

Miscellaneous

My brother was kicked because he was wicked in the seat of his pants.

She was a lion in front and a dragon in the rear.

When he (Bismarck) died his brains were examined and he proved to have been the most intellectual man of his time.—L. E. E.

Our forefathers are not living as long as they did.

The serfs were attached to the soil and when it moved, they moved with it.—J.

Seafaring men in the habit of drinking are liable to collide with other vessels.

Queen Victoria said "we are not much amused" when she went to the pantomime with Prince Consort.

A deacon is a mass of inflammable material placed in a prominent position to warn the people.

Writ of Habeas Corpus means a man is not allowed to commit adultery without permission of the court.—HIGH SCHOOL OF COMMERCE, SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

Letters in sloping type are in hysterics.

When a lady and a gentleman are walking on the foot-path the lady should walk inside the gentleman.

Lord Mayors of London are famous city men who are generally benighted.

The Prince of Wales uses a different title when he travels in the Congo.

The shop windows looked very gay; lump sugar, granulated, and castor were arranged in different coloured bowls according to their sex.

All the crew were taken into custody.

The jockey lost two of his teeth when his horse fell, and had to be destroyed.

The theory of exchange, as I understand it, is not very well understood.

The Pilgrim Fathers were Adam and Eve.

The most interesting feature of the zoo was the largest ape in capacity.

M. Poincaré is known by his saying "Every day and in every way I get it better and better."

Where are the Kings of England crowned?
On their heads.

Queen Elizabeth was a vurgin queen, and she was never marrid. She was so fond of dresses that she was never seen without one on. She was beautefull and clever with a red hed and freckles.

Henry said, "Beware of the Brides of March."

During the Napoleonic Wars crowned heads were trembling in their shoes.

Teacher's dictation: "His choler rose to such a height that passion well nigh choked him."

Pupil's reproduction: "His collar rose to such a height that fashion well nigh choked him."

The wife of a duke is a ducky.

When we got there our trunk hadn't arrived, so we had to sleep in something else.

Socrates died from an overdose of wedlock.

False doctrine means giving people the wrong medicine.

Her mother, being immortal, had died.

Always choose a good neighbour, and if you are lucky enough to get a bath, have it at once.

There are only two crimes visited with capital punishment, murder and suicide.

Everybody needs a holiday from one year's end to another.

The Press today is the mouth-organ of the people.

Big Bill Thompson is America's Mustard King.—ENGLISH.

The King was crowned in the Crystal Palace with his sepulchre in his hand.

The first man who went to the Crusades was Robinson Crusoe.

Lord Bacon was impeached for deceiving brides.

The Emperor of Japan is called the Mikado, but no one has seen him since the Middle Ages.

In the United States people are put to death by elocution.

A democracy believes in God and a republic doesn't.

The form of government most commonly used in the cities is keep to the right.

One argument for the abolition of the jury system is that it costs too much to buy chairs and to hire a room for them.

Certainly the pleasures of youth are great, but they are nothing to the pleasures of adultery.

A man who marries twice commits bigotry.

Most bulls are harmless, but cows stare horribly.

A phlegmatic person is one who has chronic bronchitis.

The different kinds of senses are common-sense and nonsense.