 242
- Offer to resign Viceroyship, ii. 243
- Rift in friendship with St. John Brodrick, ii. 244
- Crusade against shooting accidents in India, ii. 245, 246
- On significance of cheering the 9th Lancers at Great Durbar, ii. 247
- Greater independence of Indians not overlooked by, ii. 248
- Anxiety for Lord Kitchener's appointment to post of Commander-in-Chief, ii. 249, 250
- First impression of Lord Kitchener, ii. 251
- Misgivings on eve of Durbar, ii. 252
- Satisfaction on accomplishment of Durbar, ii. 253
- Great Durbar recognised as expression of his personality, ii. 254
- Success of Great Durbar due to his efforts, ii. 254
- Celebration of centenary of Government House by ball (1903), ii. 255
- Impersonating Lord Wellesley at Fancy Dress Ball at Government House, Calcutta, ii. 256
- Pride in Calcutta taken by, ii. 257, 258
- Resentment at removal of seat of Government from Calcutta to Delhi, ii. 259, 260
- Former relations with Amir Abdur Rahman in 1894, ii. 262, 263
- Disillusionment with regard to Habibulla, Amir of Afghanistan, ii. 266
- Difficulty of negotiation with Amir of Afghanistan, ii. 270
- Determination to remain at post of Viceroy, in face of Tibetan difficulty, ii. 276
- Proposal that Conference to settle Tibetan difficulty should be held at Khamba Jong, accepted by Cabinet, ii. 279
- Breach with British Government, ii. 289
- Extension of Viceroyalty, ii. 302, 303
- Memorandum of, relating to Army Control in India, ii. 358
- Return to India, ii. 360
- Unpopularity of his policy in Bengal, ii. 362
- Minute of, relating to dispute between Lord Kitchener and Sir Edmond Elles, ii. 375, 377
- Despatch to British Government relating to Military Controversy in India, ii. 380
- Resignation of, as Viceroy, ii. 387
- Appreciation of work in India, ii. 389
- Relative value of schemes of Lord Curzon and Lord Kitchener for Indian government, ii. 391-393
- Relations with British Government, ii. 406
- Speech before Legislative Council, ii. 408
- Mistakes of, in Military Controversy, ii. 411
- Thoroughness of work of, as Viceroy, ii. 414
- Relations of, while Viceroy, with colleagues and subordinates, ii. 415, 416
- Rigid impartiality of rule of, as Viceroy, ii. 423
- Temporary withdrawal from politics* (1905-1907)
- Arrival in England from India, iii. 21
- Opinion of Mr. Chamberlain as a politician, iii. 22
- View regarding preferential tariffs, iii. 22
- Approves object, but not method of Mr. Chamberlain's Tariff Reform Campaign, iii. 23
- Reasons for withholding support from Tariff Reform Party, iii. 24
- Not committed to Free Trade policy, iii. 24

INDEX

- Strained relations with leaders of Conservative Party, iii. 26, 27
- Services in India not recognised officially on return, iii. 28, 29
- Grief of, on death of Lady Curzon, iii. 33
- Chancellorship of Oxford University*
- Election, iii. 34, 93
- High ability shown in discharge of his duties, iii. 35
- Energy displayed, iii. 90
- Great thought not popular, as Chancellor, iii. 90
- Organisation of Endowment Fund for Oxford University, iii. 94
- First commemoration, iii. 95
- Assistance in question of University Commission, iii. 97
- Announcement in House of Lords of postponement of University Commission, iii. 98
- Reformation of Oxford University from within begun, iii. 98
- Conception of his position and duties, iii. 98
- Comment on University finance, iii. 99
- Annual residence at Oxford, iii. 100
- Delivery of Romanes Lecture on "Frontiers," iii. 101
- Dinner with Oxford Medical Graduates Club, iii. 104
- Memorandum on University Reform at Oxford, iii. 51, 103, 104
- Complaint of delays in University reform, iii. 106
- Summary of, work as Chancellor of Oxford University after the war, iii. 109
- Judgments of his Report as Chancellor differing little from those of Royal Commission on Universities, iii. 110
- Presiding at Grand Encaenia at Oxford after the war, iii. 110
- Literary bequests to Oxford University, iii. 111
- Immense correspondence on University affairs, iii. 112
- Project of Royal visit to Oxford (1910) frustrated by King Edward VII's death, iii. 113
- Deputation from Oxford University, presenting Loyal Address to H.M. King George V. headed by, iii. 113
- Resuscitation of St. Edmund's Hall, Oxford, under, iii. 113,
- Receipt of letter from Marshal Foch on bestowal of honorary degree, iii. 114
- Return to Public Life (1907)*
- Opinion of the Russian Convention, iii. 38
- Elected Irish Representative Peer, iii. 42
- On Anglo-Russian Agreement, iii. 42
- Academic and political activities of, iii. 45
- Nominated as Conservative candidate for Lord Rectorship of Glasgow University, iii. 46
- Election of, as Lord Rector of Glasgow University, iii. 46
- Motor accident to, iii. 47, 101
- Voyage to South Africa, iii. 47, 102
- Impressions of South Africa, iii. 47
- Memorandum on the principles and methods of University Reform, iii. 51
- Installation of, as Lord Rector of Glasgow University, iii. 52
- Effect of Mr. Lloyd George's 1909 Budget on, iii. 54
- Letter to The Times on Parliament Bill, iii. 56
- Mover of official Union Resolutions on Parliament Bill, iii. 57
- Attitude to Parliament Bill, iii. 57, 58
- President of Royal Geographical Society, iii. 60
- Successful advocacy of change of abode of Royal Geographical Society iii. 60, 61
- Chairman of Shipping Control Committee, iii. 67
- Appointed Trustee of the National Gallery, iii. 68
- Famous examples of architecture bequeathed to State by, iii. 74
- Repayment to Treasury of salary as Cabinet Minister, iii. 87
- Controversy over repairs at Hackwood, iii. 85
- Hospitality to Belgian refugees, iii. 109
- And British Military requirements, iii. 120
- On the Opposition during the war, iii. 123
- Appointed Lord Privy Seal, May 27, 1915, iii. 125
- Ill-health of, iii. 126
- Profound acquaintance with every

INDEX

Return to Public Life (cont.)

- Asiatic question arising during the War, iii. 154
- Railway extension from Baluchistan into Persia, advised against by, iii. 154, 155
- Offer of Knighthood of Garter to, iii. 137
- Physical suffering during strain of war work, iii. 150
- Marriage to Mrs. Duggan, iii. 151
- Member of War Cabinet Committee, iii. 152
- Analysis of phrase "National Home for Jewish race," iii. 158
- Solution of civil and religious difficulties in Jerusalem and Palestine proposed by, iii. 159
- View as to impossibility of restoration of Baghdad to Turkey, iii. 160
- Hostility towards Montagu-Chelmsford Report on Government in India, iii. 163, 164
- Generally accepted view as to political concessions to India, on account of war services discarded by, iii. 162
- Forecast of Parliamentary Government in India (1909), iii. 166
- Disputatious correspondence with Mr. Montagu (Secretary of State for India) on the Montagu-Chelmsford Report, iii. 167-174
- Apparently changed attitude on Parliamentary Government in India (1917-18), iii. 168, 169
- Views on "responsible" government in India, discussed, iii. 168, 169
- Repudiates proposals for Parliamentary Government in India, iii. 170, 171
- Refusal to serve on Cabinet Committee to prepare Bill for Government of India, iii. 175
- Views on Home Rule and the Irish question, iii. 178
- On settlement of South African Constitution as a model for settlement of Irish Home Rule question, iii. 179
- Strong views held by, with regard to position of the King with regard to Home Rule Bill (1913), iii. 182, 183
- Conference of Unionist Members summoned by (June 1916), iii. 184, 185
- Accepts chairmanship of Cabinet Committee to promote Home Rule Settlement, iii. 185

- Announcement in House of Lords of Convention proposal for settlement of Home Rule question, iii. 186
- Opponent of Suffragist movement, iii. 190
- Becomes President of Anti-suffrage League, iii. 190
- Fund collected by, in support of Anti-Suffrage League, iii. 190
- Opposes Women's Suffrage but abstains from voting against it in House of Lords, iii. 192, 193
- Mover of address to His Majesty on conclusion of Armistice, iii. 197
- Appeal to Conservatives to support National Government, iii. 197
- Speech in House of Lords following Armistice, iii. 198-199
- Chairman of Cabinet committee for organizing Peace Celebrations, iii. 200, 201
- Appointed to Foreign Office, in absence of Mr. Balfour, iii. 201
- Foreign Secretaryship* (1919-1924)
- Appointed Foreign Secretary, iii. 205
- Persian policy of, iii. 208, 209
- Speech to Imperial War Cabinet, iii. 209, 210
- Negotiation of Anglo-Persian Treaty by, iii. 217
- Speech at Government dinner to Persian Foreign Minister, iii. 219
- Disappointment in conception of Foreign Secretary's work, iii. 224
- Dislike of Allied Conference, iii. 227
- Attacks of sleeplessness during post-war work (1920), iii. 229
- Diary of Allied Conference at San Remo (April 1920), iii. 229, 230
- Presides at Allied Conference, London iii. 231
- Conversations with French Ambassador, iii. 231, 232
- Regrets for Sir Henry Wilson, iii. 234
- Misunderstanding with Prime Minister regarding attendance at an Allied Conference, iii. 235
- Successful negotiations with M. Briand at Allied Conference, iii. 236
- Anxious for economic recovery of Germany after the war, iii. 236
- Comment on mentality of German people, iii. 236, 237
- Painful interview with French Ambassador, iii. 239

INDEX

- Reply to French Government described as masterly, iii. 240
- Reply to French government submitted to Prime Ministers of British Dominion and Representatives of India, iii. 240
- Realisation of inability to back diplomacy with force, iii. 242
- Remarks at Imperial Conference (1923) on warlike state of Europe, iii. 243
- Necessity for closest co-operation between governments of Great Britain and France upheld by, iii. 243
- Discussion with Lord Allenby on Egyptian question, iii. 250
- Work of, as Foreign Secretary, change in attitude explained, iii. 251, 252
- Difficulty of, iii. 254
- Influences militating against withdrawal from Government, iii. 254, 255
- Assistance rendered by Sir George Cunningham, iii. 255
- Record of official difficulties (1920-21), iii. 255, 256
- Withdrawal from society, iii. 257
- Difficulties arising with Mr. Lloyd George, iii. 260
- View regarding future of Turkey and Near Eastern question, iii. 262
- Minute as to termination of Near Eastern question drawn up before end of the war, iii. 262
- Apprehensions for results of Peace Conference iii. 264
- Despatch to Earl Balfour on encroachments of Italy and Greece on Asiatic territories of Turks, iii. 267
- Consideration of whole question of Turkish peace by Allied Powers urged by, iii. 269
- Emphatic protest against retention of Turks in Europe and at Constantinople, iii. 270
- Defeated on policy of ejecting Turks from Europe, iii. 270
- Negotiation of Franklin-Bouillon Agreement without his knowledge, iii. 276
- Visit to Paris to attempt to procure mediation between Greeks and Turks in Asia Minor (June 1921), iii. 278
- List of modifications of Treaty of Sèvres, drawn up by (October 1921), iii. 279
- Apprehensive of danger of delay in settlement of Near Eastern question, iii. 282
- Difficulties in negotiation as to Near Eastern question with M. Poincaré, iii. 282
- Pronouncement of Paris Conference (March 1923), written out by, iii. 287
- Interview with representatives of both Turkish governments as to settlement of Near Eastern question, iii. 287
- Illness of, during summer of 1922, iii. 289
- Duties of Foreign Secretary temporarily undertaken by Earl Balfour, iii. 289
- Undergoes treatment by hypnotism unsuccessfully (1922), iii. 289, 290
- Recovery from phobias, iii. 291
- Opposition to parleyings with representatives of Soviet Government, iii. 294
- Displeasure at issue of a statement on Near-Eastern question to the Press without his knowledge, iii. 302
- Painful interview with M. Poincaré, iii. 303
- Mission to Paris to restore Alliance between Great Britain and France, iii. 303, 304
- Interview with Dr. Nihad Rechad, with regard to withdrawal of Turkish forces from Chanak, iii. 306
- Efforts to prevent outbreak of war between Greek and Turkish forces, iii. 306
- Conference in Paris with M. Poincaré and Signor Galli in regard to Turkey, iii. 311
- Appreciations received by, in regard to negotiations with Turkey, iii. 311
- Letter of protest, intended for Prime Minister relating to interference with Foreign Affairs, iii. 315-317
- Change of attitude regarding General Election, iii. 319
- Position of, at Peace Conference at Lausanne, iii. 324
- Change in manner of, at Peace Conference at Lausanne, iii. 325

INDEX

- Foreign Secretaryship (cont.)*
- Praise of delegates to Peace Conference at Lausanne, iii. 325
  - Domestic worries of, letters relating to, iii. 327, 328
  - Policy of, regarding Turkey, iii. 333
  - Speech relating to proposed rendition of vilayet of Mosul to Turkey, iii. 333, 334
  - On question of reparations, iii. 345
  - Renewed attack of phlebitis, iii. 347, 348
  - Speech in House of Lords on reparations, iii. 348
  - Visit to Toers, iii. 349
  - Disappointment at not being appointed Prime Minister, iii. 352
  - Proposal of Mr. Baldwin as leader of Conservative Party by, iii. 353
  - Disapproval of Trade Agreement with Soviet Russia, iii. 354
  - Views as to Ruhr occupation, iii. 357
  - Draft of reply to German Note of June 7, 1923, iii. 357, 358
  - Criticism of French and Belgian Reparation claims, iii. 359, 360
  - On ill-effects of French occupation of the Ruhr, iii. 360
  - Visit to Bagnolles, iii. 361
  - Epitome of work as Foreign Minister, iii. 363
  - Views on Protection, iii. 364
  - Opinion regarding General Election, iii. 364
    - Subsequent change explained, iii. 364
  - Concluding Political Career and Closing Days (1924-1925)*
  - Appointed Lord President of Council, Leader in the House of Lords, and Chairman of Committee of Imperial Defence, iii. 369
  - Death of, iii. 378, 379
    - messages of sympathy after, iii. 379
  - Funeral service in Westminster Abbey, iii. 380
  - Lying-in-state of, at Kedleston, iii. 380
  - Burial of, at Kedleston, iii. 379, 380
  - Epitaph on tablet to memory of, iii. 380
  - Letters*
  - To Mr. Stanley Baldwin relating to tenure of Foreign Secretaryship, iii. 353
  - To Earl Balfour on advance of Italian and Turkish forces into Turkish dominions of Asia Minor, iii. 267
  - To Mr. A. Chamberlain on proposed agreement with Soviet Government, iii. 296
  - To Mr. A. Chamberlain on proposed alliance with the Greeks, iii. 305
  - To Mr. A. Chamberlain on unauthorized publication of Despatch from Viceroy on Moslem unrest in India, iii. 285
  - To Mrs. Craigie (John Oliver Hobbes), ii. 27, 122
  - To Mrs. Craigie on the Russian menace in Persia, ii. 101
  - To Lady Curzon (first) (Mary Victoria Leiter), i. 63, 66, 68
  - To Lady Curzon (first), on political situation, ii. 172-176
  - To Lady Curzon (first), on Educational Conference, ii. 191
  - To Lady Curzon (second), see under Curzon, Lady (second)
  - To R. R. Farrer (1880-81), i. 63, 64, 89
  - To Sir Arthur Godley on restoration of ancient monuments, ii. 97
  - To Sir A. Godley on advance of Russia towards head of Persian Gulf, ii. 99
  - To Sir A. Godley on proposed reforms in Land Assessment, ii. 180
  - To Sir A. Godley, complaint as to action in delimitation of Aden boundary, ii. 238, 239
  - To Lord George Hamilton (Secretary of State for India), ii. 124
  - To Lord George Hamilton, on note-taking and report-writing as hindrance to Administration, ii. 63, 64
  - To Lord George Hamilton, report on work at Simla (1899), ii. 79
  - To Lord George Hamilton on Assam, ii. 113
  - To Lord George Hamilton on Mishmi Expedition, ii. 114
  - To Lord George Hamilton on visit to Northern Bengal, ii. 209
  - To Lord George Hamilton on secret understanding between Russia, China and Tibet, ii. 273
  - To Mr. Bonar Law on position of Coalition Government after armistice, iii. 146
  - To Sir Schomberg McDonnell on fiscal policy of Conservative Party, iii. 25
  - To Mr. E. S. Montagu (Secretary of

INDEX

- State for India), on self-government in India, iii. 171
- To Lord Sandhurst on delay in detention of the brothers Natu, ii. 57, 58
- To Lord Selborne, ii. 132
- To Cecil Spring-Rice, i. 61
- To The Times on government in India, iii. 37, 38
- To The Times about Globe room at Banbury, iii. 81
- To Sir William Wedderburn, regarding the Congress, ii. 151, 152
- Correspondence, extracts of, i. 170, 171
- Letters from M. Gounaris, iii. 330
- From Lord George Hamilton (Secretary of State for India), ii. 33, 54, 110, 123, 124
- From Lord George Hamilton on Indian Land Assessments question, ii. 185
- From Lord George Hamilton on Educational Conference, ii. 191
- From Mr. E. S. Montagu (Secretary of State for India), on self-government in India, iii. 170, 171, 173, 175
- From Mrs. Humphry Ward relative to Anti-Suffrage Movement, iii. 194
- From Lady Ribblesdale, (Dec. 28, 1882), i. 93, 94
- From R. W. Raper, i. 101
- Literary Work*
- Contributions to Oxford Review, i. 97, 98, 99
- "The voice of Memnon," Edinburgh Review, 1886, i. 117
- "Myth of Er," Murray's Magazine, Sept. 1887, i. 117
- "Valley of the Waterfalls," Macmillan's Magazine July 1888, i. 119
- "Japanese Wrestling," New Review, Dept. 1888, i. 119
- "The Cloister in Cathay," Fortnightly Review, June 1888, i. 124
- Publication of: Russia in Central Asia (1889), i. 70
- Persia and the Persian Question* (1892), i. 70
- Problems of the Far East*, i. 199, 200
- War Poems* (1915), i. 117
- Tales of Travel* (1923), i. 117, 119
- Leaves from a Viceroy's Notebook* (1926), i. 200
- Bodiam Castle*, iii. 76
- Walmer Castle*, iii. 77
- Verses*, i. 161, 163, 166
- "Bells, The" (Edgar Allan Poe), Lord Curzon's parody on, i. 166
- "Gang The," verses to, i. 163, 164
- Verses of, as member of Crabtree Club, i. 161, 162
- General Facts Relating to—*
- Accessibility to visitors, ii. 33
- Admiration for Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, i. 101
- Admiration for Lord Salisbury, i. 102, 103
- Ambition to become Prime Minister, iii. 351, 352
- Appreciation of old buildings, iii. 73
- Appreciation of works of art, i. 63, 64
- Attachment to Kedleston expressed in verse, i. 23
- Character of: attacks of depression, i. 66
- Capability for deep love and devotion to some, iii. 385
- Contrasted with, that of intense animosity to others, iii. 386
- Character of, contrasts in, iii. 384
- Child-like in his emotions, iii. 30
- Displays of humility alternating with those of bombast and excessive optimism, i. 67, 68
- Evidences of innate humility, i. 66, 67
- Emotional traits in, i. 65, 66
- False estimates of, i. 37, 38
- Hauteur and aloofness explained, i. 65, 66, 67
- Inflexible courage, i. 68
- Marked by great ambition, i. 56
- Traits in, compared with those in character of Gladstone, i. 59, 60
- Characteristics of, in daily life, i. 242, 245
- Courtship and Marriage of, i. 215
- Critical estimate of his work as Foreign Minister, iii. 363
- Description of, as Parliamentary speaker in Vanity Fair, i. 115
- Dexterity of, in parrying questions in Parliament, i. 272, 273
- Detection of dishonesty in a cook sent out to India, i. 106
- Distaste for platform speaking, iii. 369
- Early conception of British foreign policy, iii. 224
- Early engagement to be married, broken off, i. 58
- Energy and driving force, ii. 417

INDEX

General Facts (cont.)

- Expression of reverence for the past in poem contributed to Waifs and Strays, ii. 96
- Fastidiousness in taste, i. 58, 59
- Fitted to derive maximum advantage from foreign travel, i. 72
- Friendship with Laura Tennant (Mrs. Alfred Lyttelton), iii. 389
- Greatness as a force in world politics, how shown, iii. 244
- Grief at death of his mother, i. 23
- Happiness of, dependent on others, iii. 30
- Hard bargains driven by, iii. 82
- Ill-health of, i. 68, 69; ii. 128, 289; iii. 126, 328
- Imperialistic creed of, i. 257; iii. 391
- Income much restricted before marriage, i. 105, 106
- Industry of, iii. 383, 384
- As Foreign Secretary impecable, iii. 149, 150
- As Viceroy, iii. 178
- Interest in the present more than in the future manifested by, iii. 366
- Intimacy with Oscar Browning, i. 69, 70
- Irony of, i. 61
- Love and reverence for architectural and historic fabrics, ii. 95, 96, 147; iii. 73
- Love of the beautiful possessed by, i. 63, 64
- Love of life possessed by, iii. 383
- Love of pomp and ceremony, ii. 414
- Nature of impulse to labour in, iii. 383
- No visit paid by, to Ireland, though an Irish peer, iii. 179
- Obituary tributes to Alfred Lyttelton and George Wyndham, iii. 385
- Passion of, for minute detail, i. 242, 243
- Powers of observation how sharpened, i. 72
- Precocity of, exhibited in correspondence, i. 57, 58
- Presentation of Tattershall and Bodiam Castles to nation, iii. 75
- Refusal to write official Life of Lord Beaconsfield, i. 66, 67
- Religious views, ii. 418, iii. 30, 389-395
- Reputation as great debater, i. 264
- Reputation for satire, ii. 415
- Septical tendency in, iii. 390
- Self-esteem of, based on high motives, i. 56, 57
- Sense of humour in, i. 150, iii. 50
- Sense of the ludicrous shown by, in boyhood, i. 24, 25
- Sensitiveness of, ii. 175
- Physical causes of, ii. 175
- Sensitiveness to criticism acute, ii. 423
- Suppression of emotions in diplomatic interviews not practised by, iii. 368
- Subordinate position not relished by, iii. 366
- Tribute to character of Lord Sandhurst, iii. 388
- Tribute to services of, from King Edward VII, iii. 382
- Verses to, i. 317
- Views on despoiling of English countryside, iii. 78
- Curzon, Lady (first), i. 57, 65
- and Delhi Durbar, ii. 284, 285
- and Walmer Castle, ii. 340
- anxiety regarding Muscat crisis, ii. 52
- complaint of separation from her husband, ii. 51, 52
- correspondence with Lord Curzon on need for his statesmanship in English affairs, ii. 173, 184
- on political situation in England, ii. 173, 174
- death of, iii. 30, 33
- departure for Europe (1901), ii. 266
- departure to England, ii. 320
- dislike of India, ii. 359
- first impressions of Simla, ii. 51, 52
- illness of, ii. 342, 359
- in autumn 1904, iii. 31
- recovery from, ii. 361
- impression of Durbar at Lucknow, ii. 63
- influence on her husband not fully realised, ii. 53, 54
- ivory casket and address presented to, at Calcutta, ii. 362
- letter from, informing Lord Curzon of impression in England created by his work in India, ii. 171
- letter to, from Lord Curzon, ii. 323
- on Educational Conference, ii. 191
- memorial chapel to, in Kedleston Church, iii. 372
- on trying weather experienced during tour of Indian peninsula, ii. 146

INDEX

- pain at enforced separation from Lord Curzon, ii. 177 peacock dress of, ii. 359 remonstrance of Lord George Hamilton with, as to Lord Curzon's attitude towards India Council, ii. 237 return to India after illness, iii. 31
See also Letter, Mary Victoria
- Curzon, Lady (second), letters to, from Lord Curzon, iii. 145, 152, 189, 203, 204, 214, 217, 220, 228-30, 233-36, 248, 253, 254, 256, 257, 278, 290, 291, 323, 325, 326, 328, 331, 332, 349, 364, 369, 370, 373, 375-77
See also Duggan, Mrs.
- Cust, L. H., iii. 379
- Customs barrier on Rhine, termination of, by Supreme Council, iii. 240
- Dacca, experimental farm at, results of research at, ii. 296
- Daily Chronicle*, on creation of North-West Frontier Province, ii. 135 praise of Viceroy's Budget speech, ii. 165
- Daily News* on "Russia in Central Asia" in 1889, i. 145
- Dalai Lama, contemptuous silence in response to Lord Curzon's letter, ii. 205, 208
- Dalhousie, Lord, ii. 340
 Treaty respecting Berar district drafted by (1853), ii. 214
- Dane, Mr. (afterwards Sir Louis), head of British Mission to Kabul, ii. 364
- Daniel, Dr. Provost of Worcester College, death of, iii. 112
- Dardanelles, Asiatic side of, demilitarised and neutral zones not to be invaded by Turkish troops, iii. 300 Asiatic shore, withdrawal of French contingent from, by order of M. Poincaré, iii. 303 loose hold of Allies over (1919), iii. 264
- Darjeeling, visit to, i. 128; ii. 209
- Darmstadt, French occupation of, iii. 231
- Dartford Programme of progressive Conservatism, outlined by Lord R. Churchill, i. 110, 111, 113
- Darwin, Major Leonard, iii. 60
- Dawes Committee, iii. 358
- Dawkins, Sir Clinton, iii. 25 commissioned to discuss question of Government Loans with ruling chiefs, ii. 78 Finance Minister, departure of, ii. 103 praise of Lord Curzon's article on Frontier Question, i. 142
- Deane, Major, appointed Commissioner of North-West Frontier Province, ii. 139 ruler of new Frontier Province, Viceroy's praise of, ii. 213
- Defence Committee in London, Scheme of, for India, ii. 287
- Delcassé, M., bellicose statement regarding Muscat crisis, ii. 46, 52
- Delhi, Durbar at, ii. 225, 227
 Lady Curzon's attendance at, in spite of ill-health, ii. 359
 Lord Curzon's vindication of, ii. 284
 Pearl Mosque at, i. 129 removal of seat of Government from Calcutta to, resented by Lord Curzon, ii. 259, 260
- Demobilisation of forces, rapid, demanded by British nation, iii. 242
- Denationalisation in India, Lord Curzon's opposition to, ii. 153, 154
- Denderah, bas reliefs of Cleopatra at, i. 83 temple of, solemn effect of, i. 82
- Departmentalism, Lord Curzon's definition of, ii. 321
- Dera Ghazi Khan, visit to, ii. 120
- Derby, George Curzon's participation in public function at, i. 69
- Derby, Lord, and Air Service, iii. 142 direction of recruiting scheme by, iii. 136 failure of recruiting scheme of, iii. 136 resignation of, from Co-ordinating Committee, iii. 143
- Derbyshire, presentation by people of, to Lord Curzon, i. 317 South, adopted Conservative candidate for, i. 93 defeat of George Curzon, at General Election (1885), i. 101 Radical intimidation in, i. 101
- Dervishes, expedition against, i. 246
- Dervorguilla Society of Balliol, i. 44

INDEX

- Despatches, slavish adherence to literal wording of, amusing instance, ii. 65
- Devonshire, Duke of, and occupation of Wei-wei-Wei, i. 285
- Dibrugarh, visit to, ii. 113
- Dickson, General, Military Commission sent to Persia under, iii. 221
- Dilke, Sir Charles, advanced radicalism of, 45
indignation against George Curzon, i. 273
- Dillon, John, M.P., congratulations to George Curzon on appointment of Viceroy, i. 294
inquiries relating to Chinese affairs, i. 281
- Diplomatic interviews, Lord Curzon's method of conduct of, iii. 367
- Directorship General of Education in India, advocated by Viceroy, ii. 189, 192
- Divan-i-Am, Hall of Audience, used for Investiture at Great Durbar, ii. 227
- Dod, Wolley, house-master at Eton, i. 24
- Dohad, relief works at, ii. 129
- Dominion Government, co-operation of, invited to prevent inroad of Turks, iii. 300
- Donaldson, Rev. S. A., i. 178
- Doric shaft, prototype of, i. 83
- Doric style, importation from Egypt, i. 83
- Downe, Lord, departure of, from Tehran, ii. 307
- Dravid, G. S. and R. S., assassination of, ii. 36
- Dravidian temples at Madura and Trinopoly, ii. 145
- Dresden, picture-gallery at, i. 64
- Drought in India, warning signs of, ii. 70
- Duff, General Sir Beauchamp, ii. 384, 385
Commander-in-Chief for India, ii. 392, 393
- Dufferin, Lord, i. 84, ii. 504
George Curzon's glowing tribute to, i. 141 private secretary to, i. 313 reception of George Curzon by, i. 128
wise policy with regard to Indian native chiefs, ii. 90
- Duggan, Mrs., marriage of Lord Curzon to, iii. 151
See also Curzon, Lady (second)
- Dunbar, A. J. C., character of, i. 18, 19 behaviour to his pupils, i. 18, 19 second master at school at Wixenford, i. 18
- Duncan, Jonathan, establishment of Sanskrit College in India by, ii. 184
- Dunraven, Lord, Bill dealing with reform of House of Lords brought forward by, i. 135
- Durbar, an Indian, not colonial, function, ii. 222 at Lucknow, ii. 92, 93 at Mandalay, ii. 200
at Peshawar, ii. 212
at Shargah, address of Lord Curzon at, ii. 316 of Chiefs and Sirdars of Baluchistan, address of Viceroy to, ii. 118 plain speaking at, ii. 118, 119 political and social value of, Viceroy's oration on, ii. 93, 94
the Great (Delhi), ii. 221-234 amphitheatre for, accommodation at, ii. 226 arena of, march of Mutiny Veterans in, ii. 253, 254 celebrations, choice of hymns for, ii. 230
cost of, ii. 230, 231, 232 ceremonies, items in programme at Imperial Assemblage (1877) excluded at, ii. 228, 229 definite pronouncement at, as to reduction of taxation in India, ii. 241, 242 holding of, lessons to be derived from, ii. 233 objections to, in England, ii. 229 incident of cheering of 9th Lancers at, ii. 247 Investiture at, building for, ii. 227 no constitutional importance to be attached to, ii. 223 official functions at, programme of, ii. 223 preparations for, ii. 225, 226 recognised as expression of Viceroy's personality, ii. 254 State entry at, ii. 225 success of, due to Viceroy's efforts, ii. 255 success of, general impression as to, ii. 252

INDEX

- Duse, Eleanora, Curzon's impressions of, i. 62, 63
- Dutt, R. C., criticism of land policies of various Governments of India, ii. 180
- Dyson Perrins Benefaction for Chemistry, aided from University Endowment Fund, iii. 95
- EAST, the, prompt and pageantry of, ii. 86, 87
- East India Company, advances to Government of Hyderabad, ii. 215 conduct towards Government of Hyderabad sometimes unscrupulous, ii. 216 first definite Treaty relations with Hyderabad (1766), ii. 214
- Eastern problems, study of, i. 146
- Eastern questions arising during the war, Lord Curzon's profound acquaintance with, iii. 154
- Eastern travel, petty annoyances of, i. 150
- Eden, Sir Ashley, removal of statue of to another site, Viceroy's reason for, ii. 158
- Eden, Sir William, ii. 159
- Edfou, temple of, magnificence of, i. 82
- Education in India, state-aided, earlier attempts at introduction of, ii. 184
Directorship General of, advocated by Viceroy, ii. 189, 192
English language, medium of instruction in higher branches since 1835, ii. 184 Government control of, ii. 193 in vernacular tongues advocated by Lord Curzon, ii. 186 Minute of Lord Macaulay on, ii. 184, 185, 186 reforms in, ii. 201 difficulties attending, ii. 194 effected, ii. 192
not radical enough, ii. 194 opposition in Bengal, ii. 193
Viceroy's action in connection with, questioned by India Council, ii. 236, 237
See also Technical Education Indian, state, and state-aided, ii. 79
- Educational Conference at Simla summoned by Viceroy, ii. 190
- Educational system in India, reform of, ii. 103, 164
- Edward VII, H.M. King, accession of immediate proclamation in India, ii. 222 approval of Viceroy's proposal to hold the great Durbar, ii. 222 assistance invoked as to promise of reduction of taxation in India, ii. 242 counsel of, to Lord Curzon regarding Military Controversy, ii. 412
death of, iii. 55
cancelling Lord Curzon's project of royal visit to Oxford, iii. 113 opinion that Lord Curzon should sit in Upper Chamber, iii. 39 suggestion from Viceroy that His Majesty should visit India to be crowned Emperor, ii. 222 tribute to services of Lord Curzon, iii. 382 visit to India when Prince of Wales (1876), ii. 227
- Edwards, Miss, on great hall at Karnak, i. 82
- Egypt declared an Independent State and monarchy, iii. 250 demand for independence in, iii. 245 importation of Doric style from, i. 83
Milner Mission to, iii. 245 discouraging reception of, iii. 245 provisional conclusions of, iii. 246 report of, iii. 246
outbreak of nationalism in (1919), iii. 245
Protectorate in, abolished, iii. 250 questions of vital British interest in, reserved to discretion of British Government, iii. 250 revolt in, iii. 265
Sultan of, proclaimed King, iii. 250 visit to, by George Curzon (1883), i. 73-84 and Great Britain, relations between, iii. 245-250 no settlement arrived at (October 1921), iii. 248 referred to Imperial Conference, iii. 248
Greece and Rome, history of, evidences of links between, i. 83
- Egyptian felahien, i. 81
- Egyptian monuments, ancient, critical appreciation of, i. 81, 82

INDEX

- Elcho, Lord, and Ancient Monuments Preservation Act, ii. 330
- Elephanta, island of, cave temples of, overpraised, i. 131
- Elgin, Lord, i. 303, 310
 bestowal of honours upon, after term of Viceroyalty, iii. 29.
 difficulties with regard to famine in India during administration of, ii. 85, 86
 Indian Frontier Question, i. 301 instructions to, as to Indian frontier policy, ii. 39 on conduct of external relations with tribes on Punjab frontier, ii. 44 retirement of, as Viceroy of India, i. 291
- Elgin Marbles in British Museum, regret for removal from original site, i. 76, 77
- Elles, Sir Edmond, ii. 384, 401 defence of, in Military Controversy, ii. 381
 Lord Kitchener's animosity towards, ii. 403
 Lord Kitchener's charges against, ii. 379 Minute in reply to Lord Kitchener's charges against his department, ii. 375 objections to Lord Kitchener's scheme regarding native field artillery, ii. 352 vindication of, by Council, ii. 379
- Ellora, cave monasteries and temples at, ii. 95
- Emerson, Sir William, appointed architect for construction of Victoria Memorial Hall, ii. 161
- Endowment Fund, Oxford University, amount collected, iii. 94 organisation of, iii. 94 policies and projects aided by, iii. 94
- England, fiscal relations with Russia, iii. 25 impressions held in, as to Viceroy's work in India, ii. 171 objections raised in, to holding the great Durbar, ii. 222, 223
- English language, medium of instruction in higher branches of education in India since 1835, ii. 184
- Englishmen, murderous attacks on, due to outbreaks of Ghazim, ii. 118
- Esher, Lord, ii. 391
- advice to Viceroy as to erection of Victoria Memorial Hall, ii. 161
- Essen, French occupation of, iii. 345
- Eton, attainments and distinctions of George Curzon at, i. 21 career of George Curzon at, i. 21 contemporary school-fellows, i. 21 experiences with masters at, i. 21, 22, 23, 24, 25
- Eton Literary Society, effect on Lord Curzon's future literary career, i. 31 flourishes during presidency of Lord Curzon and immediate successors, i. 28 lecture by Mr. Gladstone before, i. 30, 31 Lord Curzon's tenure of office in, i. 27 members, contemporary with Lord Curzon, celebrated in after life, i. 28 subsequent decline of, i. 28
- Etonian, The*, Lord Curzon appointed editor of, i. 31
- Europe, Central, delimitation of boundaries after the war, how undertaken, iii. 261 economic stagnation of, dangerous to stability of United Kingdom, iii. 293 ejection of Turks from, Lord Curzon's policy as to, defeated, ii. 270 exclusion of Turks from, Lord Curzon's views as to, iii. 262 reconstruction of, dependent on close union between Great Britain and France, iii. 225 warlike state of (1929), Lord Curzon's remarks upon, iii. 242
- European nations and Japan, preparedness of, for war, iii. 119, 120
- European Powers, outburst of activity in all parts of world, i. 237
- European war, Lord Curzon's apprehension of, iii. 117
- Examination tests, application of, function of Indian universities confined to, ii. 187, 188
- Exchequer, Indian, reckless expenditure from, unjust accusations against Lord Curzon, ii. 230
- FACTORIES OF CALCUTTA, smoke-producing, ii. 258
- Faculties Statute, Oxford University alterations in, passed, iii. 106

INDEX

- Famine Commission in India, work of, ii. 283
- Famine in India, ii. 103
 cost of, ii. 107
 irrigation as a remedy for, ij. 164 relief schemes for, ii. 84, 85 risk of demoralisation from, ii. 84, 85, 86 second year of anticipated (1900), ii. 123
 two years of, adding to financial embarrassment of Hyderabad, ii. 217
- Famine-stricken districts in India, relief to, ii. 81, 82
 Viceroy's tour of, ii. 82
- Fancy Dress Ball of 1903 in celebration of centenary of Government House, Calcutta, ii. 256
- Fanshawe, H., Commissioner of Delhi, resignation of, ii. 138, 139 view of Spectator with regard to, ii. 138, 139
- Far East, alteration in balance of power, causes, i. 275, 276
- Far Eastern Policy of Government, George Curzon's championship of, i. 288
- Farrer, R. R. letter from, i. 53 letters to, i. 63, 64, 89
- Fatehpur Sikri, architectural beauties of, ii. 95, 97
- Falden, St. Clair, contributor to Out of School at Eton, i. 32
- Feisal, King, iii. 204
- Felaheen, Egyptian, i. 81
- Fergusson, James, ii. 331
- Finance at Oxford University, Lord Curzon's comments on, iii. 99
- Finances, Indian, ii. 103
- First Arts Commission, appointment of, iii. 69
- Fiume, difficulty regarding, iii. 261
- Fisher, Sir John, and the Ministry, iii. 225
- Flanders Campaign (1917), when, and where first decided upon, ii. 152
- Foch, Marshal, iii. 200 letter from, to Lord Curzon, after receipt of honorary degree, iii. 114
- Football, George Curzon's aptitude at and interest in, i. 34, 35
- Foreign Affairs, importance of India in relation to, ii. 261, 262
 Under-Secretaryship for, George Curzon's tenure of, i. 236-250
- Foreign Office, acting appointment to Lord Curzon at, iii. 201 affairs of, dual system of control under Coalition Government, iii. 275 interference with conduct by Foreign Office of foreign policy by Prime Minister, iii. 111 length of time of Lord Curzon's acquaintance with, iii. 202 receipt by, of Franklin-Bouillon Agreement, after signature, iii. 276 retirement from, by Lord Curzon iii. 364 work of, done apart from, by Prime Minister (Mr. Lloyd George), iii. 261
- Foreign Policy, British, conception of, early formed by Lord Curzon, iii. 224 dual control over, iii. 259, 260 Lord Curzon's criticism of, ii. 206 post-war, how conducted, iii. 261 post-war, kind required, iii. 225 stability in, Curzon's advocacy of, i. 113
- Foreign Policy of Lord Curzon, British Cabinet in disagreement with, ii. 275
- Foreign Secretary, Lord Curzon's appointment as, iii. 205
- Foreign Secretaryship, British, inability to back diplomacy by force under, iii. 242
- Foreign travel, George Curzon fitted to derive maximum advantage from, i. 72
- Fort William, indications of, how preserved at present day, ii. 257
- Forwood, Sir W., i. 106
- Fowler, Henry, ii. 407, 408
 congratulations on George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 304
- France, action of, in relation to Treaty of Peace, iii. 93, 94 activities of, in Persia, ii. 309 in Persian Gulf, ii. 45 alienation of, through issue of communiqué on Near Eastern question by British Government, iii. 302 apprehension of open frontier on the East, iii. 226 attempts to establish coaling station on shores of Persian Gulf, ii. 45 dislike of Mr. Lloyd George in (1922), iii. 281

INDEX

- France, furtherance of amicable relations with, complicated by Muscat crisis, ii. 46
- Government of, change in, crisis determining, iii. 281
- promise of Treaty of Guarantee to, iii. 280
- result of divergence of sympathies between Prime Minister of Great Britain and, iii. 278
- separate negotiations and agreements with Turkish Government at Angora, iii. 275
- intoxicating effect of victory upon, iii. 227
- issue of Washington Conference causing humiliation to, iii. 280
- Lord Curzon's opinion of, i. 240
- military predominance of in Europe since declaration of Peace, iii. 243
- occupation of German towns by, in 1920, iii. 227
- policy of aggression after the war justified, iii. 228
- Reparation claims of, criticised, iii. 359
- restraining influence of British diplomacy on, iii. 227
- France and Great Britain, see Great Britain and France
- Franchise and Redistribution Acts (1884-85), effect of, on character of South Derbyshire constituency, i. 100
- Franco-Turkish agreement, see Franklin-Bouillon Agreement
- Frankfurt, French occupation of, iii. 231, 232
- Franklin-Bouillon Agreement, date of signature, iii. 276
- negotiation without knowledge of Lord Curzon, iii. 276
- provisions of, iii. 277
- receipt by Foreign Office after signature, iii. 276
- territories restored to Turkey under, iii. 277
- Free Trade Hall, Manchester, speech at, 126
- Free Trade policy, Lord Curzon not committed to, iii. 24
- Freedom of Borough of Derby, presentation of, ii. 341
- Freedom of City of London, presentation of, ii. 341
- French, ejection from the Ukraine, iii. 264
- heavy defeat by Turks in Cilicia, iii. 272
- joint action against, cause of first Treaty with Hyderabad, ii. 214
- occupation of Frankfurt and Darmstadt, iii. 231, 232
- troops, occupation of Ruhr by, iii. 357
- French Ambassador, Lord Curzon's conversation with, iii. 231, 232
- plenipotentiary powers not granted to, at Allied Conference in London, iii. 231
- French contingent withdrawal by order of M. Poincaré from Asiatic shore of Dardanelles, iii. 303
- French and British Governments, strained relations between, iii. 238
- cause of, iii. 231
- views on reparations contrasted, iii. 356
- French Government, political view of Reparations question taken by, iii. 356
- Frontier administration, expenses of, reduction in, ii. 120
- Frontier policy, change in, case for summarised by Lord Curzon, ii. 133, 134
- of Lord Curzon, ii. 132
- military and administrative, successfully solved, ii. 163
- not aggressive, ii. 114
- of Lord Lytton, ii. 133
- Frontier Question, Article by George Curzon on, i. 140
- "Frontiers," Romanes Lecture on, delivered by Lord Curzon, iii. 101
- subject of, interest taken by Lord Curzon, ii. 209
- Fuad, H. M. King, Sultan of Egypt, proclaimed, iii. 250
- Fujjyama, great cone of, i. 121, 122
- Fuller, Sir Bampfylde, draft of Resolution on Land Assessment question, ii. 180, 181e
- GALLI, SIGNOR, conference of Lord Curzon with, iii. 311
- Galliambic metre, iii. 112
- Gallipoli, British government's policy regarding, iii. 130
- evacuation of, under General Birdwood, iii. 132

INDEX

- Lord Curzon's advice concerning, iii. 120
- Lord Curzon's opposition to abandonment of, iii. 130, 131
- Gama Sultan Hassan, Curzon's non-acceptance of current views regarding, i. 80
- Gamlen, W. B., iii. 104
- Geddes Committee, iii. 294
- General Election (1880), new radicalism of, i. 45
- (1885), i. 100
- return of Liberal party to power, i. 45
- (July 1886), Conservative majority obtained at, i. 107
- (1900), result of, ii. 127
- (1906), overthrow of Conservative party at, iii. 28
- (1923), issue of, and result, iii. 365
- Genoa, Conference at, failure of, iii. 296, 297
- good results to be hoped from, iii. 294
- planning and elaboration of, by Mr. Lloyd George, iii. 292, 293
- rigid limitation of scope of, insisted on, by M. Poincaré, iii. 295
- Gentiles and Jews in Palestine, equal civil and religious rights to be accorded to, iii. 159
- George V, H. M. King, deputation from Oxford University presenting Loyal Address to, headed by Lord Curzon, iii. 113
- message of sympathy from, at death of Lord Curzon, iii. 379
- George (Prince) of Greece, candidate for Governorship of Crete, i. 271, 272
- George, Rt. Hon. D. Lloyd, i. 283; iii. 127
- absence of contention in administration, iii. 261
- and Lord Curzon, difficulties arising between, iii. 260
- interview between, iii. 319
- and proposed Air Ministry, iii. 143
- becomes Prime Minister (1916), iii. 185
- communications of private secretary with Italian envoys, iii. 314
- communiqué dealing with grave position of Near Eastern question, authorised by, before issue to the Press, iii. 302
- dislike of by the French (1922), iii. 281
- growing revolt of Conservative Party against leadership of, iii. 294
- influenced by theories on economic problem put forward by Professor Keynes, iii. 293
- interference with Foreign Affairs by, apart from Foreign Office, iii. 261
- Lord Curzon's displeasure at, iii. 314
- joint control of Foreign Affairs by, iii. 261
- letter of protest regarding Foreign Affairs from Lord Curzon intended for, iii. 315-17
- Lord Curzon's report to, on Air Board, iii. 145
- member of War Cabinet Committee, iii. 152
- misunderstanding of Lord Curzon with, regarding attendance at an Allied Conference, iii. 235
- negotiations with Irish leaders with regard to Home Rule, iii. 184
- nominated as Liberal Candidate for Lord Rectorship of Glasgow University, iii. 46
- part taken by in settlement of Treaty with Turkey, iii. 271
- personal sympathy for Greeks in their struggle against the Turks, iii. 273
- planning and elaboration of Genoa Conference by, iii. 292, 293
- post-war foreign policy of, iii. 261
- Premiership of, Lord Curzon's appointments under, iii. 122
- private secretariat in Downing Street, iii. 149, 261
- relations with Soviet Russia sought by, iii. 295
- relations with League of Nations, iii. 261, 262
- resignation of, as Prime Minister, iii. 310, 321
- result of divergence of sympathies between Governments of France and Italy, iii. 278
- revolt in ranks of Conservative party against leadership of, iii. 312
- speech at Manchester with regard to Turkish affairs, iii. 299
- having effect of encouraging Greeks to renew struggle against Turks, iii. 299

INDEX

- George, Rt. Hon. D. Lloyd, (cont.)
 statement of British relations to Greece made by, to M. Gounaris, at Supreme Council at Cannes, iii. 280 strained relations of Lord Curzon with, iii. 312 succession of, to Premiership, iii. 141 sympathy for Greece manifested by, iii. 277
- German Emperor, refusal to meet Lord Curzon, i. 248
- German Government, views on Reparations, iii. 356
- German people, neutrality of, Lord Curzon's comment on, iii. 236, 237
- German representatives, admitted to Allied Conference at Spa, iii. 233
- German towns, occupation by French in 1920, iii. 227
- Germanicus (nephew of Emperor Tiberius), passage describing death of, quoted, i. 98, 99 prototype of General Gordon, i. 97
- Germany, contrast between Great Britain and France in feeling towards, after the War, iii. 226 economic recovery of, after the war, Lord Curzon's anxiety for, iii. 236 governing classes of, destruction of British Empire aimed at by, iii. 211 government of (1920) acting between forces of Communism and Monarchical reaction, iii. 228 dilatoriness in discharging obligation to Allies, iii. 228 plebiscite in favour of allotment of Upper Silesia to, iii. 237
- Germany and Bagdad railway, ii. 320
- Gersoppa, falls of, visit to, ii. 145
- Ghazism, outbreaks of murderous attacks on Englishmen due to, ii. 118
- Gilbert and Sullivan, 'Iolanthe' of, i. 62
- Gladstone, Lord, remarks on double system of control of Foreign Office affairs, iii. 318
- Gladstone, Rt. Hon. W. E., i. 77 appointment by, of Lord Elgin as Viceroy of India, i. 293 assumption of office on defeat of Lord Salisbury's administration (1886), i. 105 Curzon's disillusionment regarding, i. 97 defeat on Home Rule Bill and appeal to the country (June, 1886), i. 107 funeral of, i. 250
 last interview with, i. 249, 250 letter of invitation from Lord Curzon, i. 29 misfortune during his career as Prime Minister from 1880, i. 95 policy of, in Afghanistan, i. 299, 300 popularity of, in Greece, i. 78, 79 retirement of, i. 205 traits in character of, compared with those in character of Lord Curzon, i. 59, 60 visit to Eton and lecture before Eton Literary Society, i. 30, 31
- Gladstone Professorship of Political Theory and Institutions at Oxford, foundation assisted from University Endowment Fund, iii. 95
- Glasgow, remarkable speech at, by George Curzon, on European affairs in East, i. 262
- Glasgow University, Lord Rectorship of, Lord Curzon elected to, iii. 46 nominations for, in 1908, iii. 45
 Rectoral Address at, iii. 52, 53
- Gleadowe-Newcomen, Mr., Head of Commercial Mission to Persia, ii. 310
- Glenconner, Lord, iii. 67
- Godley, Sir A. (Lord Kilbracken), ii. 250 117, 152, 173, 322, 362
 congratulations on Viceroy's settlement of Berar question, ii. 219
 letter to, ii. 303
 letter to from Viceroy relating to Aden boundary, ii. 238, 239 on proposed reforms in Land Assessment, ii. 180 on Russian encroachments on Southern Persia and Persian Gulf, ii. 99 on attitude of Indian public, ii. 153 on restoration of ancient Indian Monuments, ii. 97 letter to Lord Curzon, ii. 226, 343 reply to Lord Curzon's denunciation of railway extension from Burma to Chinese frontier, ii. 203
- Gokhale, G. K., onslaught on Lord Curzon, ii. 390 opposition to Lord Curzon's educational reform in India, ii. 192

INDEX

- Goldfields of Mysore, ii. 145
- Goldsmid, Sir F., i. 151, ii. 308
- Gordon, General, assassination at Khartoum, i. 96 comparison with Germanicus, i. 97 neglect of, by Liberal Government (1884), i. 96
- Gore, Rt. Rev. Charles, Bishop of Birmingham, iii. 96, 100 demand for appointment of University Commission, iii. 96
- Goschen, Lord, conversion Scheme of, i. 134
 death of (1907), iii. 92
 election as Chancellor of Oxford University, iii. 91, 92 inquiry into question of assistance rendered to Oxford University by the Colleges, iii. 91 on the occupation of Wei-hai-Wei, i. 285
- Gosse, Sir Edmund, iii. 385
- Gounaris, M., censure passed upon, iii. 288 impeachment and execution of, iii. 329, 330 letter to Lord Curzon, extracts published in Sunday Express, iii. 330 letter to Lord Curzon on difficulties of Greek situation, iii. 284 production of letter to Lord Curzon, iii. 330 statement of British relations to Greece made to, by British Prime Minister at Supreme Conference at Cannes, iii. 280 visit to London to discuss settlement of Near Eastern question with Lord Curzon, iii. 279
- Government House, Calcutta, celebration of Peace of Amiens by ball in (1803), ii. 253 celebration by ball (1903), ii. 255, 256 centenary of (1903), ii. 255 entry into, ii. 23, 24 erected on the model of seat at Kedleston, i. 127, 128
- Granby, Lady, letter to George Curzon, i. 309
- Grand Canyon of Yellowstone River, unique features of, i. 118, 119
- Grand Encenia, Oxford University, following the War, iii. 110
- Grant, Sir Hamilton, iii. 216
- Grattan, H. and George Curzon, resemblance between, i. 274
- Great Britain, aid of, to Allies, iii. 140 earlier attempts at introduction of state-aided education in India, ii. 184
 Government of, rumoured support of Greece causing, indignation among Moslem population of India, iii. 285
 Prime Minister of, and Governments of France and Italy, result of divergence of sympathies between, iii. 278
 Reparation claims of, emphasised, iii. 359 unemployment in, after Armistice, iii. 363
- Great Britain and Egypt, relations between. See Egypt and Great Britain
- Great Britain and France, alliance between, Lord Curzon's mission to Paris, to re-establish, iii. 303, 304 closest union between, why necessary after the war, iii. 225 contrast between, in feeling towards Germany after the war, iii. 226 difference between points of view of, at Allied Conferences, iii. 236 Governments of, fresh points of difference arising between, through Near East Question, iii. 275 necessity for closest co-operation between, iii. 243 rift between, perceived by French people, iii. 279, 280 subjects of dispute between, iii. 236 war sufferings and privations compared, iii. 226
- Great Britain and Russia, respective interests of, in Persia, definition in Agreement (1907), iii. 38, 39
- Great Indian Peninsular Railway, strike on, no direct information to Government, ii. 57
- Great Step Pyramid at Sakkhara, extreme antiquity of, i. 81
- Great War (1914-18)
 Lord Curzon's action during early phases of, iii. 123
 Lord Curzon's offer of non-political work, iii. 121 outbreak of, Lord Curzon's apprehensions as to, iii. 117

INDEX

- Great War (1914-1918), outbreak of, plans for more vigorous prosecution of, discussed by Committee of War Cabinet, iii. 151
- Greece, i. 72 claims for Smyrna and Aidin, iii. 265 extreme hostility to, shown by M. Poincaré, iii. 282, hostile reception in, of Pronouncement at Paris Conference (March 1922), iii. 288 modern, characteristics of, i. 75 outbreak of revolution in, iii. 305 popularity of Mr. Gladstone in, i. 78, 79 recall of ex-King Constantine to throne of, iii. 277 sympathy for, manifested by Mr. Lloyd George, iii. 277 travels in, charm and humour of, i. 78, 79
- Greece and Turkey, peace between, Conference to promote, failure of, iii. 273
- Greece, Rome and Egypt, history of, evidence of links between, i. 83
- Greek and Italian forces, advance on Turkish dominions in Asia Minor, iii. 266 and Turkish forces, indecisive battles between, in Asia Minor (1921), iii. 278, 279
 Lord Curzon's efforts to prevent outbreak of hostilities between, iii. 306 civilization, influence upon the world, i. 75 forces driven from Asia Minor by Turkish Army, iii. 299 withdrawal from Smyrna suggested, iii. 280 Orthodox Church, interest in Jerusalem, iii. 158
 Parliamentary life, modern, criticized, i. 77, 78 philosophy, history, poetry and sculpture, indispensability of, i. 75 Revolution, impeachment and execution of M. Gounaris during, iii. 329, 330 troops landed at Rodosto, iii. 298 study of at Oxford, conditions Greek language, under which made optional, iii. 106
- Greeks ancient, virtues and vices compared, i. 75
 ejection from the Ukraine, iii. 264 landing at Smyrna, by whom authorized, iii. 266 personal sympathy of Mr. Lloyd George for, in their struggle against the Turks, iii. 273 provisional occupation of Smyrna by, future danger from, iii. 272
- Greeks and Turks in Asia Minor, attempt to procure mediation between, by Lord Curzon (June 1921), iii. 278,
- Grenfell, W. H., (Lord Desborough), educated at Balliol, i. 38
- Grenville, George, i. 274
- Grey, Sir Edward (Lord Grey of Fallodon), i. 247, 257 admiration of George Curzon, i. 305
 educated at Balliol College, i. 38
- Griffith-Boscawen, Sir A., iii. 309
- Grigg, Sir E., question in House of Commons regarding letter of M. Gounaris to Lord Curzon, iii. 330
- Grimwood, Mr., assassination of, at Imphal (Manipur), 1891, ii. 198
- Gupta, M. tribute to widespread popularity of Lord Curzon, ii. 152
- Gwalior, Native Chief of, model conduct as ruler, ii. 88
- Gyantze, arrival of Colonel Young-husband at, ii. 280
- HAAB, M., welcome of, to delegates of Peace Conference at Lausanne, iii. 323
- Habibullah, Amir of Afghanistan, ii. 43 accession of (1901), ii. 266 declines to submit to interview with Lord Curzon, E. 208, 209, 266, 267, 270 disillusionment of Lord Curzon concerning, ii. 266
- Habibulla Khan, Sirdar, ii. 195 peaceful prospects under, as Amir of Afghanistan, ii. 196 succession to throne of Afghanistan, ii. 196
- Hackwood House, iii. 77
- Halg, Lord, iii. 153
- Halsbury, Lord, ii. 56
 debate on Parliament Bill, iii. 57
- Haldane Mr. (later, Lord), congratulations on George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 304

INDEX

- Territorial Army Scheme, iii. 117
- Hamilton, Sir Ian, dispatch of troops to Gallipoli under leadership of, iii. 129
- Hamilton, Lord George (Secretary of State for India), i. 252, 266; ii. 173, 280
- advice of, ii. 415
- congratulation on Curzon's speech, i. 262
- congratulations on Viceroy's settlement of Berar question, ii. 219
- despatch to Indian Government as to principles of frontier policy (1899), ii. 39
- indiscretions of Lord Kitchener, ii. 399
- letter from, on Educational Conference, ii. 191
- to Lord Curzon on Indian Land Assessments question, ii. 181
- on position of Cabinet with regard to Tibetan question, ii. 207
- on favourable reception of scheme for recruiting Impérial Cadet Corps from Indian aristocracy, ii. 127
- remonstrance against Lord Curzon's habits of over-work, ii. 54
- letters from, to Lord Curzon, ii. 33, 123, 124
- letters to, from Lord Curzon, ii. 110, 124, 278, 312, 320, 322
- letter to, from Lord Curzon on Assam, ii. 113
- an attitude of British Government towards Tibet, ii. 273
- on Mishmi expedition, ii. 114
- on visit to Northern Bengal, ii. 209
- regarding Persian Question, ii. 306
- relating to Military Government of India, ii. 350
- report of work at Simla (1899), ii. 79
- remonstrance with Lady Curzon as to Lord Curzon's attitude towards India Council, ii. 237
- resignation of, from India Office, ii. 289
- favourable reception of scheme for recruiting Impérial Cadet Corps from Indian aristocracy, ii. 127
- rapprochement to Russia favoured by, ii. 126
- Shah of Persia's attitude towards Russia, ii. 307
- and Punjab Land Alienation Bill, ii. 293
- and scheme for India of Defence Committee in London, ii. 288
- Hampi, ruins of, ii. 144
- Hankey, Sir Maurice, secretary of War Cabinet Committee, iii. 152
- Lord Curzon's tribute to, iii. 149
- Haram, sacred stone obtained in Mosque of Omar, iii. 158
- Harcourt, Sir W., i. 232, 233; ii. 175
- and George Curzon, mutual friendship between, i. 305
- description of Conservative Party attacked, i. 111
- disagreement with, i. 257-259
- election petition following defeat at Oxford by, election (1880), i. 43
- on George Curzon and Russia, i. 296
- Hardie, J. Keir, nominated as Socialist candidate for Lord Rectorship of Glasgow University, iii. 46
- Hardinge, Sir Arthur, British Minister in Persia, ii. 315
- construction of roads in Western Persia advocated by, ii. 202
- educated at Balliol, i. 38
- Hardinge, Lord, iii. 203
- visit to Basra, ii. 319
- Harington, Sir Charles, despatch with ultimatum for communication to Turkish commander to, iii. 306
- mission to Mudania to effect negotiations with Mustapha Kemal, ii. 304
- refusal to consider demands of Turks, iii. 310
- Hart, Sir Robert, control of Customs Administration of China by, iii. 215
- Hastings House, Calcutta, renovation of, ii. 259
- Hastings, Warren, effects of, acquisition for Victoria Memorial Hall proposed by Lord Curzon, ii. 159, 160
- foundation of Calcutta Madrassah by, ii. 184
- love for his second wife (Marian Imhoff), ii. 53
- Havelock, Sir A., ii. 58
- Hawkins, Sir Anthony Hope, i. 56, 89

INDEX

- Great Britain and Egypt referred to, iii. 248
(1923) remarks at, by Lord Curzon, on warlike state of Europe, iii. 243
- Imperial Defence Committee, Lord Kitchener's Memorandum to, ii. 349
- Imperial Federation, advocated by Curzon, i. 108
- Imperial Library, resembling British Museum, established in Metcalfe Hall, Calcutta, ii. 258
- Imperial Service Cavalry, Jodhpur, regiment of, Viceroy's offer to maintain during famine at Government expense, ii. 78
- Imperial War Cabinet, iii. 150 speech to, on Near East, iii. 209, 210
- Imperialism, increase of, in Great Britain, i. 238 of Lord Curzon, i. 192, 237; iii. 391
- Imphal (capital of Manipur), address of Viceroy at, ii. 197<sup>a</sup> massacre at, in 1891, ii. 197, 198 project for building for at, abolished by Viceroy, ii. 199
- India, advance of Russia towards, ii. 114 ancient buildings of, preservation and restoration of, ii. 164; iii. 75
Viceroy's campaign for ii. 147 bounty-fed sugar imported into, ii. 30
British, administrative frontier of, and political frontier of Afghanistan, territory lying between, ii. 38, 39
British linking up by rail with Yangtze valley, impracticability of, ii. 202 Central, tour of, ii. 229 charges imposed upon in connection with Army, Lord Curzon's attitude regarding, ii. 287 climate of hills and plains in October contrasted, ii. 80 close contact between Eastern and Western races in, Lord Curzon's observations on, ii. 153 currency system of, reform in, ii. 164 defence of, steps taken for, i. 140 denationalization in, Lord Curzon's opposition to, ii. 153, 154 drought in, warning signs of, ii. 70 education in, state-aided, earlier attempts at introduction of, ii. 184 educational system, reform in, ii. 103, 164 establishment of universities in, ordained (1854), ii. 185 famine in, ii. 103
and plague in, 1896, i. 291
cost of, ii. 107
irrigation as a remedy for, ii. 164
relief schemes for, ii. 84, 85
second year of, anticipated (1900), ii. 123 famine-stricken districts in, relief to, ii. 81, 82 fascination for, i. 388 finances of, ii. 103
Government of, administration hampered by note-taking and report-writing, ii. 62, 63, 64, 164 influence of public opinion upon, ii. 149 permanency of Lord Curzon's reforms in, ii. 65, 66 administrative machine in need of overhauling, ii. 56 administrative reform in, ii. 164 control from centre disorganised, ii. 56 defects of, organic, ii. 56 establishment of friendly intercourse with Nepal, ii. 38 isolation of Bombay and Madras Presidency Governments from, ii. 56, 57 Legislative Department, inefficient methods of, ii. 104, 105
Military supremacy in, iii. 37
Minto-Morley Reform Scheme (1909), iii. 163
Montagu-Chelmsford reforms in, (1917-1919), ii. 162-176
See also Montagu-Chelmsford native participation in, iii. 168, 169 permission to Native Chiefs to visit countries outside India to be granted only by, ii. 91 principles of administration in, adopted, by Viceroy (reply to Address of Welcome from Bombay Corporation), ii. 148-150 proposal to hold Conference at Lhasa to settle Tibetan difficulty, ii. 274 reorganisation of, ii. 56

INDEX

- India, Government of, supply of troops in aid of South African War, ii. 68, 69
- unauthorised publication of Despatch from Viceroy on danger of Moslem unrest in, iii. 285
  - growth of public opinion in, ii. 326, 327
  - Imperial Museums in, absence of, ii. 157
  - importance of, in relation to foreign affairs, ii. 261, 262
  - influence of, on Asia, i. 309
    - untoward events of South African War of, ii. 101
  - internal administration of, reforms of, ii. 290
  - Local Governments in, responsibility of elected Councillors, iii. 169
  - Lord Curzon's oratory on, i. 315
  - Lord Curzon's views of, ii. 417, 420
  - loss of export trade of sugar from, ii. 30
  - military expenditure in, ii. 107, 108
  - monuments in, commemorating exploits of Empire, paucity of, ii. 156, 158
  - Moslem population of, indignation among, at rumour of British support of Greece, iii. 285
  - natives of, and British soldiers, relations between, ii. 164
  - North West Frontier, problem of, i. 292; ii. 112, 122-140
  - Parliamentary Government in, original and changed attitude of Lord Curzon as to, compared, iii. 168, 169
  - proposals for, repudiated by Lord Curzon (July 1918), iii. 170, 171
  - question of, iii. 166
  - Peninsula of, Viceroy's tour round, ii. 143-154
  - people of, hold maintained by Hindu philosophy on, ii. 154
  - point of height of Lord Curzon's popularity with all classes of, how marked, ii. 152
  - peril to, from German aggression, means of preventing, iii. 211
  - plague epidemic in (1899), centres of, ii. 84
  - police force of, reorganisation, ii. 164
  - police reform in, ii. 103
  - political and strategical advantage of frontier of Tibet as compared with Russia, ii. 274
  - position of, must be taken into account in Tariff Reform Campaign, iii. 23, 24
  - profit-making proprietary colleges in, means for abolition of, ii. 192
  - reception of news of Queen Victoria's death in, ii. 155
  - reforms of, by Lord Curzon, ii. 291
  - relation of, to England, i. 193
  - "responsible" government in, Lord Curzon's views discussed, iii. 168, 169
  - Russian hostility to, ii. 37
  - self-government in, iii. 164
    - nature of proposals for, iii. 164, 165
  - shooting accidents in, Viceroy's crusade against, ii. 245, 246
  - strain imposed on physical organism by life and work in, ii. 115
  - strain of work in, causing increase of emotional instability of Lord Curzon, ii. 235
  - sugar imported into, Bill sanctioning Intervalling Duties on, passed, ii. 32
  - sympathy throughout, on Lord Curzon's resignation as Viceroy, ii. 389
  - taxation in, reduction of, definite pronouncement needed, ii. 241, 242
  - reduction not considered desirable, ii. 210
  - remission, ii. 223, 224
  - torrid weather during April, ii. 115
  - Under-Secretary for, George Curzon's appointment as, i. 187
  - war services, political concessions to, on account of, generally accepted view as to, discarded by Lord Curzon, iii. 162
  - proper form of remuneration for, iii. 163
  - westernization of, reaction against, ii. 153, 154
- India Council, accusations against by Viceroy, ii. 237
- and Lord Curzon, differences between, ii. 235, 236
  - question of Viceroy's action in connection with appointment of Police Commission, ii. 236
  - question of Viceroy's action in

INDEX

- issue of orders connected with educational reform, ii. 236, 237
- India Councils Act (1892), i. 189; iii. 163
- India Councils Bill, valuable provision in, ii. 106
- India Government Bill, comments and action of Lord Curzon on passage of Bill through House of Lords, iii. 175 receives Royal assent (Dec. 23, 1919), iii. 176
- India Office, idea of prolonging railway in Burma to Chinese frontier, ii. 203
- Indian aristocracy, Imperial Cadet Corps to be recruited from, Viceroy's plan for, ii. 126, 127
- Indian Arts Exhibition, accompanying Great Durbar, ii. 226
- Indian Civil Servant, dismissal of, Viceroy's action relating to, ii. 179
- Indian Cotton Excise Duty, action of Lord Curzon with regard to, i. 68
- Indian Frontier, administration, conducted by Punjab Government, ii. 55 reform, of, determined upon, by Lord Curzon, ii. 55 problems on and beyond, how dealt with by Lord Curzon, ii. 37-50
- Indian Frontier question, views on, i. 219
- Indian Land Assessments question, Viceroy's Despatch on, ii. 181, 182
- Indian Military Administration, Lord Kitchener's views on, ii. 374
- Indian Mutiny Veterans, march into Durbar arena, ii. 253, 254
recollections of, at Great Durbar, ii. 254
- Indian National Congress, address of, welcome telegraphed to Lord Curzon, ii. 21
- Indian Nationalist Party, opposition to Calcutta Municipal Bill, ii. 74
- Indian Native Princes, outburst of loyalty among, evolved by South African War, ii. 126
- Indian natives and British soldiers, conflicts between, ii. 244, 245
- Indian official hierarchy, Lord Curzon not popular with, ii. 152
- Indian Officials, Lord Curzon's estimates of, ii. 34, 35
- Indian policy, George Curzon's views on, in 1889, i. 147, 148
- Indian public, definition of, by Viceroy, ii. 151
- population comprising, ii. 151
- Indian tea, Russian increase in duty on, iii. 25
- Indians in Public Services, Lord Curzon's appreciation of employment of, i. 188, 189
- Indo-China, French, inefficient officers in, i. 240
- Inge, Very Rev. W. R. (Dean of St. Paul's), contemporary with Lord Curzon at Eton, i. 21
- International relations, power of moral rectitude in, instinctive recognition of, by Lord Curzon, iii. 244
- Inverlochy Castle, holiday spent at, i. 249
- Investiture at Great Durbar, hall for, ii. 227
- Irak, Kingdom of, retention of vilayet of Mosul, as essential part of, iii. 333 Mandated territory of, proposed determination by League of Nations of Northern Frontier of, iii. 343
- Ireland, growth of Republicanism in, wrecking prospects of Convention, iii. 188 not visited by Lord Curzon, though an Irish peer, iii. 178 visit to, of Prime Minister (Mr. Asquith) (1916), iii. 184
- Irish Executive, officers of, resignation (1916), iii. 184
- Irish Home Rule, proposed coercion of Ulster under, iii. 181
- Irish Home Rule Bill, danger of Royal Assent before appeal to nation, iii. 182, 183 fresh draft of, by Cabinet Committee, fate of, iii. 183, 184 to be passed before appeal to the people, iii. 182 to be passed by operation of Parliament Act, iii. 182
- Irish Home Rule question (1916), iii. 177 seriously affected by passage of Parliament Act, iii. 178 solution on basis of settlement of South African constitution, proposed by Lord Curzon, iii. 179
- Irish Parliament, threatened resistance of Ulster to rule of an, iii. 178, 179
- Irish question, Curzon's opening speeches in Parliament (1887) devoted to, i. 174, 115
- Irish Rebellion, outbreak of (April, 1916), iii. 177

INDEX

- Irish Rebellion, suppression of, iii. 177
- Irish Representative Peerage, conditions attaching to election to, iii. 41
- Irish election of Lord Curzon to, iii. 42
- Irish Treaty, an asset of the Coalition Government, iii. 294
- Irrigation Commission, report of, ii. 297
- Irrigation in India, Lord Curzon's exposition on, ii. 298
- possibilities of, as protection against future famine in India, ii. 164
- question of, ii. 297
- schemes, beneficial effect on India rural districts, ii. 55, 56
- Islington, Lord, lecture on problems of Indian Government, iii. 168
- Ismet Pasha, iii. 324, 329
- and retention of vilayet of Mosul for Turkey, iii. 333
- objections of, to provisions of Treaty of Peace, iii. 339
- reluctance of, to sign Treaty of Peace, iii. 340
- Italian army, losses of, on Isonzo front, iii. 153
- Italian envoys, communications with Prime Minister's private secretariat, iii. 314
- Italian front, attack on Austrian army from, suggestion of, iii. 152
- Italian Government, fall of, iii. 283
- pro-Kemalist policy of, failure of, iii. 276
- Italian troops, withdrawal from Adalia, iii. 276
- Italian and Greek forces, advance in Turkish dominions in Asia Minor, iii. 266, 267
- Italy, alienation of, through issue of communiqué on Near Eastern question by British Government, iii. 302
- early impressions of, i. 73
- encroachment on Asiatic territories of the Turks, iii. 265
- Government of, result of divergence of sympathies between Prime Minister of Great Britain and, iii. 278
- separate negotiations and agreements with Turkish Government at Angora, iii. 275
- military activity of, iii. 265
- JACOB, Sir Swinton, ii. 227
- Jahan, Shah, buildings of, i. 129
- Jameson, Dr., raid of, across Transvaal border, German Emperor's action in, i. 245
- Jamrud, railway from, to Afghan frontier, ii. 44
- Japan, victory of, over China, Russia's action in, Curzon's views on, i. 276-279
- visit to (1887), i. 118, 119
- "Japanese Wrestling," article on, by George Curzon, New Review, September, 1888, i. 119
- Jenkins, Sir Lawrence, K.C.I.E., career of, ii. 34
- Jenkinson, Mr., University correspondent, iii. 115
- Jersey, Lady, iii. 190
- Jerusalem, important centre of religious faith to Muhammedans, iii. 158
- most famous city of Christians, iii. 158
- peaceable possession of their Holy Places at, to be secured to Christian, Jew and Moslem alike, iii. 159
- Jewish population of Palestine, iii. 158
- Jewish race, National Home in Palestine, aspiration for, iii. 156
- impracticability of, pointed out by Lord, Curzon, iii. 157
- "National Home for" phrase analysed by Lord Curzon, iii. 158
- Jews and Gentiles in Palestine, equal civil and religious rights to be accorded to, iii. 159
- Jeypore, i. 130
- Jisseh, purpose of visit to, by French Consul, ii. 45
- Jodhpur, offer of Viceroy to maintain at expense of Government, during famine, regiment of Imperial Service cavalry at, ii. 78
- report from ii, 78
- Johnsons, L.R., pen-portrait of George Curzon, i. 42
- Jones, Clement, C.B., iii. 67, 206, 207
- Jones, Sir J. Bowen, iii. 62
- Jowett, Dr. B., advice to Lord Curzon as to restraint and brevity in speech, i. 44, 45
- on social requisites, i. 60
- view as to George Curzon's progress, i. 52, 53
- Jumma Masjid, mosque of, i. 129
- Junagadh, State of, ii. 144

INDEX

- KABUL, British Mission to, ii. 365-367
 British representative at (1899),
 Amir's objection to, ii. 263, 264 Lord Curzon's early visit to (as George Curzon, M.P.) in 1894, i.
 211; ii. 262, 263
 presence of Russian agent at, Viceroy's opposition to, ii. 125, 126 visit to, by invitation, i. 208, 211
- Kamba Jong, failure of negotiations between England and Tibet at, ii. 280
- Kanchenjunga, sublimity of, i. 64
- Kandahar, siege of, relieved by Sir Frederick Roberts, i. 95
- Karli, caves of, visit to, ii. 144
- Karnak, great hall at, i. 82
- Kashgar, hostile attitude of Russian representative to British agent at, ii. 37
- Kathiwar, ii. 144
 famine stricken districts of, Viceroy's
 visit to, ii. 83
- Kathmandu, capital of Nepal, ii. 38
- Kedleston, alterations at, iii. 72 attachment of Lord Curzon to, in boyhood, expressed in verse, i. 23 birthplace of Lord Curzon, i. 17
 burial of Lord Curzon at, iii. 379, 380 home at, furnishing model for Government House, Calcutta, i. 127, 128 improvements at, iii. 377 renovation of, iii. 377, 378 return to, after retirement from Foreign Office, iii. 375
- Kedleston Church, book on, publication of, iii. 373
 memorial chapel to first Lady Curzon in, iii. 372
- Ker, W. P., educated at Balliol, i. 38
- Keynes, Professor, theories on the economic problem put forward by, influencing Mr. Lloyd George, iii. 293
- Khamba Jong, conference at, British Cabinets proposed terms of negotiations, ii. 279
 Lord Curzon's proposed terms of negotiations, ii. 279 conference to settle Tibetan difficulty to be held at, ii. 279, 280
- Khartum, General Gordon left to perish at, i. 96
- Khelat, Khan of, Viceroy's advice to, ii.
 118
- Khyber Pass, exploration of, i. 129
- frontier question of, ii. 26
 main interest of, i. 129 maintenance as artery of communication and trade, ii. 39, 40, 41 military problem of, how solved by Lord Curzon, ii. 40, 41 railway through, construction at later date (1925) in altered circumstances, ii. 44
 construction of, Lord Curzon's objections to, ii. 42, 43
 visit to, ii. 212, 213
- Kilmaine, Lord, death of, iii. 41
- Kimberley, Lord, i. 219
- Kimberley (South Africa), visit to, iii. 47
- Kitchener, F.M., Lord, ii. 369, 370, 396, 398
 Anti-compulsion policy of, in War,
 iii. 135
 anxiety to become Military Member of Council in India, ii. 109 appointment as Commander-in-Chief in India, ii. 249, 250 agreed upon in 1900, but delayed,
 ii. 250
 desired by Lord Curzon, ii. 249, resented in military circles in India, ii. 250
 aspirations of, relating to Military Membership of India, ii. 351 attitude of, in relation to second Military opinion in India, ii. 384 criticisms on Minutes of Lord Curzon and Sir Edmond Elles, ii.
 381, 401, 402
 first impression on Lord Curzon,
 ii. 251
 importance of position of, as Commander-in-Chief in India, ii.
 397 improprieties of, in correspondence,
 ii. 399, 400
 Lord Curzon's consistent support of,
 ii. 355
 memorandum of, on Military Supply Member, ii. 409
 Minute issued by, ii. 373, 374 nickname given him by Sir Power Palmer, ii. 250
 obscurity of form of speech of,
 ii. 378
 opposition to proposals of, by members of Council, ii. 377 reserve of, ii. 394 scheme of, ii. 371

INDEX

- Kitchener, F.M., Lord, (cont.) scheme of, for defence of India, ii. 288, 356
 Lord Curzon's objections to, ii. 358 for India, ii. 410 strained relations of, with Lord Ampthill's Government, ii. 357 threat of resignation as Commander-in-Chief in India, ii. 353, 357
 vagaries of, on arrival in India, ii. 352 victory of, over Dervishes, i. 314, 318 and Amir of Afghanistan, ii. 347 and Lord Curzon, differences between, on question of military government in India, ii. 350 relative value of schemes of, for Indian government, ii. 391-393 and Gen. Sir, Edmond Elles, friction between, ii. 353, 354, 403 and evacuation of Gallipoli, iii. 132 and system of Military Control in India, ii. 358
- Kighthood of Garter, offer of, Lord Curzon, iii. 137
- Kighthood of Garter, question of conferment of, on Shah of Persia, ii. 306
- Kolar goldfields of Mysore, ii. 145
- Konia, iii. 262
- Korfanty, incursion into Upper Silesia, iii. 238
- Korea, visit to, i. 191
- Koweit, Sheik of, agreement with, ii. 50 importance of, ii. 318
- Kuch Behar, Maharajah of, ii. 167
- Kurdistan, Southern, nationality of population of, Lord Curzon's speech relating to, iii. 335, 336
- Kurds, race of, iii. 336
- Kurds and Turks, general relations between, iii. 336
- LABOUCHERE, H. D., M.P., i. 269
 indignation against George Curzon, i. 273 letter to George Curzon, i. 288, 289, 296 lines on the Uganda railway, i. 257 motion by, for abolition of hereditary principle in constitution of House of Lords, i. 134
   George Curzon's speech on, i. 134, 135
- Labour Party, effect of recognition of Workers' Educational Association on, iii. 100
- Lahore, i. 129
 visit to, to discuss changes in frontier administration, ii. 55
- Lamington, Lord, i. 65; ii. 266 letter to, on compulsion in war, iii. 135
- Lamp presented by Lord Curzon to tomb of Taj, ii. 334, 335
- Lancers, Ninth, outrage on native by two troopers of, ii. 246 punishment inflicted collectively on regiment, ii. 246, 247
- Landon, Percival, iii. 326 letter to Lady Curzon, ii. 359
- Language, Lord Curzon great master of, i. 173 love of, i. 173, 175
- Lansdowne, Lord, i. 301, ii. 386, 406, iii. 42, 97, 123, 180 active policy of, in regard to Persia, ii. 311
 bestowal of honours, upon, after term of Viceroyalty, iii. 29 declines to become candidate for Chancellorship of Oxford University, iii. 92 educated at Balliol College, i. 38
 on Parliament Bill, iii. 56 on proposed visit to India and Afghanistan, i. 204 Persian policy of, ii. 311 predecessor to Lord Elgin as Viceroy of India, i. 291
 wise policy with regard to Indian native chiefs, ii. 90
 and military controversy, ii. 383
 and Muskat, ii. 317
 and occupation of Wei-hai-wei, i. 285
- Lászlo, Philip de, advice to Lord Curzon on sitting for his portrait, iii. 89
- La Touche, Sir James, Lieut. Governor of United Provinces of India, ii. 333
- Laud, Archbishop, former Chancellor of Oxford University, iii. 90 state of Oxford University during Chancellorship of, iii. 90
- Lusanne, Conference of, iii. 322
 end of, iii. 339, 340
 at, iii. 341
 Peace Conference at, iii. 322
- Law, Rt. Hon. A. Bhan, iii. 196, 203, 321, 347

INDEX

- ambitious character of, iii. 320 attitude of, regarding Turkey, iii. 332 elected leader of Unionist party, iii. 321 illness of, iii. 349 letter to Lord Curzon relating to Turkish affairs at Lausanne, iii. 332 meeting with Lord Curzon at Paris, iii. 332
 member of War Cabinet Committee, iii. 152
 on failure of Reparations Conference, iii. 345 reluctance of, to return to forefront of public life, iii. 320 resignation of Premiership by, iii. 350
- Lawrence, Major-General Stringer, portrait of, bequeathed to Victoria Memorial Hall, iii. 68
- Lawrence, Sir Walter, appointed private secretary to George Curzon on departure for India as Viceroy, i. 313 abilities of, Viceroy's tribute to, ii. 179 approval of Viceroy's Despatch on Indian Land Assessment question, ii. 182
- Lawson, Sir W., verses on George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 302, 303
- League of Nations, affairs of, Mr. Lloyd George drawn into, iii. 261, 262 Council of, question of Upper Silesia referred to, by Supreme Council, iii. 240
- Leave rules, reform of, ii. 164
 Viceroy's proposals for, ii. 79
- Legislative Council, annual discussion on, Budget in, value of, ii. 106, 107 at Calcutta, Lord Curzon's speech at, ii. 281-284, 302 difficulties connected with, ii. 104, 105 created by Advocate General in, ii. 106 withdrawal of Bills from, ii. 105
- Legislative Department of Indian Government, inefficient methods of, ii. 10, 195
- Leigh, Austen, master at Eton, i. 25
- Leighton, Sir F., i. 77
- Leiter, Mary Victoria, correspondence with, i. 63, 66, 68, 216, 218, 221 marriage to, i. 226
- secret engagement to, i. 222, 223.
See also Curzon, Lady (first)
- Letter writing, Lord Curzon's love of, i. 169
- Lhasa, Colonel Younghusband's arrival at, ii. 345 Conference at, to settle Tibetan difficulty, proposed by Indian Government, ii. 274 refusal by British Cabinet, ii. 274 expedition to (1904), ii. 38 proposed Mission to, in regard to new Treaty, ii. 273 refused by British Cabinet, ii. 275
 main reason for ii, 278
- Liberal Government (1880-85), inauspicious course of events in opening years of, i. 95
 (1880-85), fall of, i. 100
 (1886), i. 105
- Liberal Press and compulsory militarism, iii. 121
- Liberals, return to power after General Election (1880), i. 45
 (1885), i. 104
 (1892), i. 190
 (1906), iii. 28
- Library, see Imperial Library
- Limerick, Bishop of, i. 84
- Lipton, Sir Thomas, iii. 63
- Little Englander, Curzon's horror of, i. 237
- Lockhart, Sir William, ii. 114
 Commander-in-chief for India, ii. 370
 death of, ii. 108
 letter to George Curzon on Indian affairs, i. 297
- London, University of, Indian Universities modelled upon, ii. 187, 188
- Long, Lord, iii. 189
- Lord Privy Seal, Lord Curzon appointed, in Coalition Government, iii. 125
- Lord Wardenship of the Cinque Ports conferred on Lord Curzon, ii. 340 resignation of, ii. 342
- Longburn, Lord, educated at Balliol College, i. 38
- Lothian History Prize won by Curzon, i. 55, 88 difficulties attending achievement, i. 89
- Low, Sir Sidney, educated at Balliol, i. 38
- Lowry, C. (head master of Tonbridge), i. 28

INDEX

- Lubbock, Sir John, lecturer at Eton Literary Society, i. 28
- Lucknow, Durbar held at, by Viceroy (1899), ii. 92, 93
- Lyall, Sir Alfred, appreciation of Lord Curzon's work in India, ii. 171
- Lycabettus, Mount, i. 74
- Lyttelton, Rt. Hon. Alfred, i. 54, 70
 congratulations on George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 305
 letter to, iii. 364 letter to, re election to Lord Rectorship of Glasgow University, iii. 46
 obituary tribute to, iii. 385
- Lytton, Lord, certain items included by, in programme of Imperial Assemblage (1877) excluded at Great Durbar ceremonies, ii. 228, 229
 frontier policy of, ii. 133
 Imperial Assemblage organised by (1877), ii. 225, 228 notice of Curzon's ability as a political speaker, i. 93
- MACAN, DE., iii. 112
- Macaulay, Lord, Minute on education in India, ii. 184, 185, 186 on character of Gladstone in 1839, i. 60
- MacDonald, Rt. Hon. J. Ramsay, iii. 367
- MacDonnell, Professor A. A., correspondence with re Bodleian Library, iii. 59
- MacDonnell, Sir A., ii. 211
- McDonnell, Sir Schomberg, ii. 116
 letter to, ii. 342
 letter to, on fiscal policy of Conservative party, iii. 95
 on "Russia in Central Asia" in 1889," i. 144, 143
- Mackail, Prof. J. W., contributor to Balliol Magazine, i. 41
 educated at Balliol, i. 38
 on Curzon's lack of popularity at Oxford, i. 60
- Mackennall, Sir Bertram, iii. 372
- Maclean, Mr., head of Commercial Committee, to Persia, ii. 350
- Maconochie, Sir Evan, ii. 145, 248 vindication of Lord Curzon's attitude with regard to British soldiers and Indian natives, ii. 249
- Madras, visit to (1887), i. 127
 incidents in, ii. 145, 146
- Madras Presidency Government, dilatoriness of secretariat, ii. 65 isolation from Central Government, ii. 56, 57 reduction in status proposed by Viceroy, not accepted by Home Government, ii. 59, 60
 Chamber of Commerce, counter-vailing duties on imported sugar advocated by, ii. 31
 Mahajana Sabha, address to Viceroy, expressing views of "Indian public," ii. 151
- Madura, Dravidian temples at, ii. 145
- Mahatmas, supposed messages from, i. 127
- Mahinda, royal missionary of Buddhism, i. 126
- Mahmud of Ghazni, ii. 144
- Maine, Sir Henry, on climate of India, ii. 115, 116
- Majuba Hill, disaster of, i. 95
- Malcolm, Sir Ian, iii. 27, 61, 86
 letter to, ii. 278
- Mallet, Sir Louis, educated at Balliol, i. 38
- Malortie, Baron de, i. 84
- Mandalay, Durbar held at, ii. 200
 Palace buildings at, cleared of improper occupation and restored, ii. 201
- Manipur, peaceful history of, since 1891, ii. 198
 visit of Viceroy to, ii. 197
- Marash, evacuation of, by French, iii. 272
- Marathon, plain of, i. 72
- Mardana Gateway, Amber, disappointment at, i. 130
- Markham, Sir Clement, praise of Curzon's contributions to geographical knowledge, i. 209, 210
 President of Royal Geographical Society, i. 209, 210
- Marschall, Baron, interviews with, i. 248
- Marshall, Sir John, appointed Director General of Indian Archaeology, ii. 212
- Matheson, Percy (New College, Oxford), iii. 99, 106, 109 report on position of University affairs at Oxford (1907), iii. 99 University Correspondent, Oxford University reform movement, iii. 109 retirement from position as, iii. 115

INDEX

- Matthews, Sir Lloyd, brother of Lady Cave, Lord Curzon's tribute to, iii, 111
- Mauritius, planters of, memorial from in favour of countervailing duties on sugar imported into India, ii, 31
- Mayo, Lord, view regarding Indian native chiefs, ii, 90
- Memnon, Vocal, mystery of, i, 83 researches on, when published, i, 83
- Mempes, Mortimer, illustrations of Great Durbar by, ii, 225
- Mesopotamia, Arab State in, foundation of, with British support, iii, 161
future of, iii, 160, 161
separation from Turkish domination, iii, 262
Turkish misrule of, iii, 161
- Metcalfe Hall, Calcutta, conversion into library on lines of British Museum, ii, 258
- Midleton, Earl (W. St. John Brodrick), i, 64 motion to refer Montagu-Chelmsford Report to Joint Committee, both Houses, iii, 174
See also Brodrick, W. St. John
- Military administration in India, Lord Kitchener's condemnation of, ii, 349
- Military authorities, Indian, carelessness of, in enforcing rules under which shooting passes were issued, ii, 244, 245
- Military controversy, Indian, English Press on, ii, 398 personal aspects of, ii, 410 scheme for settlement of, ii, 388 provisions of, ii, 382
- Military expenditure in India, ii, 107, 108 necessity of, ii, 369
- Military Member of Government of India, duties of, ii, 351
- Military predominance of France in Europe since Declaration of Peace, iii, 243
- Military service, generous offer for war in South Africa by Indian native chiefs, ii, 90
- Millerand, M., independent action, of, iii, 232, 233
- Milner, Lord, i, 46, 307; iii, 28, 107, 195
educated at Balliol College, i, 38
member of War Cabinet Committee, iii, 152
- Mission to Egypt under chairmanship of, iii, 245
- Milner-Zaglul Agreement, embodiment in Milner Report, iii, 250 with regard to Egyptian difficulties iii, 246
- Mines Bill, withdrawal by Viceroy from Legislative Council, ii, 105
- Ministry of Munitions Bill, conducted through House of Lords by Lord Curzon, iii, 127
- Ministry of Shipping, iii, 141
- Minto, Lord, ii, 388, 390 appointed Governor-General of Canada, i, 315 appointed Viceroy in succession to Lord Curzon, ii, 387 obligation to give effect to Despatch dated May 31, 1905, iii, 36 rumoured appointment of, as Viceroy of India, i, 293
- Minto, Lady, ii, 115
- Minto - Morley Reform Scheme for Government in India (1899), iii, 163
- Miranshah, unauthorized purchase of land at, for future evolution of troops, prevented by Viceroy, ii, 61, 62
- Mishmi Expedition, military importance exaggerated, ii, 113, 114
- Moghul buildings at Agra, i, 129
at Delhi, ii, 227
- Monarchical reaction in Germany (1920), failure of, iii, 228 and Communism in Germany, forces of, iii, 228
- Monro, General, and evacuation of Gallipoli, iii, 132
- Mogree doctrine in relation to Persian Gulf, ii, 313
- Montagu House, lease of, iii, 78
- Montagu, Rt. Hon. E. S., iii, 218 becomes Secretary of State for India, iii, 165, 166 alarm at Lord Curzon's refusal to cooperate in preparation of India Government Bill, iii, 175 disputatious correspondence with Lord Curzon on the Montagu-Chelmsford Report, iii, 167-174 Indian policy of, iii, 166, 167, 169 letter from, dealing with Persian policy, iii, 216 resignation of, iii, 286

INDEX

- Montagu, Rt. Hon. E. S. (cont.)
 unauthorised publication of Despatch from Viceroy on danger of Moslem insurrection, iii. 285
- Montagu-Chelmsford Reform Scheme, ii. 75 reforms in government of India (1917-1919), iii. 162-176 Report on Government in India, hostility of Lord Curzon towards, iii. 163, 164 motion to refer to Joint Committee of both Houses, iii. 174
- Monuments, ancient, in India, Lord Curzon's attitude towards, ii. 331, 336 preservation of, ii. 164
 Lord Curzon's campaign for, ii. 147 restoration determined upon by Lord Curzon, ii. 96, 97
- Moore, Dr. Edward, Principal of St. Edmund's Hall, Oxford, from 1864, iii. 113
- Moral rectitude, in International relations, power of, recognised by Lord Curzon, iii. 244
- Morley, Viscount (formerly Rt. Hon. John Morley), ii. 393
 congratulations on George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 305
 on climate of India, ii. 115, 116 repudiation of Parliamentary system in India (1909), iii. 166, 167 Secretary of State for India, ii. 388
 policy of, iii. 36, 37
 views of regarding Lord Curzon's Viceroyalty, ii. 417
- Mormonism, i. 119
- Moslems, comprising bulk of population of Palestine, iii. 157
 in India, indignation of, at rumour of British support of Greece, iii. 285
- Mount Everest, Expedition, Lord Curzon's advocacy of, ii. 167
 exploration of, iii. 59
- Mubarak, acceptance of protection of Great Britain, ii. 319
 Lord Curzon's secret Agreement with, ii. 318
- Mudania, mission of General Sir Charles Harington to, for negotiations with Mustapha Kemal, iii. 304
- Muhammedans, institution for instruction in Muslim law (Calcutta Madrassah), ii. 184
 Jerusalem important centre of religious faith to, iii. 158
- Mullagori road, construction of, determined on, ii. 213
- Müller, Professor Max, on hold maintained by Hindu philosophy on Indian people, ii. 154
- Munitions Bill, resignation of connection with, by Lord Curzon, iii. 127, 128
- Murray, Prof. Gilbert, iii. 104
- Muscat, Sultan of, forbidden to acquiesce in demands of French Government for coaling station on Persian Gulf, ii. 45, 46
- Muscat crisis, action with regard to, complicating attempts to readjust English relations with France, ii. 46 complicated by contradictions in existing Declaration and Agreements, ii. 47 difficulties and complications arising from, ii. 46, 47 Lady Curzon's anxiety regarding, ii. 52 public satisfaction in England regarding, voiced by The Times, ii. 46
- Museums, Imperial, absence of, in India, ii. 157
- Muslim law, institution for instruction in (Calcutta Madrassah), ii. 184
- Mussolini, Signor, iii. 323
- Mustapha Kemal Pasha, contemptuous attitude of, iii. 305, 306 formidable movement established by, iii. 272 Government set up by, in Anatolia, iii. 273 mission of General Sir Charles Harington to Mudania for negotiations with, iii. 304 power of, rapid advance in, iii. 272 revolt against Government in Constantinople, iii. 268, 269 rumour of renewed military activity of, proceeding from Constantinople, iii. 300
- Mysore, goldfields of, ii. 145
 "Myth of Er," contribution to Murray's Magazine, July 1887, i. 117
- NADIR KHAN the First, praised as a ruler, ii. 118

INDEX

- Napoleon, billiard table of, discovery of, by Lord Curzon, iii. 51
- Napoleonic books, prints and relics, Lord Curzon's bequest of, to University of Oxford, iii. 111
- Nasik, plague centre, ii. 84
- National Gallery, Lord Curzon appointed a Trustee of, iii. 68
- Trustees of, report of, iii. 123
- National Home for Jewish race in Palestine, aspiration for, iii. 196
- National Review*, contributions by Lord Curzon on reform of House of Lords, i. 135
- National Service League, Lord Curzon Vice-president of, iii. 118
- National Trust decline to purchase Tattershall Castle, iii. 74
- National Union of Conservative Associations, meeting of, iii. 312
- meeting at Bradford (1886), i. 108
- Nationalists, Indian, appreciation of Lord Curzon's views of India, ii. 421
- Native Chief of Gwalior, model conduct as ruler, ii. 88
- Native Chiefs, Indian, duties of, ii. 89, 90
- method of evoking public spirit and patriotism of, ii. 88
- offers by, of military service, evoked by war in South Africa, ii. 90
- permission to visit countries outside India to be granted by Government of India only, ii. 91
- policy of various British rulers in dealing with, ii. 90
- qualities requisite in, ii. 89, 91
- Native States, hitherto unknown to previous Viceroys, Lord Curzon's visit to, ii. 147
- Natu, Messrs, delayed detention of, 57
- Lord Curzon's remonstrance, ii. 57, 58
- Naval force accompanies Lord Curzon on official visit to Persia, ii. 314
- results of, ii. 314, 315
- Near East, difficulties in, ii. 264, 265
- Near Eastern Question, grave position of, communiqué dealing with, authorised by Prime Minister and issued to the Press, iii. 302
- without consultation of Lord Curzon or Foreign Office, iii. 302
- settlement of, Headlock restricting, iii. 298
- delay in, dangerous, in view of Lord Curzon, iii. 282
- deliberate attitude of M. Poincaré towards, iii. 281, 282
- dependent upon acceptance of an Armistice, iii. 288
- Pronouncement of Paris Conference (March 1922), with view to, iii. 287
- views regarding, held by Lord Curzon, iii. 262
- Near and Middle East question, withdrawal of America from participation in, iii. 269
- serious state of affairs in (1919), iii. 261, 262
- Nepal, establishment of friendly intercourse between Government of India and, ii. 38
- Maharaja of, correspondence with, re Bodleian Library, iii. 59
- Prime Minister of, agency in assisting Lord Curzon to procure Sanskrit MSS. for Oxford University, iii. 111
- ruler of, Lord Curzon's first official audience with, ii. 38
- visit to, ii. 167
- Nettleship, R., tutor of Curzon, i. 58
- Newspaper press comments with regard to Lord Curzon's policy respecting Khyber Pass, ii. 42
- Newspaper press of India, attitude regarding Viceroy's addresses on principles of government administration, ii. 150
- Newspapers, British opinions on creation of North West Frontier Province, ii. 135
- tribute to Lord Curzon in, iii. 326
- Nicholson, General, killed at Delhi during Indian meeting, ii. 254
- Nicolson, Harold, iii. 379
- Nihal Singh, Nicholson's orderly, present at Great Durbar, ii. 253, 254
- Nikko, terraced hill at, i. 121
- Nineteenth Century*, "The Scientific Frontier an Accomplished Fact," by George Curzon, i. 140
- articles in, by George Curzon, i. 147
- Norfolk, Duke of, debate on Parliament Bill, iii. 57
- North West Frontier districts, administration of, ii. 78

INDEX

- North West Frontier of India, scheme for better control of, propounded by Lord Curzon, ii. 130, 131
- North West Frontier Province, appointment of Chief Commissioner, ii. 138
- Chief Commissioner of, Sir George Roos-Keppel, G.C.I.E., K.C.S.I., ii. 35
- correspondence with Sir Mackworth Young (Lieutenant Governor of Punjab) regarding, ii. 136, 137
- creation of, ii. 131, 132, 134
- British newspaper press opinion on, ii. 135
- Nosret-ed-Dowleh, Prince, iii. 218
- Note-taking and report-writing, gravest hindrance to Indian administration, ii. 62, 63, 64, 164
- in administrative departments, grave hindrance from, ii. 62, 63, 64
- means taken for reduction, ii. 64
- Nushki, railway from Quetta to, iii. 154, 155
- O'CONNOR, Rt. Hon. T. P., i. 295
- and extension of Lord Curzon's Viceroyalty, ii. 286
- eulogy of, on George Curzon's speech on Concert of Europe, i. 269
- Official laxity in case of outrage by British soldiers at Rangoon, ii. 71, 72
- Olcott, Colonel, i. 127
- Old Age Pensions Bill, remarks on, iii. 54
- Oman as a British Dependency, Lord Curzon's view regarding, ii. 45
- Sultan of, ii. 314, 316
- Omar, Mosque of, sacred stone contained in, iii. 158
- Orange, H. W., appointed Director-General of Education in India, ii. 192
- Order in Council, respecting outrage by British soldiers at Rangoon, ii. 72
- Lord Curzon's attitude, ii. 306
- Oudh, Talukdars of, Durbar held at Lucknow for (1899), ii. 92, 93
- "Our House Debating Society," poem contributed to Out of School at Eton, i. 32
- Out of School at Eton* (1877), contributors to, i. 32
- press criticisms of, i. 32
- produced anonymously, by Lord Curzon, i. 32
- Oxford, bye-election (1880), petition following Sir William Harcourt's defeat, i. 43
- University undergraduates forbidden to take part in political meetings, i. 43
- Honorary degree at, conferment of, ii. 541
- Medical Graduates' Club, dinner with, iii. 104
- University of, affairs of, Lord Curzon's immense correspondence dealing with, iii. 112
- annual residence of Lord Curzon at, iii. 100
- article on "Conservatism of Young Oxford," i. 99
- Chancellor of, Lord Curzon as, iii. 45, 71
- Sir Herbert Warren on, chapter vi, iii. 89-116
- Chancellorship, election of Lord Curzon to, iii. 34, 93
- former great occupants of, iii. 90
- Lord Curzon's conception of the office, iii. 89
- Colleges of, absorption of old public "Halls" decreed by Commission (1877), iii. 113
- degree conferred on H.M. the King of the Belgians, iii. 110
- deputation from, presenting Loyal Address to H.M. King George V, headed by Lord Curzon, iii. 113
- education at, views of working classes as to, iii. 107
- Endowment Fund, organisation of, iii. 94
- assistance rendered by Hon. T. A. Brassey, iii. 91
- finance of, ii. 99
- inquiry, by Lord Goschen, into assistance rendered by constituent Colleges to, iii. 61
- literary presentations and bequests of Lord Curzon to, iii. 111
- Lord Curzon's attitude towards, iii. 115, 116
- Lord Curzon Romanes Lecturer at, iii. 7
- recipients of Honorary Degree at

INDEX

- first Commemoration of Lord Curzon's Chancellorship, iii. 95 recognition of Worker's Educational Association by, iii. 100 reform, delays in, iii. 106 progress in, iii. 106
   under Lord Curzon, iii. 98, 99
 special degree accepted by H.M. the Queen, iii. 110 state of, during Chancellorship of Laud, iii. 90
 See also Balliol College
 Union, George Curzon elected, President, i. 46
   George Curzon's speech at, i. 45, 46
- Oxus, river, source of, i. 209
 Curzon's discovery of, how rewarded, i. 71
- PAGEANTRY of the East, ii. 86, 87
- Palace buildings at Mandalay cleared of improper occupation and restored, ii. 201
- Palestine, comparison with Wales in point of size and population, iii. 157 disappointment at sight of, i. 87
 Jewish population of, iii. 158
 Jews and Gentiles in, equal civil and religious rights to be accorded to, iii. 159 mixed races inhabiting, iii. 157
 National Home for Jewish race in, aspiration for, iii. 156
   impracticability of, pointed out by Lord Curzon, iii. 157 population of, principal nationality composing, iii. 157 poverty of, iii. 157 ravages by Turks in, iii. 157
 separation from Turkish domination, iii. 262
- Palmer, Sir Power, ii. 248, 249
 Commander-in-Chief for India, ii. 370, 372
   resignation from Simla, iii. 249 nickname applied by, to Lord Kitchener, ii. 250 temporary appointment as acting Commander-in-Chief of Indian Army confirmed, iii. 111
- Pamirs, the, i. 66
 exploration among, monograph on, i. 208-210 papers recording, i. 208, 209 and Afghanistan, journey to, i. 297, 208
   visit to, i. 71
   difficulties of, i. 204, 206, 207
- Pan-Islamism and Pan-Turanianism, movement established by Mustapha Kemal under guise of, iii. 272
- Parāman, Miss, i. 73
 governess of George Curzon, i. 17, 18
 strange character of, i. 18
- Paris Conference (March 1922), pronouncement of, with view to settlement of Near Eastern question, iii. 287 adhesion of representatives of French and Italian Governments to, iii. 287 Greek reception of, iii. 288
 main provisions of, iii. 287
- Parliament, Curzon's opening speeches in, i. 114, 115 members of, payment, Lord Curzon on, i. 146 Act, operation of, in passing Home Rule Bill, iii. 182 passage of, seriously affecting Irish question, iii. 178
 Bill, debate on, in House of Lords, iii. 57
   Lord Curzon's attitude to, iii. 57, 58 of Bengal, how created, ii. 75
- Parliamentary Franchise, clause conferring, on women in Representation of People Bill, iii. 190
- Parliamentary Government in India, iii. 166
- Parthenon, floor and steps of, special point in construction, i. 76
- Patti, Adelina, i. 65
- Peace, declaration of, military predominance of France in Europe since, iii. 243
 Peace Conference, landing of Greeks at Smyrna authorised by, iii. 266 results of, Lord Curzon's apprehensions for, iii. 264
- Pearl Mosque at Delhi, i. 129
- Peerage and seat in Commons, arguments relating to, i. 230, 231 suggested reform concerning, i. 228
- Peerage, Indian, revival of, any idea of, excluded, ii. 228, 229

INDEX

- Pekin, appointment of Minister to, i. 252
- Pembroke College, Oxford, Tercentenary Dinner, iii. 111
- Penang, i. 125
- Persia, British diplomatic failure in, i. 298, 299
- British policy towards, ii. 305, 307
- difference of opinion regarding, between Viceroy and Home Government, ii. 98, 99
- France and Russia's active policy regarding, ii. 309
- Government of, Russian loan to, ii. 102
- interest in, iii. 208, 209
- journey to, object of (1889), i. 148
- military operations in, conducted by British Government, iii. 212
- official visit of Lord Curzon to, ii. 313
- result of, ii. 314
- position of, in regard to Anglo-Russian agreement, iii. 44
- protection of, cost of, iii. 213
- railway extension from Baluchistan into Persia advised against, iii. 155
- respective interests of Great Britain and Russia in, definition in Agreement (1907), iii. 38, 39
- Russian influence in, menace of, i. 259, 299
- Shah of, Lord Curzon's picture of, i. 155
- ratification of Commercial Convention with Russia, ii. 307
- Southern, threatened Russian encroachments on, ii. 99
- travels in, effect of, on Lord Curzon's health, i. 152
- visit to (1890), i. 72
- Western, construction of roads in, Lord Curzon's reasons against, ii. 202
- withdrawal of British troops, from, views on, iii. 213
- and Russia, defence of British interests in affairs between, ii. 206
- See also* Trans-Persian railway
- Persia and the Persian Question* (1892), publication of, i. 70
- by George Curzon, i. 151
- difficulties of publishing, i. 154, 155
- English reviews on object of, i. 155, 156
- undue length of, i. 156
- work at, i. 152, 153
- Persian Gulf, attempt of France to obtain coaling station on, ii. 45
- French activity in, ii. 45
- head of, threatened Russian encroachments on, ii. 99
- Lord Curzon's policy regarding, ii. 303, 310
- Peshawar, Durbar at, ii. 212
- visit to (1887), i. 129
- Phipps, H., donation resulting in creation of Agricultural Institute at Pusa, ii. 294
- Phipps Research Laboratory at Pusa, foundation stone laid by Lord Curzon, ii. 295,
- Pichon, M., suggestion of discussion of Turkish question by British and French Governments, iii. 269
- Pigtail Committee, i. 287
- Pilkington, Dr., defeated at Southport, i. 107, 108
- Pioneer, The*, attitude regarding Viceroy's addresses on principles of government administration, ii. 150
- hostile attitude towards Lord Curzon, ii. 165
- Plague, epidemic in India (1899), centres of, ii. 84
- inoculation against, undergone by Viceroy (1899), ii. 82, 83
- Platform speaking, Lord Curzon's distaste for, iii. 369
- Plato, i. 75
- Poetry, George Curzon's passion for, i. 182
- Poincaré, M., iii. 325, 347
- adhesion to Pronouncement of Paris Conference (March 1922) obtained from, iii. 287
- and reparations, iii. 345
- characteristics of, iii. 323
- conference of Lord Curzon with, iii. 302
- deliberate attitude, with regard to Near Eastern question, iii. 282
- discussion with Lord Curzon relating to coming Peace Conference at Lausanne, iii. 322
- extreme hostility to Greece shown by, iii. 282
- maintenance of fixed attitude regarding reparations, iii. 358

INDEX

- ministry of, succeeding that of M. Briand, iii. 281 painful interview with Lord Curzon, iii. 303 rigid insistence on limitation of scope of Genoa Conference, iii. 295
 Poland, difficulty regarding, iii. 261 ownership of Upper Silesia desired by, iii. 237
 Police, Indian, reform of, ii. 284
 Police Commission, appointment of, Viceroy's action questioned by India Council, ii. 236, 237
 Police force, Indian, reorganisation of, ii. 164
 Police reform in India, ii. 103
 Politician, need of development of social aspects in character of, i. 60
 Politics, attraction of George Curzon to, during stay at Oxford, i. 43, 44
 Poona, plague centre, ii. 84
 Pop (Eton Society), derivation of name, i. 27
 George Curzon's tenure of office in, i. 27
 Port Arthur, and Talienswan, occupation of, by Russia, i. 277, 279, 281
 George Curzon's views on, i. 277, 278, 284
 Powles, Rev. R. Cowley, first schoolmaster of Lord Curzon's, i. 18
 Privy Council for India, revival of idea of, excluded, ii. 229
 Privy Councillorship, conferment of, on George Curzon, i. 235
Problems of the Far East, i. 199 critique of, i. 201
 popularity of, i. 203
 weekly reviews on, i. 202
 Pro-Kemalist policy of Italian Government, failure of, iii. 276
 Protection, policy of, views on, iii. 303
 Protection of Foreign Telegrams Bill, withdrawal from Legislative Council by Viceroy, ii. 105, 106
 Protection in Egypt abolished, ii. 250
 Protestant communities, interest in Jerusalem, iii. 158
 Public opinion, influence of, on Indian administration, ii. 149
 Public school career of George Curzon, great success marking, i. 174
 Public Works Department Buildings at Mandalay, unsightly innovations in, ii. 201
 Punjab Frontier, administration question, ii. 103, 104 external relations with tribes on, ii. 44 Government of, frontier policy conducted by, ii. 55 inefficiency of, ii. 132
 separation of Trans-Indus districts from, ii. 131 Land Alienation Act, 1900, ii. 283, 292 passing of, ii. 164
 results of, ii. 294
 QUEEN, H.M. the, special degree at Oxford accepted by, iii. 110
 Queen's Palace at Mandalay, ii. 201
 Quinton, Mr., assassination of, at Imphal (Manipur), 1891, ii. 198
 Quetta, municipality of, Viceroy's reply to address from, ii. 117, 118 railway from, to Nushki, iii. 154, 155 railway to, hastily constructed, i. 129 strategic importance of, i. 140 visits to, i. 129, ii. 115
 RADICAL intimidation in South Derbyshire, i. 101
 Radicalism, advanced, represented in Liberal government (1880), i. 45
 Railway Board, creation of, in India, ii. 301
 Railway construction in Burma, extension into China deprecated by Lord Curzon, ii. 202
 Railway extension from Baluchistan into Persia advised against by Lord Curzon (1916), iii. 155
 Railway to Quetta, hasty construction of, i. 129
 Railway through Khyber Pass, construction of, at later date (1925) in altered circumstances, ii. 44
 Lord Curzon's objection to, ii. 42, 43
 Railways, construction of, in Afghanistan, effect of, on natives, i. 298
 Indian, system of, ii. 300
 Russian, in China, i. 286, 287
See also Great Indian Peninsular Railway

INDEX

- Rajputana States, report from (1899), ii. 78
- Raleigh, Sir Walter, iii. 104
- Raleigh, Sir Thomas, iii. 28
- Ram Dass, builder of Golden Temple at Amritsar, i. 130
- Ram Mohun Roy, Raja, Calcutta citizen, ii. 74, 75
- Ranade, sentenced to death for assassination of Messrs. G. S. and R. S. David, ii. 36
- Rand, Mr., murder of, ii. 36
- Rangoon, endeavour of Russian government to establish vice-consulate at, ii. 37
- outrage by British soldiers at, ii. 153, 244
- part played by Viceroy in, general approval of, ii. 147
- Order in Council respecting, ii. 72
- punishment for, ii. 72
- Rangoon and Szechuan, railway connection between, unnecessary in opinion of Lord Curzon, ii. 202, 203
- Rapallo, Treaty of, iii. 295
- Raper, R. W., letters from, i. 101, iii. 96, 110
- Rectorial Address at Glasgow University, iii. 52, 53
- Rede Lecture on modern Parliamentary eloquence, i. 186
- Redmond, John, M.P., iii. 180
- statement respecting Mr. Lloyd George's negotiations with regard to Home Rule, iii. 184
- Regulations drawn up and enforced to reduce report-writing in Indian administrative departments, ii. 67
- Reid, Sir Robert, Curzon's reply to, speech of, i. 268
- See also* Loreburn, Lord
- Reindeer Inn, Banbury, Globe room of, iii. 81
- Relief works for giving employment to destitute, Viceroy's inspection of, ii. 83
- Reparation claims of France and Belgium, criticism of, iii. 359
- of Great Britain, emphasised, iii. 359
- Reparations, British note on, iii. 361
- German views on, iii. 344, 345
- views of British Government on, iii. 376
- views of French Government on, iii. 346
- Representation of People Bill, clause in, conferring Parliamentary franchise on women, iii. 190
- Republicanism, Irish, growth of, wrecking prospects of Convention, iii. 188
- Resolution of January 1902, ii. 292
- Responsions Statute, Oxford University, iii. 106
- Revolution, outbreak of, in Greece, iii. 305
- Rhine, Customs Barrier on, termination by Supreme Council, iii. 240
- Rhineland Sanction, cancellation, question of, iii. 237
- Rhodes, Rt. Hon. Cecil, Lord Curzon's tribute to, iii. 48
- Ribblesdale, Lady, letter from (quoted), i. 93, 94
- Richmond, E., ii. 334
- Ripon, Lord, ii. 323
- interest in, military controversy, ii. 381
- and George Curzon, contrasting aims of, ii. 421
- Rives, Amelie, friendship with, i. 172
- Roads, construction in Western Persia, Lord Curzon's reasons against, ii. 202
- Robeck, Admiral de (British High Commissioner, Constantinople), strong views expressed by, on Greek occupation of Smyrna, iii. 272
- Roberts, Lord, ii. 352; iii. 56
- and British Military Requirements, iii. 119
- and Military controversy, ii. 383
- campaign of, in regard to National Service, iii. 118
- death of, iii. 135
- Lord Kitchener's correspondence with, iii. 399, 400
- march from Kabul in relief of British forces besieged at Kandahar, i. 95
- president of National Service League, iii. 119
- successes against Boers in South Africa, ii. 102
- wise policy with regard to Indian native chiefs, ii. 90
- Robertson, Sir Charles, University correspondent, iii. 115

INDEX

- Robertson, T., report on Indian railways, ii. 299
- Roby, H. J., i. 99
- Rock tombs of Beni Hassan, i. 83
- Rodd, Sir Rennell, iii. 68
letter to, ii. 422
on men of mark educated at Balliol College, i. 38
- Rodosto, Greek troops landed at, iii. 298
- Rollit, Sir A., i. 108
- Roman Catholic Church, interest in Jerusalem, iii. 158
- Romanes Lecture, subject of address by Lord Curzon on Frontiers, ii. 200; iii. 101
- Romanes Lecturers 1909, 1910, selection of, iii. 102
- Rome and Athens, contrast between, i. 64
See also Greece and Rome
- Roosevelt, Ex-president Theodore, selected Romanes Lecturer (1909), iii. 102
- Roos-Keppel, Sir George, G.C.I.E., K.C.S.I., abilities in connection with North West Frontier Province, ii. 35
- Rosebery, Lord, ii. 174, 175
chairman at Farewell Dinner to Lord Curzon, i. 315
debate on Parliament Bill, iii. 57 defeated in contest with Lord Curzon for Chancellorship of Oxford University, iii. 34 reform of House of Lords, i. 135 settlement of Siamese question, i. 254, 255 studied eloquence, of, i. 180 withdrawal from contest for Chancellorship of Oxford University with Lord Goschen, iii. 92
- Rossetti, D. G., admiration of, p. 184
- Royal Assent to Home Rule Bill, danger of, before appeal to nation, ii. 182, 183
- Royal Commission on the Universities, iii. 109
- Royal Geographical Society, admission of women to Fellowship of, iii. 65 building fund, efforts for, iii. 61
Lord Curzon President of, iii. 60
Lord Curzon's successful advocacy of change of abode of, iii. 60, 61 medal of, awarded Curzon for determining source of Oxus, i. 71 presentation of Patron's Gold Medal to Curzon, i. 208, 210 removal of, iii. 64, 65
- Royal Institute of British Architects, Lord Curzon elected an honorary Fellow of, iii. 71
- Royal Society, Fellowship of, Lord Curzon elected to, iii. 72
- Royal visit to Oxford (1910), project of, why abandoned, iii. 113
- Ruhr, French occupation of, iii. 356, 357 expense and economic harm resulting from, iii. 360
- Rupee, stabilisation of, ii. 164
- Ruskin, Mr., letter from Lord Curzon, i. 31 opposition to university undergraduates engaging in politics, i. 43, 44
- Russell, Dr. W. H., i. 84
- Russia, activities of, in Persia, ii. 309, 310 activity in Tibet, inimical to British interests, ii. 272 advance of, towards India, ii. 114 encroachments threatened on Southern Persia and Persian Gulf, ii. 99 strong views of Viceroy respecting, ii. 99 fears of invasion by, of Indian frontier, i. 297 Government of, endeavour to establish vice-consulate at Rangoon, ii. 37 overtures to, favoured by members of English Government, 125, 126 increase in duty on Indian tea, iii. 25 loan to Persian Government, ii. 102 menace of, ii. 395, 396
to Great Britain in the East, i. 143, 144 policy of, George Curzon's opinion on, in 1889, i. 147 menace to Great Britain, i. 297, 298 political and strategical importance of frontier of Tibet to India, as compared with, ii. 274 rights of intervention in Tibet acquired by Government in, ii. 272 strategical advantage of British power, in Tibet question, ii. 274 and Afghanistan, suspected relations between, ii. 267, 268

INDEX

- Russia (cont.)
 and Great Britain, proposed agreement between, relating to Persia, ii. 312 respective interests of in Persia, definition in Agreement (1907), iii. 43, 44 and Persia, defence of British interests in affairs between, ii. 206 and Tibet, secret emissaries between, ii. 205
 China and Tibet, Secret Treaty between, Lord Curzon's belief in, ii. 273
See also Soviet Russia
- Russia in Central Asia in 1889, by Lord Curzon, i. 70, 142
- Russian action following victory of Japan over Russia, Curzon's views on, i. 276-279
- Russian Convention, opinion of Lord Curzon regarding, iii. 38 ratification of, iii. 38
- Russian Government, agent of, presence at Kabul, Viceroy's opposition to, ii. 125, 126 relations with Afghanistân, ii. 124, 125 hostility to India, ii. 37
- Russian Press and George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 295, 296 representative, hostile attitude to British agent at Kashgar, ii. 37
- Russian troops, concentration on Afghan border, rumour of, ii. 101
See also Soviet Government
- SADLER, Sir Michael, ii. 194
 Sadler Commission, summing up of, on difficulties of Educational reform in India, ii. 194
- St. Aldwyn, Lord, iii. 93
See also Hicks-Beach, Sir Michael
- St. Aulaire, Comte de, French Ambassador, painful interview of Lord Curzon with, iii. 239
- St. Edmund's Hall, Oxford, resuscitation under Chancellorship of Lord Curzon, iii. 113
- St. Moritz, residence at, for health in, 1891, i. 152, 153
- St. Peter's Cathedral, Rome, i. 74
- Sakkhara, Great Step Pyramid at, i. 81
- Salisbury, Marquess of, i. 135, 283; ii. 340; iii. 128, 202, 242, 352, 367 agreement with France relating to Siam, i. 255 and Cretan question, i. 266
 and extension of Lord Curzon's Viceroyalty, ii. 285
 and Persian Question, ii. 305, 306 and Russian railways in China, i. 287 attempts to readjust relations with France complicated by Muscat Crisis, ii. 46 complaint of want of prescience, shown, made by Lord Curzon, ii. 206
 Conservative Administration under (1885), i. 100
 Curzon's admiration for, i. 102, 103 enterprise in Egypt, i. 265 explains difficulty of action in dealing with Russia, ii. 206 Foreign Policy of, odium of, i. 302 forms second Conservative Administration (July 1886), i. 107 indifference to Dartford Programme of Lord Randolph Churchill, i. 110 letter of Lord Curzon to, regarding Foreign Policy of British Cabinet, ii. 277 letter relating to Concert of Europe, i. 270 letters to, from Lord Curzon, i. 244, 310, 311 in reference to Treaty with France, i. 240, 241 on Indian Government, ii. 406, 407
 Lord Goschen, successor to Chancellorship of Oxford University, on death of, iii. 91, 92 loyalty to, shown by Curzon, i. 253, 255 offer of Viceroyalty to George Curzon, i. 301, 304, 311 on reform of House of Lords, i. 139, 140 opposed to cession of Berar, ii. 216 Persia's policy of, ii. 311 policy of, i. 250, 252 in Europe, i. 262
 relating to China, i. 256
 praises of, i. 272
 private secretaryship under, of George Curzon, i. 283 promptness of action in Venezuela affair, ii. 206 receipt from Russian Government of

INDEX

- ambiguous communication on subject of Afghanistan, ii. 124 speech at Lord Mayor's banquet, i. 264 unfavourable comment on the Muscat crisis, ii. 48 urged to make official enquiries of Russian Government regarding Persia, ii. 101
- Salt Lake City, and Mormonism, i. 119
- Samana frontier question, how dealt with by Lord Curzon, ii. 41, 42
- Sandeman, Sir Robert, i. 130; ii. 118
- Sandhurst, Lord, character of, tribute to, iii. 388 government of Bombay by, ii. 57 letter to, on delay in detention of the brothers Natu, ii. 57, 58 on first impressions in India made by Lord and Lady Curzon, i. 22, 23
- San Francisco, i. 119
- San Remo, Allied Conference at (April 1920), iii. 229
 Treaty with Turkey finally agreed upon at, iii. 271
- Sanskrit College, establishment in India by Jonathan Duncan, ii. 184
- Sanskrit MSS. presented by Lord Curzon to Oxford University, iii. 111
- Sarwat Pasha, negotiations with, regarding Egypt, settled satisfactorily, iii. 250
- Saturday Review* on "Russia in Central Asia in 1889," i. 144
- Scarsdale, Lord, i. 317
- Scarsdale, Lady, death of, i. 23
- Scientific and Industrial Research, Department of, iii. 150
- Scottish University training, changes in, iii. 46
- Scott-Moncrieff, Sir Colin, Chairman of Commission on Irrigation in India, ii. 297, 2 programme of, ii. 299
- Sculptures on walls of chambers of Queen of Ti, great antiquity of, i. 81
- Selborne, Lord, debate on Parliament Bill, iii. 37
 French aggression in West Africa, letter relating to, i. 253
 letter to, from Lord Curzon, ii. 132
 letters to Lord Curzon, ii. 286, 287
- Self-government, desiderata of, iii. 164 in India, iii. 164
- Singh, Sir Harnam, ii. 293
- Sethi, Hypostyle Hall of, i. 82
- Sèvres, Treaty of, iii. 259-274 date of, iii. 272
 futility of, iii. 272
 list of modifications of, drawn up by Lord Curzon (Oct. 1921), iii. 279
- Shipping Control Committee, chairman of, iii. 67 direction of, by Lord Curzon, iii. 138 Lord Curzon's administrative ability in, iii. 141 work of, iii. 138, 141
- Shoguns, burial place of, i. 121
- Shooting accidents in India, Viceroy's crusade against, ii. 245, 246 press criticism of, ii. 245, 246
- Shooting passes, rules under which issued, carelessness of military authorities in enforcing, ii. 244, 245 appointment of military and civilian committee to investigate, ii. 245
- Siam, Lord Salisbury's policy relating to, i. 255, 256 problem of, i. 196, 197
- Sibi, i. 129
- Sidgwick, Arthur, iii. 104
- Sikhim, borders of, violated by Tibetans, application for redress to be made to China, ii. 37, 38
 political officer of, discussion of Lord Curzon with, on Tibetan difficulty, ii. 209
- Sikhim and Tibet, frontier between, Agreements regulating, ii. 204 broken by Tibetans, ii. 204, 205
 strained relations between, ii. 37
- Silesia, Upper, dispute as to possession of, iii. 280
 French reinforcements in, dispute between French and English Governments over, iii. 238 incursion into, by Korfanty, iii. 238 ownership desired by Poland, iii. 237 plebiscite in favour of German ownership, iii. 237 question of, referred by Supreme Council to Council of League of Nations, iii. 240 resistance of German inhabitants to Korfanty, iii. 238 troubles regarding, ii. 211

INDEX

- Sillahdari levies, untrustworthiness of, ii. 42, 43
- Simla, i. 66
 Educational Conference at, ii. 190
 Session of Legislative Council, work of, ii. 142
- Simon, Sir John, Government left by, iii. 137
- Singapore, i. 125
- Singhalese structures, architecture of, i. 126 resemblance to Greek designs, i. 126
- Sinn Fein movement, growth of, wrecking prospects of Irish Convention, ii. 187, 188
- Sistan, ii. 100
 strategic value of, ii. 308
- Skene, Mr., assassination of, at Imphal (Manipur), 1891, ii. 198
- Smith, A. L., iii. 104
 circular letter on Oxford University reform signed by, iii. 100
- Smith, Armitage, in charge of Financial Commission to reorganise Persian Finance, iii. 221
- Smith, J. A., election to professorship, at Oxford, iii. 112
- Smith, Rt. Hon. W. H., commendation of Curzon's speeches in Parliament, i. 116
- Smoke nuisance of Calcutta, ii. 258
- Smuts, General, member of War Cabinet Committee, iii. 152
- Smyrna, claim of Greece for, iii. 265 landing of Greeks at, by whom authorised, iii. 266 provisional occupation by the Greeks, future danger from, iii. 272 withdrawal of Greek forces from, suggested, iii. 180
- Socrates, i. 75
- Soldiers, British, and natives of India, relations between, ii. 164 of British Army in India, Lord Curzon not popular with, ii. 152
- Somnath, gates of, ii. 144 temple of, ii. 144
- "Souls," the, iii. 110 gatherings of, i. 162, 163 origin of title, i. 165
 rumours concerning, i. 166 verses on, i. 163-165
- South African Constitution, suggested solution of Irish Home Rule question on basis of settlement of, iii. 179
- South African Union, Lord Curzon on, in The Times, iii. 49
- South African War, cost of, ii. 107 demands on British fighting force, ii. 207 expenses of, increase, ii. 239 generous offers of military service by Indian Native Chiefs, ii. 90
 Lord Roberts' successes against Boers in (1900), ii. 102 outbreak of (1899), ii. 68 outburst of loyalty among Indians evoked by, ii. 126 Peace Declaration signed at Vereeniging, ii. 239 supply of British troops from India in aid of, ii. 68, 69 untoward events of (1899-1900), influence on India, ii. 101
- South Pole, discovery of, iii. 66
- Southam, Col. H., iii. 62
- Southern Shan States, ii. 200
- Southport Division of Lancashire, George Curzon's candidature for, i. 106 question of expenses a difficulty, i. 206 how settled, i. 107
 George Curzon elected Member for, i. 107
- Sovereign, the, circumstances under which entitled to change his advisers, iii. 182
- Soviet Government, breach of undertaking given by, iii. 355
 ultimatum to, iii. 355
- Soviet Russia, rapprochement with, sought by Mr. Lloyd George, iii. 292 Trade Agreement with, Lord Curzon's disapproval of, iii. 355
- Spa, Allied Conference at, iii. 233
 German Representatives admitted to, iii. 233
- Spectator*, The, comment on resignation of Mr. Fanshawe, Chief Commissioner of Delhi, ii. 138, 139
 on decisions regarding Khyber Pass, ii. 42
 on "Problems of the Far East," i. 202
 on "Russia in Central Asia in 1889," i. 144
- Speeches, classical style of, i. 181, 182
- Spring-Rice, Sir C., contributor to Out of School at Eton, i. 32

INDEX

- Spring-Rice, Sir. C., Curzon's letter to, 1880 (incident of Duke of Marlborough's Emu), i. 61 educated at Balliol College, 38 on views held in America on "Problems in the Far East," i. 203 travels with, i. 191,
- Staff College in India, Lord Kitchener's scheme for, ii. 356
- Stamfordham, Lord, iii. 200, 351, 352
- Star, The* on "Russia in Central Asia in 1889," i. 145
- State Entry at Great Durbar, ii. 226
- Statutory Commission on the Universities, iii. 98
- Stephen, J. K., i. 28 contributor to Out of School at Eton, i. 32
- Stephen, Sir James Fitzjames, address on Indian Empire, i. 308<sup>9</sup> lectures at Eton Literary Society, i. 28
- Sthamer, Herr von, proposals from, not accepted, iii. 347
- Stone, E. D., master at Eton, i. 24
- Strachan-Davidson, Mr., iii. 306
 tutor of Curzon, i. 58
- Strachey, St. Loc, educated at Balliol, i. 38 opinion on Lord Curzon's achievement at Lausanne, iii. 341
- Strathpeffer, visit to, i. 313
- Strike on Great Indian Peninsular Railway, no direct information to Government, ii. 57
- Stromboli, cone of, i. 74
 "Subjects of the Day," iii. 123
- Submarines, British losses from, iii. 359
- Subsidiary Force, origin of, ii. 215
- Suffragist movement, opposition to, by Lord Curzon, iii. 190
- Sugar, bounty-fed, imported into India, ii. 30 export trade from India, how lost, ii. 30 revival of, means suggested, ii. 30, 31 imported into India, Countervailing Duties on, Bill sanctioning passed, ii. 32
- Sulimanyeh, rationality of population of, Lord Curzon's speech relating to, iii. 335
- Sunday Express*, extract in, of letter from M. Gounaris to Lord Curzon, iii. 330
- Sunset on Indian ocean, Lord Curzon's word painting of, i. 179
- Supreme Council, explanation and definition of, given by Lord Curzon, iii. 225 meeting at Cannes (January, 1922), iii. 280 meeting of, decision regarding question of Silesia, and Customs Barrier on the Rhine, iii. 240 principles of Treaty with Turkey laid down at, iii. 271
- Swaraj Party in Bengal, triumph of (1923), ii. 76
- Sydenham, Lord, iii. 143, 145
- Syed, Ali Nabi, President of Anjuman Islamia, ii. 335
- Synge, Colonel, i. 84
- Syracusan expedition of Nicias, iii. 131
- Syria, Anglo-French difference over, iii. 265
 separation from Turkish domination, iii. 262
- Szechuan, ii. 201
 and Rangoon, railway connection between, unnecessary in opinion of Lord Curzon, ii. 202, 203
- TAJ, the, beauty of, i. 64
 George Curzon's intense admiration for, i. 128 tomb at, lamps of, ii. 333, 334 installation of lamp at, ii. 336
- "Tales of Travel," researches on Vocal Memnon published in, i. 83
- Talienwan, occupation of, by Russia, i. 281
- Talykdars of Oudh, Durbar held at Lucknow to (1899), ii. 92, 93
- Tarif Reform, campaign of Mr. Chamberlain, iii. 23 question of India must be taken account of in, iii. 23, 24 motives inducing Lord Curzon's later advocacy of, iii. 54 party, complaint of Lord Curzon against, iii. 25 propaganda, effect on Unionist party, iii. 21
- Tatham, E. H. R., i. 55
- Tatham, M. T., contribution to Out of School at Eton, i. 32
- Tattershall Castle, Lincolnshire, acquisition of, iii. 74

INDEX

- Tattershall Castle, Lincolnshire, presented to nation, iii. 75
 visit to, iii. 370
- Taxation, British, immense increase of, in consequence of unemployment, iii. 363
 Indian, reduction in, definite pronouncement much needed, 241, 242 reduction of, by Lord Curzon, ii. 283 foreshadowing of in Viceroy's Durbar speech permitted, ii. 243 not considered desirable, ii. 209 remission of, ii. 223, 224
- Taxpayers, Indian, relief to, ii. 368
- Technical education in India, ii. 185 optimistic expectations as to, ii. 186 reform in advocated, ii. 187
- Telegrams, Foreign, Protection Bill, withdrawal from Legislative Council, ii. 105, 106
- Tel el Kebir, battle of, i. 96 battlefield of, i. 79
- Temperance Bill, iii. 54
- Temple of Denderah, i. 82 of Edfou, magnificence of, i. 82
- Temples of Tokio, i. 121
- Tennyson, Lord, admiration of, i. 184
 "Conservatism of," article on, i. 99
 visit to, i. 171
- Terai Jungle, situation of, ii. 115
- Territorial Army, Lord Curzon's opinion of, iii. 117
- Theosophists, credulity of, i. 127
- Theosophy, impressions regarding, i. 127
- Thibaw, King, Throne Room and Audience Hall at Mandalay, ii. 201
- Thrace, Eastern, question of Turkish occupation of, compromise as to, iii. 311
- Three acres and a cow Amendment, division on, causing fall of Conservative Administration (1885-86), i. 104
- Thucydides, i. 75
- Tiberius, Emperor, i. 97, 98
- Tibet, attitude of British Government regarding, ii. 273 Cabinet fears of, ii. 344 concessions to, in Anglo-Russian Agreement, iii. 43 difficulties with, ii. 272-280 proposal of conference to settle, ii. 274-280 fighting in, ii. 345 frontier of, political and strategical importance to India as compared with Russia, ii. 274 progress of Mission to, ii. 280 proposals to, ii. 345-346 repeated violation by, of existing treaties, ii. 274
   Russia, China and, secret understanding between, ii. 273
   Russian activity in, ii. 272 and Great Britain, Convention between, ii. 346 and Russia, secret emissaries between, ii. 205 and Sikhim, frontier between, Agreement regulating, ii. 204
   broken by Tibetans, ii. 204, 205
   strained relations between, ii. 37
- Tibetans, contempt for British Government, ii. 205
- Tiger, death of shikari from sudden onslaught of, ii. 211
- Tigers shot by Lord Curzon, ii. 167
- Tlak, Mr. Bal Gangadhar, trial of, i. 292
- Times*, The, and compulsion in War, iii. 136 and George Curzon, i. 281, 282, 288
 and Lord Curzon's speech at Guildhall, ii. 341 comment on resignation of Lord Curzon as Viceroy, ii. 388 comments on Lord Curzon's speech at Legislative Council at Calcutta, ii. 282 letter to, about Globe Room, iii. 81 from Lord Curzon on government in India, iii. 37, 38
 Lord Curzon on South African Union in, iii. 49
 Lord Curzon's description of Falls of Zambesi in, iii. 48 on creation of North West Frontier Province, ii. 135
 on decisions regarding Khyber Pass, ii. 42
 on George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 303, 303, 318 on Lord Kitchener's memorandum and Lord Curzon's rejoinder, ii. 409
 Mr. Brodrick's treatment of Lord Curzon, ii. 405 on "Russia in Central Asia in 1889," i. 14)

INDEX

- on Scheme for Reform of House of Lords, i. 139 satisfaction expressed by regarding action in Muscat crisis, ii. 46
- Times of India*, commendation of Viceroy's addresses on principles of government administration, ii. 150
 on decisions regarding Khyber Pass, ii. 42
- Tinnevely District, outbreaks in, no information to central Government, ii. 59
- Ti, Queen of, sculptures on wall of sepulchral chamber of, i. 81
- Tirah Campaign, i. 292
- Todros Badir, manufacturer of sacred lamp, ii. 334
- Tokio, impressions of, i. 120 inhabitants of, courtesy of manners shown by, i. 121
 in state of nature, i. 120 temples of, i. 121
- Trade Agreement with Soviet Russia, Lord Curzon's disapproval of, iii. 239
- Transcaspia, British withdrawal from, iii. 264, 265
- Trans-Indus Districts, separation from Punjab, ii. 131
- Trans-Persian railway, construction advised against by Lord Curzon, iii. 155
- Transvaal, English anxiety regarding, not comprehended by Lord Curzon, ii. 67 loss of, i. 95
- Treaties and Agreements, additional, with Hyderabad, ii. 215
- Treaty of Guarantee, promise of, to France, iii. 288
- of Peace with Turkey, failure of, iii. 341 results of, iii. 342, 343
 signing of, iii. 342 difficulties preceding, iii. 341, 342
- of Sèvres, iii. 259-274 respecting Berar districts, ii. 234 amendment in, 1860, ii. 215, 218 circumstances leading to, ii. 215 with Hyderabad (1866), outcome of joint action against the French, ii. 214
- Tribal levies, reorganization of, ii. 42, 43
- Trichinopoly, Dravidian temples at, ii. 145 rock of, i. 127
- Trippel, Sir Francis, iii. 74
- Turkey, boundaries of, settled by Treaty of Peace, iii. 342 minorities in, protection of, by tribunal of League of Nations, iii. 342 restoration of Baghdad to, impossible, iii. 160
 Sultan of, deposition of, iii. 324 territories to be restored to, under Franklin-Bouillon Agreement, iii. 277 Treaty with, details filled in by Conference of Ambassadors, iii. 271 final form, where debated and decided, iii. 271 principles laid down at meeting of Supreme Council, iii. 271 Treaty of Peace with, see above under Treaty
- and Greece, Peace between, Conference to promote, failure of, iii. 273
- Turkish and Greek forces, indecisive battles between, in Asia Minor (1921), iii. 278, 279
 Lord Curzon's efforts to prevent outbreaks of hostility between, iii. 306
- Turkish Dominions in Asia Minor, advance of Italian and Greek forces in, iii. 266, 267
- Turkish Government, at Angora, separate negotiations and agreements with representatives of French and Italian Governments, iii. 275
 real centre of, iii. 273
- Turkish Governments, both, visit of representatives from, to discuss question of peace between Greece and Turkey, iii. 273
- Turkish misrule of Mesopotamia, iii. 161
- Turkish nationalism, uprising in favour of, iii. 269
- Turkish State, establishment in Asia, with exclusion of Turks from Europe, policy of, iii. 262
- Turkish troops, Greek forces driven from Asia Minor by, iii. 299

INDEX

- Turkish troops, not to invade demilitarised zones on Asiatic side of Dardanelles, iii. 300
 under Mustapha Kemal, inroads into neutral zone, steps taken to prevent, iii. 300
- Turks, Asiatic territories of, encroachment of Italy and Greece on, iii. 266 ejection from Europe, Lord Curzon's policy as to, defeated, iii. 270 heavy defeat of French by, in Cilicia, iii. 272 insurrection among, rapid progress under Mustapha Kemal, iii. 272
 position of, at Peace Conference at Lausanne, iii. 324 ravages by, in Palestine, iii. 157 request for occupation of Eastern Thrace, iii. 311 struggle with, at Peace Conference at Lausanne, iii. 328, 329 victorious, massacres by, iii. 272
- Turks and Greeks, in Asia Minor, attempt to procure mediation between, by Lord Curzon (June, 1921), iii. 278
- Turks and the League of Nations, iii. 329
- Tweed, John, portrait medallion of Lord Clive by, iii. 63
- UGANDA Railway, i. 238, 239
 Lord Curzon's defence of, i. 258
- Ukraine, ejection of French and Greeks from (1919), iii. 264
- Ulster, proposed coercion under Home Rule, iii. 181 threatened resistance to rule of an Irish Parliament, iii. 178, 179
- Under Secretary for India, George Curzon as, 1891-1893, i. 154, 187 success as, i. 190
- Under Secretaryship for Foreign Affairs, limitations of, i. 241 for India, appointment, i. 154
- Unemployment in Great Britain following Armistice, iii. 363 rapid increase in the United Kingdom during 1921, iii. 293
- Union Debating Society, Jubilee Banquet of, Lord Curzon's speech at, iii. 110
- Unionist Party, conference of members summoned by Lord Curzon with regard to Home Rule crisis, iii. 184, 185 policy of, effect of General Election (Jan. 1910) on, iii. 52 profound shock to, due to Tariff Reform propaganda, iii. 21
- Unionists, return of, at General Election, (Nov. 1922), iii. 321
- United Kingdom, rapid increase of Unemployment in, during 1921, iii. 293 stability of, endangered by economic stagnation of Continent, iii. 293
- United States Government, withdrawal from participation in settlement of Near and Middle East question, iii. 269
- Universities, Royal Commission on, iii. 109 Statutory Commission on, iii. 109
 Indian, "cramming" progress main feature of, ii. 187, 188 establishment of, ordained (1854), ii. 185 modelled on University of London, ii. 187, 188 purely examining bodies, ii. 187, 188 reconstruction of, ii. 291 small number of students graduating from, ii. 188
- Universities Bill (Indian) passing of, ii. 193
- University Commission, postponement of, decided on by Prime Minister (Mr. Asquith), iii. 107, 108 promotion of, iii. 98 proposals for, threatened, iii. 96
 (1877) absorption of public halls in Colleges at Oxford decreed by, iii. 113
- University Museum, Oxford, Lord Curzon's comments on, iii. 101
- University Reform at Oxford, Lord Curzon's Memorandum of, iii. 103, 104 principles and methods of, iii. 51 reception in the Press and at Oxford, iii. 103, 104
- Unknown Warrior, burial of, iii. 201
- Upadana, signification of word in Buddhist metaphysics, iii. 383
- "VALLEY OF THE WATERFALLS," contribution to Macmillan's Magazine, July 1888, i. 119
- Vanity Fair*, description of Curzon as Parliamentary speaker, in, i. 115
- Vansittart, Mr., iii. 235

INDEX

- Venezilos, M., iii. 265
 arrives in London as envoy of new Greek government, iii. 305
- Venezuela affair, handling of, by Lord Salisbury, ii. 206
- Verawal, ii. 144
- Vereniging, declaration of Peace after South African War signed at, ii. 239
- Vice-Chancellor of University, duties and powers of, iii. 92
- Viceroy of India, George Curzon's appointment to, i. 294
   congratulations, i. 305 press comments, i. 294, 295, 296
   ideal of, put forward by Westminster Gazette, i. 296; ii. 41
See also under Curzon of Kedleston, Marquess (Viceroyalty of India)
- Victoria, Queen, approval of Lord Curzon's scheme for recruiting Imperial Cadet Corps from Indian aristocracy, ii. 126
 death of, ii. 153, 222
   reception of news in India, ii. 155 influence of personality of, upon Eastern races, ii. 155 last letter to Lord Curzon, ii. 155 reign of, Lord Curzon's scheme for commemorating, ii. 156 visit to, at Balmoral, i. 313
- Victoria Falls, iii. 48
- Victoria Memorial Hall, Calcutta, ii. 155-162, 255; iii. 61 construction of, appointment of architect for, ii. 161 subscriptions towards expenses of, ii. 162 design of, suggested by Lord Curzon, ii. 161 erection of, ii. 221
   address of Viceroy promoting scheme for, ii. 157 formal opening by H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, ii. 160, 162 inception of, due to Lord Curzon, ii. 160
 interest in, iii. 67
 site selected for, ii. 156
- Vincent, Sir Edgal (Lord d'Abernon), letter to George Curzon, i. 309, 310
 "Voice of Mankind," contribution to, Edinburgh Review, July 1886, i. 117
- Vossug-ed-Dowleh, iii. 217
 resignation of, iii. 221
- "WAIFS AND STRAYS," poem contributed to, expressing reverence for the past, ii. 96
 song written by George Curzon for, i. 41, 42
- Wakeman, Sir Offley, iii. 62
- Wales, H. R. H. the Prince, formal opening of the Victoria Memorial Hall by (1921), ii. 160, 162
- Wales, T.R.H. Prince and Princess of (now King George V and Queen Mary), welcome of, to India, by Lord Curzon, ii. 390
- Wales, comparison with Palestine in extent of size and population, iii. 157
- Walmer Castle, ii. 341 and Lord Warden's story of, iii. 76 insanitary condition of, ii. 342
 occupancy of, iii. 76
- Walton, J. Lawson, frontier policy of, i. 299
- War Cabinet, Committee of, members of, iii. 152
 Lord Curzon, member of, iii. 141 plans for more vigorous prosecution of the war discussed by, iii. 151 number of meetings held by (1916-1918), iii. 148
- War Committee, duties of, iii. 129
- "War Poems and other Translations" (1915), i. 117 quoted, iii. 32, 123
- War services, Indian, political remuneration for, to be discarded, iii. 163
 reward by grant of commissions to Indian officers, iii. 163
- Ward, Arnold, M.P., iii. 191
- Ward, Mrs. Humphry, connection with Anti-suffrage League, iii. 192 letter to Lord Curzon, on his abstention from voting against Women's Suffrage, iii. 194
- Wardle, Henry, M.P., i. 67
- Warner, Sir T. Courtenay, and George Curzon's appointment as Viceroy, i. 305
- Warren, Sir Herbert, iii. 45 letter from, on Lord Curzon's appointment as Foreign Secretary, iii. 205
 Lord Curzon as Chancellor of Oxford University (1907-1925), Chapter VI, iii. 89-116
- Was, party of, attack on Anglo-Chinese Frontier Commission, ii. 111

INDEX

- Was, party of, threats of, Lord Curzon's fears of, iii. 118
- Washington Conference, issue of, causing humiliation to France, iii. 280
- Watt, Sir G., work of, ii. 338
- Waziri levies, lawlessness of, ii. 42
- Wedderburn, Sir William, letter to, from Viceroy regarding the Congress, ii. 151, 152
- Weigall, Sir Archibald, M.P., i. ii. 75
- Wei-hai-Wei, acceptance by British Cabinet of Lord Curzon's views expressed in time of Lord Salisbury's administration, ii. 277
- occupation of, i. 284, 285
- value of, to English in Boxer Rebellion, i. 286
- Wellton, Rev. J. E. C., i. 70, 118
- appointed Bishop of Calcutta, i. 315
- contemporary with Lord Curzon at Eton, i. 21
- Wellesley, Lord, i. 307
- celebration of Peace of Amiens (1803) by Ball in Government House, Calcutta, ii. 255
- impersonation by Lord Curzon at Fancy Dress Ball at Centenary of Government House, Calcutta, ii. 256
- motive for love of display in, reproduced in Lord Curzon, ii. 256
- Wellington, Duke of, former Chancellor of Oxford University, iii. 90
- Westland, Sir J., report on counter-vailing duties on sugar imported into India, ii. 31, 32
- Westminster Abbey, funeral service of Lord Curzon in, iii. 380
- Westminster Gazette*, ideal as to Viceroy of India put forward by, ii. 41
- Weymouth, Viscount, i. 114
- Wheeler, Stephen, account of Tea Durbar by, ii. 225
- William II, German Emperor, ambitious projects of, regarding the East, iii. 209, 210
- Whitot, Sir H., i. 92
- Wilson, Field-Marshal Sir H., iii. 200
- assassination of, iii. 234
- Lord Curzon's regard for, iii. 234
- summoned to Spa Conference, iii. 234
- Wilson, W. Woodrow, President U.S.A., and the League of Nations, iii. 261
- Wingate, Sir Reginald, iii. 245
- Wingless Victory, temple of, missing panels of, frieze of, ii. 96
- restoration to Athens of missing panels of frieze, i. 77
- Wisn, B. R., i. 46
- Wixenford, early school life of Lord Curzon at, i. 18
- Wolmer, Lord, succession to peerage, discussion in House of Commons relating to, i. 228-233
- Wolseley, Sir Garnet (Lord Wolseley), i. 79; iii. 47
- good fortune of, in warfare, i. 79
- Women, clause conferring Parliamentary franchise on, in Representation of People Bill, iii. 190
- emancipation of, views on, i. 194-5
- enfranchisement, Lord Curzon's views on, i. 49
- Women's Suffrage, opposition to, from Lord Curzon, iii. 190-194
- nullified by his 'abstention from voting, iii. 192, 193
- Woodburn, Sir John, Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, ii. 28, 29
- Working classes, views of, as to participation in Oxford University education, iii. 107
- Workers' Educational Association, recognition by Oxford University, iii. 100
- Writing, Lord Curzon's love of, i. 176
- Wyndham, Rt. Hon. George, obituary tribute to, from Lord Curzon, iii. 385
- YANGTZE valley, communication with British India by rail, plan impracticable, ii. 202
- Yellowstone Park, natural wonders of, i. 118, 119
- Yellowstone River, Grand Canyon of, i. 118, 119
- Yerburgh, Mr., leader of Pigtail Committee, i. 287
- Yokohama, impressions of, i. 120
- Yosemite Valley, article on ("Valley of the Waterfalls"), i. 119
- visit to, i. 119
- Young, Sir Mackworth, Lieutenant Governor of Punjab, ii. 35
- break in Viceroy's relations with, ii. 170, 171
- correspondence of Viceroy with, regarding creation of North West Frontier Province, ii. 136, 137

INDEX

- injudicious speech of, ii. 139
reply to Viceroy regarding creation of North West Frontier Province,
ii. 136, 137
strained relations with Viceroy, ii.
136, 137, 138
- Younger, Sir George, iii. 312, frustration of an immediate General Election by, iii. 294
- Youngusband, Col. Sir F. E., iii. 43 arrival at Gyantze, ii. 280
- mission of, into Tibet, ii. 355 to Gyantze, ii. 345
- ZAGLUL PASHA, demand for independence in Egypt (1919), iii. 245 release of, iii. 245, 246 temporary deportation of, iii. 245 visit to London to discuss points at issue between Great Britain and Egypt, iii. 246
- Zambesi, Falls of, Lord Curzon's description of in The Times, iii. 48