

INDEX

- Adair, Serjeant, 318
 Adair, Sir Robert, letter of, relating to honours bestowed on Fox in France, 327
 Adam, Mr., principal agent in effecting reconciliation between Fox and North, 236
 Adam, Robert and James, works on architecture, 91
 — William, and Charles Fox, 187, 188, 189
 Addington, Lord, becomes Prime Minister, 344
 — — incompetent conduct of the war, 352
 — — resignation of, 354
 Admiralty, vote of censure against, moved by Fox, 180, 181
 Adolphus Frederic, Duke of Cambridge, birth of, 88
 Almack's Club, patron of, 22
 America, independence of, acknowledgment by British government, 223
 — — recognition of, in King's speech, 228
 — negotiations for treaty for peace with, 223
 — trading with, Bill prohibiting, passed, 136, 137
 American colonists and British government, hostility between, 100
 — — beginning national unity among, 102
 American colonists, case for, in Parliament stated by Whig opposition, 145, 146
 — — conciliation of, North's plan for, 169
 — — declared rebels by Royal Proclamation (1775), 130
 — — oppressive laws passed against, 146, 147
 — Indians and French, alliance of, with Mother Country, 99
 — — cruelty of New Englanders to, 99
 — — treatment of, by European nations, 98
 — privateers' attempt on Portsmouth Dockyards nearly successful, 163
 — Revolution (1775-1777), 130-158
 — Secretaryship, ill-choice of Lord George Germaine for, 164
 — States, Bill enjoining restriction of traffic to Great Britain and British West Indies, 114, 115
 — War, advantage of British in field in, how long continued, 140, 141
 — — becomes a world-wide conflict, 173
 — — cessation of, Fox's desire for, 139, 140
 American War, condemnation of, by Fox, 183
 — — conduct of, financial proposals for, Fox's opposition to, 141, 142
 — — — — mismanagement and deception in, 139
 — — disastrous action of government in, 182
 — — failure of, 169
 — — ill-conduct of, by Lord North, Fox's desire for exposure of, 140
 — — ill-success in, Fox's motion for inquiry into, defeated, 139
 — — no reference to, in King's speech (November, 1778), 186, 187
 — — unpopularity of, 130
 Americans, Acts of Parliament obnoxious to, motion for revision of, defeated, 150, 151
 — — — — government's offer to repeal, valueless, 150
 — — attitude of, regarding Stamp Act, 101
 — — despatch of Commissioner with powers to treat with, 149
 — — reverses in Canada and Long Island, 143, 145
 — — Royal Declaration offering to discuss terms of peace with, 149
 — — treatment of, by government, Chatham's denunciation of, 157
Anti-Jacobin attacks on Fox, 369
 Anti-popery in England, 196
 Armistead, Mrs., 286, 287
 — — confidante of Prince of Wales in his infatuation for Mrs. Fitzherbert, 264
 — — death of, 287
 — — devotion of, to Charles Fox, 277
 — — diary of, 281-287
 — — early history of, 276, 277
 — — personal attractions of, 277
 Arne, Thomas, composer of "Rule, Britannia," 90
 Association of Friends of the People, 296
 Augusta of Saxe-Gotha, influence of, on George III., 40, 41, 42
 — — widow of Frederic, Prince of Wales, 32
 Barnard, Dr., headmaster at Eton, 16
 Bastille, fall of, 289
 Beauclerk, Topham, 23
 Bedford, Duke of, Fox's panegyric on death of, 345
 "Beggars' Opera" and Lord Sandwich, 54
 Belcher, Henry, "First American Civil War," severe criticism of Charles Fox in, 126, 127
 Bets book at Brooks, entries relating to Charles Fox, 192

- Birmingham Riots, 299
 Blake, William, 93
 Bloomfield, Robert, patronised by Duke of Grafton, 134
 Boston, evacuation of British troops from, by Washington, 140, 142
 Boston Port Act, 103
 Boswell, James, 92, 93
 Brest, indecisive action of English and French fleets off, 175
 Brougham, nature of Lord, on Fox, 194, 195
 Brown, Lancelot ("Capability"), letter to Lord Sandwich relating to Charles Fox, 287
 Bunker's Hill, battle of, 131
 Buonaparte, Napoleon, 96
 Burgoyne, General, 189, 202
 ——— surrender at Saratoga (1777), 140, 164, 166
 Burke, Edmund, 59, 62, 166, 189, 200
 ——— advice to Fox on his course as a politician, 160
 ——— advocacy of claims of American colonists, 103
 ——— great speech on, 107, 110
 ——— and Charles Fox, debate between, on Marriage Bill, 94, 95
 ——— disagreement between, in relation to French Revolution, 292, 293
 ——— relations between, 290, 291
 ——— warm personal friendship between, 91, 124
 ——— final breach between, 295
 ——— and impeachment of Warren Hastings, 271
 ——— and "Present Discontents," 49
 ——— attitude of, towards Bill relating to dissenting clergy and Thirty-nine Articles, 73
 ——— towards French Revolution, 291
 ——— celebrated oration showing plan for conciliation with America, 117-120
 ——— complimentary allusions to Charles Fox, 292
 ——— death of (1797), 295
 ——— Economy Bill of, 203
 ——— elected for Malton, 202
 ——— explains reasons for success of Tories, 159, 160
 ——— exposition of Whig policy in letter to Fox, 159
 ——— first meeting with Fox, 18, 19
 ——— hostility of, towards English Whigs, 295
 ——— induces Earl of Ossory and his brother to abandon support of government, 136
 ——— introduction of plan for economical reform, 189
 Burke, Edmund, "Letter from Duke of Richmond," 136
 ——— to Charles Fox, 269
 ——— to, from Charles Fox, 124
 ——— to Lord Rockingham on course of business to be taken by opposition, 135
 ——— letters on a Regicide Peace, 314
 ——— on American taxation, 107
 ——— on attitude of George III. (1775), 130
 ——— of Lord North (1775), 130
 ——— on Gordon Riots, 198
 ——— on justice to America, 106
 ——— oration on Begums of Oude, 273
 ——— praise of Charles Fox in Indian debates, 290, 291
 ——— Fox's oration on condemnation of government's American policy 148
 ——— reflections on the Revolution in France, 293
 ——— retirement of, from House of Commons on question of French Revolution, 295
 ——— taxation of Americans,
 ——— Thoughts on the Cause of the Present Discontent, 64
 Burns, Robert, 320
 Bute, Lord, friendship of, with George III., 47-48
 ——— odium of, 45
 ——— supervision of George III.'s education by, 32
 ——— unpopularity of, 49
 Byron, Lord, 23, 353
 Cambridge, University of, Chancellorship of Duke of Grafton, 134
 ——— return of Pitt as Member for, 257
 Campbell, Thomas, and Charles Fox, 330, 331
 Canada, American invasion of, unsuccessful, 143
 Canning, George, 353, 369
 ——— Stratford, on personal appearance of Charles Fox, 339
 Carolinas (States), institution of negro slavery by, 99
 Caroline of Brunswick, marriage of George, Prince of Wales, to, 267
 Castlereagh, Lord, 353
 ——— relief, question of, leading to Pitt's resignation (February, 1801), 344
 Cavendish, Lord John, amendment concerning conduct of American War (October 26, 1775), 132
 ——— motion by, that cessions to France were unjustified, carried (February 17, 1783), 229
 ——— motion for revival of Acts of Parliament obnoxious to Americans defeated, 150, 151

- Charles I., arbitrary kingship of, 30
 Charles II. and Louise de Keroualle ancestors of Charles James Fox, 13
 — character of third Duke of Grafton compared by "Junius" with that of,
 133
 — estimate of character of, by Lauderdale, 163
 Charlotte, Queen, characteristics of, 38-40
 Chatham, Earl of, 45, 62, 166
 — denunciation of American policy and treatment of the Americans, 157
 — funeral of, ignored by the Court,
 173
 — hatred of injustice towards
 America, 102
 — last illness and death of, 172,
 173
 — on John Luttrell as Member of Parliament, 57
 — on justice for America, 106
 — policy of, 31
 — powerful rhetoric of, 96
 — resignation of, causes, 45
 — Wilkes, a political friend of, 49
 Chatterton, death of, 92
 Chaucer, Geoffrey, Charles Fox's praise of, 320
 Chelsea Hospital, foundation of, 13
 Chesterfield, Lord, letter to Sandwich,
 238
 — and political corruption, 14
 Class distinction in times of Charles Fox,
 23, 24
 Clive, Lord, Charles Fox's insult to, 80
 — conduct of, in India, denouncement
 of, by Charles Fox, 79
 Coalition Government, defeat of, 250
 — Ministry, members of, 236
 — new proposals for, 176
 Coke, Lady Mary, on callousness of
 Charles Fox at time of parents' death,
 109
 — of Norfolk, action of, in regard to
 Mrs. Armistead, 280
 — regret at death of Fox, 368
 Coleridge, Samuel Taylor, birth of, 92
 — criticism of Charles Fox's political life, 326, 327
 — letter of, to Southey relating to
 Charles Fox, 328
 Concord, loss of British prestige at, 123
 Congress of Colonies, two famous delegates of, 103
 Constable, John, 91
 Convention, French, decree of, effect of,
 in England, 298, 299
 Cornwallis, Lord, surrender of, to Washington, 209
 Cotman, John Sell, 91
 Cowper, William, 92
 Cox, David, 358
 Cozens, Alexander, 91
 — John Robert, 91
 Crabbe, George, 93
 — Charles Fox's acquaintance with,
 328
 Crewe, Lady, 257
 Cromwell, effect of memory of, on
 English people, 30
 Cumberland, Duke of, bad influence of,
 on Prince of Wales, 216
 — ferocity of, at Culloden, 38
 — increase of income of, support
 by Fox of motion for, 156
 Cunningham, Rev. Peter, *Saint Anne's
 Hill: a Poem*, 275
 Dashwood, Sir Francis, John Wilkes' grievance against, 48, 50
 Declaration of Independence, circumstances under which drafted, 142, 143
 — issue of, by representatives of
 United States of America, 142, 143
 Devonshire, Duchess of, action of, in relation to affair of George, Prince of Wales, and Mrs. Fitzherbert, 263
 — assistance to Fox in his candidate, 256
 — Duke of, visit of Fox to, 159
 Dodd, Dr., 93, 94
 Donne, William Bodham, 25
 Dryden, John, Charles Fox's criticism of,
 320
 du Deffand, Madame, 152, 153
 Dudley, Lord, 242
 Dunning, John, motion for diminution of influence of the Crown carried, 190
 Durand, Mr., 240
 East India Bills, 239, 240
 — brief quotations from Fox's speeches on, 245, 246
 — defeat in House of Lords, 256
 — disliked by the King, 246
 — passed in House of Commons,
 241
 — Company, 239
 — deplorable state of, 244
 Economy Bill, 203
Essay on Woman (John Wilkes), 53
 Eton, Charles Fox's education at, 15,
 16
 Exeter, Earl of, letter from, to Lord
 Sandwich, 242
 Fitzherbert, Mrs., Charles Fox involved in affair of, 261
 — infatuation of George, Prince of Wales, for, 263
 — private marriage of, to George,
 Prince of Wales, 266
 — return of, to George, Prince of Wales, 267

- Fitzherbert, Mrs., ruse played upon, by George, Prince of Wales, 263
- separation of, from George, Prince of Wales, 267
- two marriages of, 262
- Fitzmaurice, Lord, condemnation of coalition between Fox and North, 232
- Fitzpatrick, Richard, letters of Charles Fox to, 185, 186, 215, 221, 270, 289
- Richard, induced by Burke to abandon support of government, 136
- Fletcher, C. L., unjust accusations against patriotism of Fox, 183
- Foete and George III., 39
- Fortescue, Sir John, 355
- Fox, Charles James, abandonment rather than conquest of America urged by, 148
- adopted future candidate for Westminster, 189
- advice from Burke on his course as a politician, 160
- again returned as Member for Westminster, 255, 257
- allowance proposed for Prince of Wales by, 236
- ancestry of, 13
- annuity to be paid to, in recognition of public services, 318
- and Mrs. Armistead, confidants of Prince of Wales in his infatuation for Mrs. Fitzherbert, 264
- announcement in Parliament of signature of Treaty between France and United States, 169
- antagonism to George III., 44
- appointed Junior Lord of the Admiralty, 60
- ardent supporters of, 308
- arguments against renewal of the war, 350
- assisted in his candidature by Duchess of Devonshire, 256
- as sportsman, anecdotes relating to, 192-194
- attack on Lord George Germaine, 164
- attitude with regard to Catholic emancipation, 360
- becomes known as Tribune of the People, 162
- becomes M.P. for Midhurst, 26
- becomes acknowledged leader of Opposition in House of Commons, 180
- becomes Secretary of State in Ministry of All the Talents (1806), 358, 359
- boyhood of, anecdotes of, 15
- brief quotations from speeches on East India Bills, 245, 247
- causes of failure in office, 260
- censure of behaviour of Mr. William Adam, 187
- Fox, Charles James, characteristics of, as Secretary of State, 219, 220
- character of, attacked by Shelburne in report to the King, 227
- misunderstood by Madame du Deffand, 152, 153.
- classical studies of, 334
- coalition with North, 231, 232
- reasons—discussed and explained, 231, 232, 233
- complaint as to omission in King's speech (November, 1778) of reference to American War, 186, 187
- complimentary allusions to Edmund Burke, 292
- condemnation of action of Lord Sandwich by, 180, 181
- of George III., 210
- of government for disastrous action in American War, 181, 182
- of North in debate on Address (October 26, 1775), 132
- of policy of carrying on war by Acts of Parliament, 136, 137
- of Warren Hastings, 244
- of the American War, 183
- contest in Parliament with Pitt, 254
- correspondence of, with his nephew, Henry Richard Vassal Fox, 319
- daily life of, at St. Anne's Hill, 339
- dandyism of, 21
- date of birth, 13
- death of, extraordinary reflections on, by George Rose (September, 1806), 366, 367, 369
- defence of doctrine of sovereignty of the people, 341
- delivery up of Seals by, 250, 251
- demand for annual parliaments, 190
- denial in House of Commons of marriage between George, Prince of Wales, and Mrs. Fitzherbert, 266
- denounces scrutiny of poll for Westminster, 259
- denunciation of Ministry for repudiating their obligations to Lord Paget, Governor of Madras, 156
- description of Monmouth in his History of James II. quoted, 348
- desire for cessation of the war, 139, 140
- devotion of his wife to, during his closing days, 366, 367
- of, to Mrs. Armistead, 278, 279
- dinner to, at Whig Club (February 24, 1798), 341
- disdain of political corruption, 26

- Fox, Charles James, dissolute private life of, 127
- — — doubt expressed by Burke as to his obtaining interior Court favour, 161
- — — declines to serve under Shelburne, 223, 224
- — — employed in conduct of foreign affairs (summer of 1783), 242, 243
- — — enlargement of Whig doctrine by, 163
- — — entry into formal association with Rockingham party, 180
- — — exposure of mismanagement and deception in conduct of the war, 139
- — — fearlessness of, 388
- — — finally allowed to sit for Westminster, 259
- — — financial ability of, 245
- — — — straits of, 205, 206
- — — first great English Liberal, 161, 162
- — — foreign policy of, 222
- — — gambling debts of, 22
- — — generosity to Pitt, 225
- — — George III.'s opinion of, strongly expressed in letter to North, 234
- — — governing motives of, as Secretary of State, 359
- — — growing intimacy with the Prince of Wales, 226
- — — preference for liberal measures, 77
- — — impression made on Horace Walpole by, 58, 59, 71
- — — industry of, as Secretary of State, 219
- — — insistence of immediate declaration of independence of America opposed by Shelburne, 224
- — — integrity of his public life, 128
- — — interest in contemporary literature, 333
- — — justice of conflict between France and Spain maintained by, 184
- — — lack of parliamentary decorum in, towards Lord North, 115, 117
- — — last days of (1806), 363
- — — letter of, 17
- — — — of, at eight years of age, 335
- — — — of thanks for annuity, 318
- — — to George, Prince of Wales, in reference to proposed marriage to Mrs. Fitzherbert, 264, 265
- — — — to Lord Rockingham dissuading against abstention of Whigs from parliament, 144, 145
- — — — to Lord Rockingham dissuading him from taking office under divided authority, 176
- — — letters of, to his niece Caroline, 324, 325
- Fox, Charles James, letters of, to Lord Northampton, 248, 249
- — — — to Richard Fitzpatrick, 185, 186
- — — — life in retirement at St. Anne's Hill, 317, 319
- — — — literary studies of, 317
- — — — loss of office, 86
- — — — love of country, 307
- — — — — of, for his nephew, 319, 321, 322
- — — — loyalty shown to, by his supporters, 355
- — — — marriage of, to Mrs. Armistead, 280
- — — — married life of, 128
- — — — motion for An Enquiry into the State of the Nation, 165
- — — — for enquiry into causes of ill-success of the war defeated, 139
- — — — of vote of censure on Admiralty for neglect and duplicity, 130, 181
- — — — motive assigned by Pitt for his resignation of office, 226
- — — — Napoleon receives warning of danger of assassination from, 361
- — — — native generosity of, 336
- — — — noble characteristics of, 196
- — — — on Nullum Tempus Act in relation to the Duke of Portland, 71
- — — — on American taxation, 107, 110
- — — — on gross mismanagement of naval forces during war with America, 211
- — — — on qualities required in Indian governors, 271
- — — — opinion of George III., 21
- — — — opposition to financial proposals for the war, 141, 142
- — — — — to vote for public honours being accorded at Pitt's funeral, 357
- — — — oration against American policy of government, 147
- — — — oratorical powers of, 204
- — — — oratory of, 195
- — — — panegyric on death of Duke of Bedford, 345
- — — — party of, defeated at General Election (1784), 254
- — — — passionate Liberalism of, how distinguished from Whig temper, 162
- — — — patriotic courage of, 116
- — — — personal appearance of, 126, 338, 339
- — — — Pitt's motion for parliamentary reform supported by, 225
- — — — plan of plot for assassination of Napoleon divulged to, 361
- — — — political ability of, tributes to, 368, 369
- — — — position of, emphasised in letter from Duke of Richmond, 178, 179

- Fox, Charles James, powers of debate of, in support of George III.'s policy, 69, 70
- proposal for application for mediation of Russia in Anglo-French dispute supported by Pitt, 351, 352
 - question as to acceptance of American independence as permanent, 228
 - recognition of danger to State from Shelburne falling under influence of George III., 232, 233
 - reforms in India Bill soundly conceived by, 253
 - remarks on an application for relief of the King's debts, 155
 - on victory at Trafalgar and estimate of character of Nelson, 356
 - repudiation of his condemnation of North, 230, 231
 - resignation from office, 74
 - retirement to St. Anne's Hill (1798-1800), 343
 - returned for Midhurst, 55
 - return for Westminster celebrated by the Prince of Wales, 257
 - scholarship of, 17, 18
 - search of French Archives for material for History of James II., 347
 - secession from parliament and retirement into private life (1797-1800), 315, 316, 317, 341
 - severe attack on Shelburne in debate on the Address, 228
 - condemnation of places and emoluments held by North, 175
 - speech condemning mismanagement of the war, 167, 168
 - moving rejection of motion for accord of public honours at funeral of William Pitt, 371
 - on Buonaparte's proposals for peace, 343, 344
 - on Marriage Bill, 95
 - on the petition of the Colony of New York, 122
 - statement of, as to Duke of Grafton's attitude towards the government, 134, 135
 - states reasons for reconciliation with North, 230, 231
 - success of, in maiden efforts in House, 58, 59
 - successful opposition to Pitt's Irish trade policy, 261, 262
 - support of George III.'s policy, 69
 - of Grey's motion for Enquiry into the State of the Nation, 344
 - of motion for increasing incomes of the Dukes of Cumberland and Gloucester, 156
- Fox, Charles James, support of Pitt in measure for parliamentary reform (April, 1785), 261
- suspended from sitting for Westminster during scrutiny of poll, 258
 - temporarily elected for Orkney, 258
 - termination of public life of, 362
 - Toryism of, in early parliamentary career, 70, 71
 - tour abroad (1802), 345
 - unjust accusations of national disloyalty against, 183
 - unpopularity of, in regard to his views on French Revolutionary War, 314, 315
 - unsparing condemnation of conduct of Napoleon, 351
 - urges support of American colonists, 145
 - view of the French Revolution taken by, 183
 - vigorous attack on Bill suspending Habeas Corpus Act, 153, 154
 - visit to Duke of Devonshire, 159
 - to Ireland and meeting with Grattan, 159
 - to Paris and interview with Madame du Deffand, 151, 152
 - and meeting with Napoleon, 345, 346
 - withering comments on Royal Declaration offering to discuss peace, 149, 150, 151
 - work as Foreign Secretary, 222
 - worship of freedom for its own sake by, 163
 - and William Adam, duel between, 188
 - and Lord North, reconciliation of, principal agent in, 236
 - and William Pitt, causes of breach between, 225
 - and William Pitt, oratory in debate on renewal of the war compared, 351
 - points of agreement between, 260, 261
 - and the Prince of Wales, intimate relations between, 248
 - and the Regency, 270
 - and repeal of Catholic relief, 199
 - and Admiral Rodney elected for Westminster, 201
 - and Lord Sandwich, correspondence between, 239, 240, 241
 - and Lord Shelburne, conduct of foreign affairs jointly in hands of, 222
 - made Secretaries of State, 214
- Fox, Elizabeth. See Armistead, Mrs.

- Fox, Henry, corrupt practices of, in politics, 13, 14
 — family life of, 14
 — letter to, from Charles Fox relating to Mrs. Armistead, 278, 279
 — wealth of, 21
- Fox, Henry Richard Vassal, correspondence of, with Charles Fox, 319-322
- Fox, Stephen, biographical notes of, 13
- France, negotiation of peace with, by Fox, 222
 — preliminary treaties of peace signed with (January 20, 1783), 229
 — rejection of proposals to, made by British government, 350
 — termination of negotiations with, 362
 — threatened intervention in struggle in America, 147
 — unjustifiable cessions to, motion regarding, carried (February 17, 1783), 229
 — war with, 203
 — supported by Fox, 184
 — at time of French Revolution, 307
 — Charles Fox's views on, 309
 — renewed declaration of, 350
 — and England, American-French Treaty a declaration of war between, 171
 — and United States, treaty between, signature of, 169, 170
- Francis, Philip, author of Junius, 308
- Franklin, Benjamin, 222, 224
 — appearance of, in Paris, 163
 — letter to Edmund Burke on outbreak of war with America, 122
 — on George III., 36
 — signature of Treaty of Peace and Commerce in Paris (February 6, 1778), 169
- Frederic III., King of Prussia, view expressed by, on war of England with her colonies, 158
- Free Trade proposals of Pitt, 261, 262
- French Revolution, 163
 — Charles Fox's attitude towards, 289
 — debates, on, arguments between Burke and Fox during, 293
 — Edmund Burke's attitude towards, 291
 — famous letter of Charles Fox to Westminster constituents on, and dangers to England resulting from, 301-306
 — intellectual poise of, 307
 — Charles Fox's view of, 309-311
 — progress of, Fox's view regarding, 309
 — throne, fall of, 298
- Frere on wit of Charles Fox, 194
- Gage, General, made responsible for failures in American War, 132
 — mobilisation of military forces in America, 104
 — peace measures with Americans advised by, 105
- Gainsborough, Thomas, 91
- Garrick, visit of Queen Charlotte to, 40
- George I. and Sir Robert Walpole, Latin spoken between, 28
 — and George III. and British subjects, mutual accommodation arranged between, 28, 29
 — indifference of, to England, 28
- George III., absolute rule of, 47
 — and Charles I., similarity in ideas of, 42, 43
 — and continuance of war with America, 210
 — and Navigation Acts, 101
 — and new cabinet, 200, 201
 — and persecution of John Wilkes, 52
 — and Queen Charlotte, economy of, 33
 — and responsibility in war with America, 111
 — anger with Pitt for presuming to declare American independence irrevocable, 229
 — animosity towards Charles Fox, proofs of, 126
 — curious conduct of, with regard to death of Earl of Chatham, 173
 — attitude of, regarding American insurgents, 104, 105
 — on resignation of Pitt (1801), 344
 — comments on declaration of war by France, 183
 — comment on duplicity of Shelburne, 223
 — condemnation of behaviour of Chatham, 157
 — of Americans at assembled Parliament (October 26, 1775), 131, 132
 — coronation of, 15
 — danger to State of Shelburne falling under influence of, recognised by Fox, 232, 233
 — disapproval of Lord Clive, 79
 — final expression of regret for death of Fox, 370
 — independence of America acknowledged by, in speech from throne, 228
 — indignation of, against Charles Fox, 84
 — industry of, 43
 — insanity of, 37, 268, 269
 — letter to Lord North expressing satisfaction at financial arrangements for the war, 141
 — letters to Lord Sandwich (hitherto unprinted), 174 (footnote)

- George III., marriage of, 37
 ——— policy of, 42
 ——— private life of, 37, 38
 ——— recovery of, 271
 ——— refusal that Fox should be included in the new ministry (1804), 354
 ——— speech at close of session of 1777, 158
 ——— at opening of Parliament (November, 1777), 164
 ——— from throne (November, 1778) containing no reference to American War, 186, 187
 ——— strong expression of his opinion of Fox in letter to North, 234
 ——— threat of, to abdicate, 213
 ——— subscriptions to Royal Society, 36
 George Frederic, Prince of Wales, allowance proposed for, by Fox, 236
 ——— and Charles Fox, intimate relations between, 226, 248
 ——— (George IV.), celebration by, of Fox's return for Westminster, 257
 ——— extravagant conduct of, in connection with Mrs. Fitzherbert, 264
 ——— influence of Charles Fox upon, 216, 217
 ——— letter to Charles Fox in reference to proposed marriage with Mrs. Fitzherbert, 266
 ——— relations of, with Mrs. Armistead, 277
 Germaine, Lord George, 167, 177
 ——— appointed Secretary of State for the Colonies, 138
 ——— defence of North's American policy, 147
 ——— ill-choice of, for American Secretaryship, 164
 ——— scandalous past record of, 164
 ——— speech of Fox attacking, 164
 Gervillière divulges plan for assassination of Napoleon to Fox, 361
 Gibbon on character of Charles Fox, 287
 ——— visit of Charles Fox to, at Lausanne, 287
 Gibbon, Edward, 93
 ——— Charles Fox's powers or debate, 110
 ——— praise of Fox's oration on condemnation of government's American policy, 148
 ——— presage of result of contest between Fox and Pitt, 254
 ——— tribute to political ability of Fox, 368
 Gillray, James, 91, 257, 309
 Girtin, Thomas, 91
 Gloucester, Duke of, increase of income of, support by Fox for motion for, 156
 Goldsmith, Oliver, death of, 92, 93
 ——— The Traveller, 17
 Gordon, Lord George, garb of, 196
 ——— intoleration of, 196
 ——— march of, to Westminster accompanied by mob, 197
 ——— Riots, 197, 198
 Gosse, Sir Edmund, 93
 Grafton, Duke of, 193, 214
 ——— acts as Chancellor of Cambridge University, 134
 ——— address moved by, in House of Lords against the war defeated, 140
 ——— behaviour, condemned in Letters of Junius, 133
 ——— character compared by "Junius" to that of Charles II., 133
 ——— disapproval of government's American policy by, 134, 135
 ——— Lord Privy Seal, 134
 ——— opposition of King's speech by, 135
 ——— requested to deliver up Privy Seal, 135
 ——— Ministry, 45, 46
 Grattan, Henry, meeting of Fox with, 159
 Gray, Thomas, death of, 92
 ——— made Professor of History at Cambridge by Duke of Grafton, 134
 Great Britain and British West Indies, Bill enjoining restriction of traffic of part of American States to, 114, 115
 Grenville, Lord, 45
 ——— notorious Stamp Act passed by Lord, 50, 101
 ——— formation of Ministry of All the Talents under, 358
 Grey, Lord, devotion of, to Charles Fox, 308
 ——— entry into political life, 353
 Gwyn, Nell, and Chelsea Hospital, 13
 Habeas Corpus Act, Bill to suspend, for high treason committed in North America or on high seas, 153
 ——— passing of, 155
 ——— amendments of opposition accepted, 154, 155
 Halifax, Lord, and persecution of John Wilkes, 52, 53
 Harbrough, Lord, 242
 Hastings, Warren, 242
 ——— Fox's condemnation of, 244
 ——— impeachment of, 271
 ——— trial of, 271-274
 ——— proving necessity of reforms in India Bill, 253
 Henry IV. of France, circumstances attending assassination of, 146
 Henry, Patrick, attitude regarding Stamp Act, 101
 Herschel, William, Sir, 90
 Hertford College, Oxford, education at, 16

- Hertford, Lady, 267
 Hinchingbrooke, Lord, letter to ' his father attacking North, 238
 — Papers, extracts from letters of Lord Sandwich, Lord North, and Duke of Portland in, 237, 238
 — letter from Earl of Exeter in, 242
 Hobhouse, John Cam, 129, 370
 — — — Recollections of a Long Life, 331
 Holland House, 14
 Holland, Lady, death of, 108
 — Lord, 367, 370
 — — death of, 108
 — — fortune of, 108
 Holland, war with, 203
 Hood, Thomas, 90
 Howard, Frederic, travels with, 19
 Howe, Lord, 90
 — — — victory of, with Channel fleet against Frante, 311
- Ilchester, Lady, Life and Letters of Lady Sarah Lennox, 21
 India Bill, defeat of, 252
 — — reforms in, proved necessary by trial of Warren Hastings, 253
 — — — soundly conceived by Fox and Burke, 253
 — threatening state of, 203
 Ireland, visit of Fox to, 159
 Irish trade policy of Pitt disliked in Manchester, 261, 262
 — — — opposed successfully by Fox, 261, 262
- James II., History of Reign of, by Charles James Fox, 317
 — — — contemporary strictures of, 347
 — — — literary estimate of, 348
 — — — posthumous publication of, 347
 James, Sir William, 240
 Jefferson, American declaration of independence drafted by, 143
 Jeffrey, Francis, attack on Fox's History of James II., 348
 Jenkinson, Charles (later Lord Liverpool), astounding statement to the King with regard to Fox, 180
 Jocelyn, Mr., 241
 Johnson, Dr. Samuel, Charles Fox's speech relating to, 85
 — — — death of, 337
 — — — Lives of the Poets, 36
 — — — observation on rule of the country by sceptre of George III. or the tongue of Fox, 253
 — — — oracular pre-eminence of, 92
 Junius, Letters of, 46
 — — — condemnation of Duke of Grafton in, 133
- Keppel, Admiral, 200
 Keppel, court-martial of, at Portsmouth (1779), 175
 — — culpable exposure to danger by Lord Sandwich, 181
 — — election of, 201
 — — honourable acquittal of, 176
 Keroualle, Louise de, and Charles II., ancestors of Charles James Fox, 13
 "King's Friends," The, 47, 60, 64
 Kosciusko, 346
- Lafayette, 346
 Lamb, Charles, birth of, 92
 Landor, W. S., criticism of Charles Fox, 325, 326
 Lascelles, Henry, motion for, funeral honour on death of William Pitt, 371
 Lauderdale, Earl of, encomiums on Charles Fox, 129
 — estimate of character of Charles II., 163
 Laurence, Thomas, 91
 Lavater (physiognomist), portrait of Charles Fox, 288
Lay of the Last Minstrel (Sir Walter Scott), Charles Fox's admiration for, 330
 Lennox, Lady Sarah, George III.'s idyll with, 37
 — — — letter to Lady Susan O'Brien, 218
 — — — letter to, relating to Charles Fox, 21
 Lewis, Matthew Gregory, letter to Charles Fox, 333
 — — — Lines on returning from the Funeral of the Right Hon. C. J. Fox, 334
 Lexington, battle of, 123, 131
 Literary Club founded by Johnson and Reynolds, 93
 Long Island, American defeat on, 143, 145
 Lord Mayor committed to the Tower, 68, 69
 Loughborough, Baron, ferocity of, in conduct of trials of Gordon Rioters, 198
 Louis XVI. guillotined in Paris, Charles Fox's speech on, 299, 300
 Lowther, Sir James, government corruption of, 70
 Lucas, Reginald, Life of Lord North, 96
 Luttrell, Henry, opponent of John Wilkes in Middlesex election, 56
- Mackintosh, Sir James, on Edmund Burke and Charles Fox, 97
 Malmesbury, Lord, tribute to abilities of Fox, 369
 Manchester, unpopularity of Pitt's Irish trade policy in, 261, 262

- Mann, Sir Horace, 222
 Markham, Dr., of Westminster, tutor of George, Prince of Wales, 89
 Marriage Laws, Charles Fox's condemnation of, 207-209
 Massachusetts Bill, Charles Fox's speech against, 107
 Meredith, Sir W., Bill relating to dissenting clergy and Thirty-nine Articles, 73
 Miller, fine inflicted on, 81
 Ministry of All the Talents, formation under Grenville, 358
 — — — full list of, 358, 359 (footnote)
 Minorca, surrender of, to France, 212
 "Minute Men," bands of, in America, 104
 Monmouth, Duke of, description by Fox in his History of James II. quoted, 348
 Moore, Thomas, and Charles Fox, 331
 — — — attack on Fox's History of James II., 348
 More, Miss Hannah, education of Mary Robinson directed by, 217, 218
 Morland, George, 91
Morning Post, founding of (1776), 167
 Mulgrave, Lord, 241
 Napoleon I., armed entry into Switzerland, 349
 — — — conduct of, condemned by Fox, 351
 — — — Fox's meeting with, 346, 347
 — — — proposals for speech, Fox's contribution to debate on, 343, 344
 — — — rejection of proposals made by British government, 350
 Navigation Acts, hatred of, in America, 100
 — — — smuggling resulting from, 100
 Nelson, Horatio, Lord, promoted lieutenant, sailing with convoy for Gibraltar, 90
 — — — estimate of his character given by Fox, 356
 Newcombe, Dr., letter of, to Charles Fox, 18
Newspaper, The, George Crabbe, 328
 New England Bill, 117
 New Jersey, Liberal constitution of, 99
 — — — Royal Declaration offering to discuss terms of peace issued in, 149, 150
 Norfolk, Duke of, dismissal from Lord-Lieutenancy in consequence of toasts proposed at Whig Club, 341
 — — — toasts proposed by, at dinner to Fox at Whig Club, 341
North Briton, The, famous No. 45, 50
 — — — ordered to be burnt by hangman, 53
 — — — — results of, 51
 — — — the publication of, by John Wilkes, 50
 North, Lord, 177
 — — — acceptance of amendments to Bill suspending Habeas Corpus Act for high treason committed in America, 155
 — — — and American colonists, 105, 106
 — — — and Charles Fox, strained relations between, regarding punishment of Woodfall, printer of The Public Cry, 83, 84
 — — — and The North Briton, 16
 — — — and proposed repeal of Catholic relief, 199
 — — — and responsibility in war with America, 111
 — — — appeal of Shelburne to, for aid, 227
 — — — appointed Prime Minister, 60
 — — — attack of, in Parliament by Charles Fox, 74
 — — — — — towards Lord Clive, reasons for, 80
 — — — characteristics of, 61-64
 — — — Charles Fox's behaviour towards, 87
 — — — — — opposition to, in regard to war with America, 97
 — — — coalition of Fox with, 231, 232
 — — — conciliatory resolution in respect to American colonies, 112, 113
 — — — death of, 337
 — — — delivery up of Seals by, 250
 — — — denouncement of No. 45 of The North Briton, 53
 — — — English policy under, resulting in revolt of American colonists, 116
 — — — evasive reply to Whig condemnation of American policy, 146
 — — — exposure of ill-conduct of the war by, desired by Fox, 140
 — — — fall of, 213
 — — — finance of, 63
 — — — Fox's reasons for reconciliation with, stated, 230, 231
 — — — repudiation of his condemnation of, 230, 231
 — — — George III.'s instructions to, 81, 82
 — — — — — letters to, 212, 213, 214
 — — — gratitude of the King to, 170
 — — — installation as Chancellor of Oxford University, 81
 — — — introduction of Bill, to prohibit trading with America and to authorise seizure of American vessels, 136
 — — — obedience of, to George III., 63
 — — — popular indignation against, 176
 — — — production of Plan for Conciliation, 169
 — — — removal of duties on American colonists by, 103

- North, Lord, reply to Lord Sandwich with reference to procuring office for Lord Hinchinbrooke, 237
- — severe condemnation of places and emoluments held by, pronounced by Fox, 175
- — Leader of House of Commons, 46
- Northington, Lord, letters from Fox to, 248, 249
- Number 45. See North Briton, The, famous No. 45
- Oates, Titus, 196
- O'Bryen, Dennis, Charles Fox's letters to, 323, 324
- Opie and George III., 39
- Amelia, 347
- — on dress of Charles Fox, 339
- Orkney, temporary return of Fox for, 259
- Ossory, Earl of, induced by Burke to abandon support of government, 136
- Oxford Magazine*, cartoon in, of Holland's family, 126
- Pampellone, M., academy of, attended by C. J. Fox, 15
- Pardoe, Mr., 239, 240
- Parish Register, The* (George Crabbe), 328, 329
- Parliamentary reform, fresh proposals for, made by Pitt, 236, 237
- — Pitt's measure for, supported by Fox, but defeated (April, 1785), 261
- — motion for, supported by Fox, 225
- Parliaments, annual, Fox's demand for, 190
- Payne, John, letter relating to George III.'s insanity, 269
- Peace and Commerce, treaty of, signature in Paris by Franklin, 169
- of Paris, 98
- Royal Declaration offering to discuss terms of, with Americans, 149, 150
- Pennsylvania, origin of, 99
- Perceval, Spencer, 353
- Perdita. See Robinson, Mary
- Petty, Lord Henry, last interview with Fox, 366
- Phipps, Mr., 241
- Pigot, Lord, Governor of Madras, denunciation by Fox of Ministry's treatment of, 156
- Pitt, William, the Elder. See Chatham, Earl of
- — the Younger, 202, 268
- — — and Fox, Charles James, causes of breach between, 225
- — — oratory in debate on renewal of the war compared, 351
- — — points of agreement between, 260, 261
- Pitt, William, the Younger, and Fox, Charles James, proposed coalition between, 296
- — — Edmund Burke's action relating to, 297
- — — and the Regency, 268, 270
- — — as War Minister, 314
- — — becomes Chancellor of Exchequer under Shelburne's administration, 224
- — — becomes Prime Minister at age of twenty-four (December 19, 1783), 252
- — — character of, 225
- — — condemnation of war, with America, 211
- — — contest in Parliament with Fox, 254
- — — displeasure at Fox's return for Westminster, 258
- — — formation of new ministry by (1804), 354, 355
- — — fresh proposal for parliamentary reform, 236, 237
- — — funeral honours to the memory of, parliamentary debate on, 371
- — — generosity of Fox to, 225
- — — Irish trade policy of, successful, opposed by Fox, 261, 262
- — — last illness and death of, 357
- — — letter to Wilberforce respecting course to be taken with Fox after Whig Club incident, 351, 342
- — — measure for parliamentary reform supported by Fox (April, 1785), 261
- — — motion for parliamentary reform supported by Fox, 225
- — — offer of the Premiership refused by, 234
- — — on Sheridan's oration on Begums of Oude, 273, 274
- — — reply to Fox as to permanency of American independence, 228
- — — resignation on question of Catholic relief (February, 1801), 344
- — — returned for University of Cambridge, 257
- — — attack upon Fox in matter of rash scrutiny of poll for Westminster, 259
- — — speech in favour of Economy Bill, 203, 204
- — — support of Fox's proposal for application for mediation of Russia in Anglo-French dispute, 351, 352
- — — vote for public honours at his funeral opposed by Fox, 357
- Political Sketch of the Years 1760-1763* (Henry Fox), 21
- Poole, Thomas, 333
- Pope, Alexander, Charles Fox's opinion of, 320

- Porson, Richard, 91
 Portland, Duke of, 135, 200
 ——— and Nullum Tempus Act, 70
 ——— becomes nominal head of Coalition Ministry, 235
 ——— letter to Lord Sandwich on admission of Pitt to office, 252
 ——— to Sandwich on the prospects of peace, 238
 Port of Boston Bill, 104
 Pratt, Chief Justice, action of, in relation to persecution of John Wilkes, 52
 Pretender, Young, pension bestowed on, by George III., 58
 Price, Uvedale, travels with, 19
 Priestley, Isaac, 90
Public Advertiser, Charles Fox's attitude towards, 84, 85

 Rawlinson, Sir Walter, 240
 Regency Act proposed, 270
 Religious liberty, Charles Fox a friend to, 97
 "Representation and Remonstrance from the General Assembly of New York," 121
 Revolution, French, view of, taken by Fox, 183
 Reynolds, Sir Joshua, 91
 ——— and George III., 39
 ——— portraits of Mrs. Armistead, 277
 Richmond, Duke of, 135
 ——— address moved by, in House of Lords against the war defeated, 140
 ——— letter to Burke, 136
 ——— to Fox emphasising Fox's political position, 178, 179
 Robinson, Mary, illicit connection of Charles Fox with, 218
 ——— of Prince of Wales with, 217
 — Mr., 240
 Rockingham administration, controversies relating to, 221, 222
 — appointed Prime Minister, 214
 — death of, 223
 — letter to, from Burke on course of business to be taken by opposition, 135
 ——— to, from Fox, dissuading against abstention of Whigs from parliament, 144, 145
 ——— to, from Fox, dissuading him from taking office under divided authority, 176
 — Whigs. See Whigs of Rockingham party
 Rodney, Admiral, 90
 — and Charles Fox elected for Westminster, 201
 — distinction won by, against Spanish off Cape St. Vincent, 201
 Rogers, Samuel, 93
 Rogers, Samuel, on visit of Charles Fox to Gibbon, 287
 ——— speeches of Charles Fox, 194
 Romney, George, 91
 Rose, Right Hon. George, extraordinary reflections on the death of Fox, in his Diaries and Correspondence, 366, 367, 369
 Rowlandson, Thomas, 91
 Royal Declaration offering to discuss conditions of peace with Americans, 149
 ——— terms of peace, issued without knowledge or consent of parliament, 149, 150
 — Marriage Bill, attitude of Charles Fox towards, 72, 73, 75
 ——— George III.'s anxiety relating to, 74
 — Society, George III.'s subscriptions to, 36
 Russell, Lord John, 125, 370
 ——— life of Charles Fox, 295

 Sackville, John Frederic, relations of, with Mrs. Armistead, 276
 St. Anne's Hill, 275
 ——— Fox's retirement to (1798-1800), 317, 319, 343
 Sandby, Paul, 91
 Sandwich, Lord, 177, 287
 — and Fox, correspondence between, 239, 240, 241
 ——— culpable exposure of Admiral Keppel to danger, 181
 ——— debates on conduct of, in American War, 211, 214
 ——— instigation of trial of Admiral Keppel, 175
 ——— John Wilkes' grievance against, 48
 ——— letter approaching North on behalf of Lord Hinchinbrooke, 237
 ——— from Duke of Portland on admission of Pitt to office, 252
 ——— to, from Earl of Exeter, 242
 ——— letters to, from George III. (hitherto unprinted), 174 (footnote)
 ——— popular indignation against, 176
 ——— powerful indictment against by Fox, 180, 181
 Salisbury, Lady, 256, 257
 Saratoga, surrender of General Burgoyne at (1777), 140, 164, 166
 Scott, Sir Walter, birth of, 92
 Selwyn, George, 110
 ——— letter to, 193
 Seward, Anna, opinion of Pitt, rebuked by Dr. Whalley, 357, 358
 Shenbeare, Dr., 85
 Shelburne, Lord, 173, 175
 — and Charles Fox, conflict between, 222

- Shelburne and Charles Fox, conduct of foreign affairs jointly in hands of, 222
- appeal to North for aid, 227
 - attacked by Fox in debate on Address, 228
 - becomes Prime Minister, 223, 224
 - friendship of George III. with, 220
 - made Secretary of State with Charles Fox, 214
 - direct vote of censure on, carried (February 17, 1783), 229
 - conduct of, as Secretary of State, 221
 - opposes Pitt's insistence on immediate declaration of independence of America, 224
 - resignation of, 229, 230
- Shelley, Frances, Lady, 388
- Sheridan, Richard Brinsley, 92, 202
- and Charles Fox, political friendship between, 272
 - classic oration on Begums of Oude, 272
 - speech on Economy Bill, 204
 - tribute of, to Mrs. Fitzherbert's virtues, 267.
- Siddons, Sarah, 91
- Simmons, Rev. Charles, encomiums on Charles Fox in funeral sermon, 194
- Slave trade denounced by Charles Fox, 97
- Slavery, abolition of, support of, and speeches upon, by Fox, 359, 360
- Smollett, Tobias, editor of The Briton, 49
- Southey, Robert, birth of, 92
- letter to, from Coleridge relating to Charles Fox, 328
- Spain, British conflict with, supported by Fox, 184
- declaration of war against England, 182, 183
 - preliminary treaties of peace signed with, 229
- Stamp Act, 101
- repeal of, 102
- Stanhope, Earl, condemnation of coalition between Fox and North, 232
- Stephenson, Mr., 240
- Stuart, Lady Louisa, biographical sketch of Lady Mary Coke, 109
- Switzerland, armed entry by Napoleon into, 349
- Talleyrand, 346
- Tea duties, effect of, on American colonists, 103
- duty, George III.'s approval of, 105
- Thirty-nine Articles, subscription to, by dissenting clergy, attitude of Fox towards, 73, 78
- Tooke, J. Horne, author of seditious article in The Public Advertiser, 83
- Tories, attitude of, towards return of Stuarts in middle of eighteenth century, 31
- policy of, reasons for success of, defined by Burke, 159, 160
- Trafalgar, victory of, 356
- Traveller, The (Goldsmith), 17
- Treaty of Peace and Commerce, signature of, in Paris by Franklin, 169
- Trevelyan, Sir George, friendship of high-minded women for Charles Fox, 128
- patriotic services of Charles Fox, 96
- Tribune of the People, title applied to Fox, 162
- Trotter, John Bernard, Memoirs of the Later Years of the Right Honourable Charles James Fox, 339
- Turner, J. M. W., 91
- Twitcher, Jemmy. See Sandwich, Lord
- United Provinces of North America proclaimed by Washington, 131
- States and France, treaty between, signature of, 169, 171
 - of America, representatives of, issue of Declaration of Independence by, 142, 143
 - independence of, asserted in American-French treaty, 171
 - material progress and prosperity of, 182
- Unwin, Mary, devotion of, to William Cowper, 92
- Voltaire, visit to, 20
- Wakefield, Gilbert, correspondence of Charles Fox with, 334, 335
- imprisonment of, for sedition, 334
- Wales, Prince of. See George Frederic, Prince of Wales
- Walpole, Horace, 147
- comment on Royal Speech at opening of parliament (autumn, 1777), 177
 - comments on duplicity of Shelburne, 223
 - death of, 338
 - letter to Sir Horace Mann, 222
 - on Charles Fox, 58, 59, 71, 137
 - financial straits, 205, 206
 - on John Wilkes, 56, 66
 - on speech of Charles Fox on Marriage Bill, 94, 95
 - on the Ajmack Club, 22
 - on prospects of American War, 138
 - and political corruption, 24, 25
 - policy of, in regard to Stuarts, 29
 - under the first Georges, 29
 - retirement of, 31

- Warren Hastings, impeachment of, 271
 Washington, George, and American freedom, 103
 — appointed Commander-in-chief of Colonial forces, 131
 — British troops driven out of Boston by, 140, 142
 — character of, 131
 — disorganisation of army of, 141
 — on American independence, 104
 — "United Provinces of North America," proclaimed by, 131
 Waterhouse, Sir Nicholas, 245
 Watt, James, 90
 Wedderburne, 113
 — and John Wilkes, 59
 — ferocity of, in conduct of trials of Gordon Rioters, 198
 Wedgwood, Josiah, 90
 Wellesley, Hon. Arthur, 90
 Wesley, John, 90
 — comment on death of Lord Rockingham, 223
 West Indies, British, and Great Britain, Bill enjoining restriction of traffic on part of American States to, 114, 115
 Westminster, election, Fox adopted as candidate for, 189
 — Fox again returned, 255, 257
 — scrutiny ordered, 258, 259
 West, Mr., pictures of, bought by George III., 39
 Whalley, Dr. (Prebendary of Wells), rebuke to Anna Seward for her disparagement of Pitt, 357, 358
 Whig character, finest vindication of, found in talents of Burke, 161
 — Club, dinner to Fox at, 341
 Whig doctrine, enlargement of, by Fox, 163
 — opposition in Parliament, case for American colonists stated by, 145, 146
 Whigs of Rockingham party, Fox's entry into formal association with, 180
 — position of, explained by Burke, 160
 — under Lord Rockingham, threatened abstention from parliament, 144
 — responsibility of, for Hanoverian government, 31
 Wilberforce, William, 202
 — conference with Fox on the abolition of slavery, 359, 360
 — letter to, from Pitt as to course to be taken with Fox after Whig Club incident, 341, 342
 Wilkes, John, 16, 189
 — award of damages to, against Lord Halifax and others, 53
 — campaign of, 45, 46
 — committed to Tower, 51
 — dissipations of, 48
 — elected alderman, 66
 — sheriff of City of London, 67
 — electoral activities of, 114
 — outlawry of, 54
 — riot in favour of, 55
 — sentenced to imprisonment, 55
 Williams, pilloried, 16
 Wilson, Mr., and George III., 39
 Woodfall, printer of libels in The Publick Advertiser, question of punishment of, 83, 84
 Wordsworth, William, birth of, 92
 — letter to Charles Fox, 332
 Wright, Thomas, England under the House of Hanover, 127