

INDEX

INDEX

- ALBAN, Sir Francis, his work in China, 256, 322.
Agriculture of the Chinese, in the valleys and on the plateaus, 19; F. H. King quoted on, 22-25; the secret of China's unique productive power in, 25; terraces, 25, 26; irrigation, 26-29; fertilizers, 29-35; multiple harvests, 35-37; regulated by sound economic principles, 39.
Albrekt of Mecklenburg, 305.
American films, 239.
Americans, the spirit with which they have met the Chinese, 239.
Amherst, Lord, embassy of, in 1816, 117.
Amoy, opened to the opium trade, 118.
An Lao Yeh (Roy Anderson), 173.
Ancestor-worship, 233.
Andersson, J. G., his "An Early Chinese Culture", 205.
Anderson, Roy, 173*m*.
Andrew, George Findlay, missionary, 220-225, 235.
Andrews, Roy Chapman, collector, 264.
Anfu Party, 181, 188, 200, 201, 202, 245; leaders of, take refuge in Japanese legation, 272.
Angleworms, 37.
Anhui, province of, 15, 153, 169, 310, 318.
Annam, made Chinese, 9.
Antiquaries, 92.
Apricots, 19, 41.
Architecture, 130, 260.
Armistice, the (Nov. 11, 1918), 273, 298.
Arrow affair, 119.
Artisans, 90-92.
BAMBOO, a motive loved by Chinese artists, 16, 17.
Banditry, 50-52, 215-217, 226, 227, 312.
Barbers, 92.
Barley, 19, 35, 36.
Beggars, 93-95.
Belgium, negotiates with China for new treaty, 323; proposes to restore Belgian concession at Tientsin, 323. See also Foreign powers, Foreigners.
Birka, 304.
Blind, the, 93, 94.
Blue Express, 170, 171.
Bolshevism, 99; among the students, 199, 203, 243, 278; propaganda of, 247, 248. See also Communism, Russia.
Boxer uprising, 124, 125, 152, 214, 226, 273, 291; indemnity due for, 249, 250. "Boxers", 124.
Bribery, 50, 52, 53.
Bruce, Secretary, in negotiations at Tientsin, 1858, 119.
Buddha, Guatama, teaching of, in China, 100.
Buddhism, 10; neo-, 198; appeal of, to the Chinese, 234.
CANTON, local officials in, 117; opened to the opium trade, 118; foreign concessions in, 270; mentioned, 54, 119.
Cantonese, transportation as organized by, 309; propaganda of, 309; take Hanyang and Kiukiang, 309, 310; take Hangchow, 310; Shanghai and Nanking occupied by, 310; advance as far as Hsuehchow, 318. See also Kuomintang faction.
"Capitulations", 254.
Carter, Professor, of Columbia, 289.
Cash, the, 44, 49.
Catholic missionaries, 225-228, 294, 295.
Chai T'ang, village, 47; first excursion to, 59; coal fields at, 101; temples of, 101, 102.
Chang Cheng Kuang, Mine Inspector, 67, 69, 103.
Chang Chi Tung, statesman, death of, 127; vice regent, 179.
Chang Chien, Minister of Agriculture, 148.
Chang Hsun, General, inspector general of Yangtze provinces, 153; goes to Peking as mediator, 153, 154; his coup, 154, 155, 180; defeated by republican troops, 156-159; takes refuge in Dutch legation, 272; mentioned, 293.

INDEX

- Chang Tso Lin, his career, 186, 187; defeated by Wu near Peking, 187, 188; his government of Manchuria, 188, 283; defeats Wu at Shan Hai Kuan, 190, 191; receives assistance from Japanese, 248; drives Feng from Nankow Pass, 308; aware of communistic propaganda, 316; withdraws to north of Yellow River, 317, 318; proclaims himself dictator in Peking, 318; his position at beginning of 1928, 320; references to, 98, 167, 168, 174, 181-183, 293.
- Chang Tsung Chang, governor of Shantung, 302.
- Chang Tsung Hsiang, the Chinese minister at Tokyo, 201.
- Chang Yi Ou, General Director of the Division of Mines, 135.
- Changsha, in Honan, 188.
- Chao, General, 167, 168.
- Chao Ti, Governor, 166.
- Chefoo, English school at, 221.
- Chekiang, province of, 16; opposition to Yuan Shih Kai develops in, 146; monastery of Tien Tong in, 198; effect of Cantonese propaganda in, 309; controlled by Sun Chuang Fang, 310.
- Chen, taxidermist, 264-267.
- Chen Chia Yü, locality for fossils, 264.
- Chen Chien, lieutenant of Chiang, 318.
- Chenfan, oasis of, 33.
- Cheng, Mr., author's assistant, 42, 43, 51, 79, 81, 109, 110, 111.
- Chengchow, 168.
- Chenwangtas, 89.
- Chia Ching, Emperor, 114.
- Chiang Hsien, 78.
- Chiang Kai Shih, Kuomintang general, 306, 308; his march from Canton to Wu-Han cities, 308; moves against Sun Chuang Fang, 310; noted for moderation, 315, 316; begins movement to expel communistic radicals from Kuomintang party, 317; lays down his command, 318; again becomes commander in chief at Nanking, 319.
- Chiao Chow, gulf of, "leased" to Germany, 123.
- Chien Lung, Emperor, 52, 114.
- Chihli, province of, 45, 157, 182; iron fields of, 103; temples of, 103; missionaries and native Christians killed in, 125.
- China, cradle of culture of, lay around the Hwang-ho and its tributaries, 4, 5, 8; rivers of, 4-6; early culture of, influenced from the West, 6, 7; southern, the original inhabitants of, 8; southern, brought under Chinese rule under Han dynasty, 8; developed separate individuality, 9; cultural interchange between the Occident and, 10; considered by the Chinese the one civilized nation, 10; northern and southern, the contrast between, 14-20; agriculture of, 19; agricultural products of, 19; fruits of, 19; communication in, 20; population of, 24, 38, 115; the secret of her unique productive power, 25; struggle for existence in, 38; the country population of, 45; modern, ancient traits in material life of, 84-86; the folk life of, 86; walls in, 87-89; religions in, 99, 100, 197-199; relation of, to Western powers, 116-125; in war with Japan (1894-1895), 122; flight of emperor and dowager empress of, 125; reform movement in, 125-130; turns toward Japan to learn new ways, 126; the republic a time of dissolution in, 129, 130; modern changes in, 129, 130; in the early part of the World War, 143; demands made by Japan upon, 143, 243, 245; "moratorium" declared in, 147; question of her entry into the World War, 151-153; restoration of monarchy in, 155, 156; impulses prevalent in spiritual life of, 196; radicalism in, 199, 200; student movement in, 199-203, 211, 212; delegates of, in Paris Peace Conference, 202; Civil War in, 280-286; the future of, 280-290; her contributions to Western culture, 288, 289; the political decade of 1916-1925 a black page in history of, 293, 306.
- China, menders of, 92.
- Chinese the, Mongolian peoples in Hwang-ho valley the original source of, 7; their belief in China as universal kingdom, 10, 116, 117; predominantly farmers, 10, 11; their love of peace, 11; their power of passive resistance, 11; their love and reverence for learning and art, 11; their kindly social instinct, 12; tactful and polite, 12; their faculty for local self-government, 12; their ability to defy time, 12; their spiritual repose, 13; southern and northern, contrast between, 20, 21; the one peril to unity of, 21; the industry of, 37; primitive handwork of, 39; egg-hatching of, 39; live almost exclusively on vegetable diet, 39; notable swine-raisers and pork eaters, 40; their success in fruit cultivation, 40, 41; poor and rich, their food, 44; their utilization of waste, 45; northern, surprisingly honest and reliable, 55; of the country, the men, 62; of the country, the women, 62, 63; their fondness for protecting walls, 86, 87; their tolerance as to religious questions, 99, 100; reason for their turning at times against Christian missionaries, 100; enraged at cessions to European powers, 118; Arrow seized by, 119; acquire technical discoveries of foreigners, 242; influenced by the West on spiritual side, 243; their resistance to the "white peril", 252; plea for fair play toward, 253; military development of, 294, 295; and Western culture, 296.

INDEX

- Chinese the, (continued)
- Chinese clover, 33.
- Chinese culture, seat of, 3-6; influenced from the West, 6-10; characteristics of, 10-13.
- Chinese Eastern Railroad, 246.
- Chinese Government, 96-99.
- Chinese laborers, small wages of, 43, 44; their modest standard of living, 43, 44; their food, 44.
- Chinese language and literature, 204-212.
- Chinese literary characters, 110.
- Chinese Medical Board, 259.
- Chinese nationalism, a reaction against foreign imperialism, 291, 294; a purely Chinese revolutionary movement, 291-293; the struggle of, compared with the struggle of Swedish nationalism, 304-307.
- Chinese paintings, landscape types of, 16, 17.
- Chinese students, go to Japanese high schools, 126. See also Student movement, Students.
- "Chinese Wall", a figurative expression, 86.
- Ching dynasty. See Manchu dynasty.
- Chou dynasty (1122-225 B.C.), 7, 286.
- Chou Kou Tien, industrial town, 104; temple near, 104, 105.
- Christianity, as a beneficent power in Chinese spiritual life, 233; the appeal of, as compared with that of Confucianism and Buddhism, 234; impression of, on the average Chinaman, 235; creeds of, 236.
- Christians, Chinamen find material advantages in becoming, 229.
- Chung, author's boy, 58, 76, 83.
- Chungming, density of population on, 24.
- Cinematograph, 238, 239.
- Cities, surrounded by walls, 87; streets of, 90-95.
- Civilizations, the first, sprang up in river valleys, 4.
- Cloth sellers, 92.
- Coal, anthracite, 47.
- Coffin makers, 90.
- Colored races, 243, 252.
- Commissions, the exacting of, 52.
- Communism, raid on, in Peking, 316, 317; expelled from Kuomintang party, 317, 319. See also Russia.
- Concessions, foreign, 251, 270, 323.
- Confucianism, not state religion, 99, 197; neo-, 197, 198; appeal of, to the Chinese, 234.
- Confucius, five fundamental principles of, 12; Temple of, 101; his family, 105; a living force, 105; moral teaching of, 197; social teachings of, 233.
- Convicts, 98.
- Coolies, Chinese, cases of dishonesty in, 54-57; remarkable for application to work and for attentiveness to masters, 58-61; strength and endurance of, 62.
- Coolies, Indian, 54.
- Copper, the extracting of, from cash, 42, 43.
- Costumes, 286.
- Customs, administration of, 279.
- Customs rates, 321.

INDEX

- DANE, Sir Richard, his work in China, 256, 257.
- Dewey, Prof. John, lectures given by, in China, 199.
- Dikes, 29, 30.
- Distaff, 84.
- District magistrate, 96.
- Dollar, Mexican silver, 49.
- Doves, with pan pipes, 93.
- Dragon, reported discovery of remains of, 131-138.
- Dragon-boat feasts, 21.
- Dragon flag, 130, 286.
- "Dragon King", 51.
- Driesch, Hans, his visit to China, 199.
- Drill-sowing system, 36.
- Dung, collection of, 30, 31, 45-47.
- Durra, 85. See Kaoliang.
- Dust, 94.
- Dust storms, 14.
- Dyers, 91.
- EAST INDIA COMPANY, the tradition of, 263.
- Economy, Chinese, 30, 37, 42-53.
- Education, higher, progress of, 129.
- Egg-hatching, 39.
- Egypt, the culture of, 6; mentioned, 12.
- Elgin, Lord, in negotiations at Tientsin, 119, 120; penetrates to Peking, 121; burns summer palace of Yuan Ming Yuan, 121, 122.
- England, and the opium trade, 117-119; in the Opium War, 118; cession of Hongkong to, 118; in the war following seizure of the Arrow, 119; in the Peace of Tientsin, 119, 120; receives Wei-hai-wei 123; takes Yangtze valley as sphere of influence, 123; strengthens her influence in Tibet, 24; pledges herself to return Wei-hai-wei, 251; antagonism of Kuomintang party to, 311; considered most dangerous representative of foreign imperialism, 311; Yangtze patrolled by, 312; her concession at Hankow evacuated, 313; sends troops to Shanghai, 314; gives ultimatum to Kuomintang troops, 318; proposes enforcement of higher customs rates, 322. See also Foreign powers, Foreigners.
- English East India Company, and the opium traffic, 117.
- Erikson, Annie, missionary, 220.
- Erikson, Joel, missionary, 218-220, 225, 235.
- Eriksson, Magnus, law of, 305.
- Estates, with enclosing walls, 88; with party walls, 88, 89.
- Euphrates, the, early civilization along, 4.
- European powers. See Foreign powers.
- Evangelist, a native preacher in the Protestant missions, 230.
- Examinations, literary, of the Chinese, 11; abolition of, 127, 197, 204.
- Exchange, standard of, 49.
- Extra-territorial rights, recognized by Peace of Tientsin, 120; the problem of, 253, 254, 279; negotiations relative to, 321; mentioned, 294.
- Eye diseases, 94, 94ⁿ.
- FAMINES, 115.
- Far Eastern Review*, article on "Fossils of the Chinese Dragon" in, 131-134.
- Farm with watch house, replica of miniature of grave of Han period, 86.
- Farming. See Agriculture.
- Farms, with enclosing walls, 87, 88.
- Feng, the, tributary of the Hwang-ho, early Chinese culture lay around, 6, 8.
- Feng Kuo Chang, Vice President, 156; becomes President, 180.
- Feng Yü Hsiang, his coup (Oct. 1924), 176; his treachery toward Wu, 187, 190, 191, 193, 194; his troops, 193; a fanatic with violent temperament, 193; a personal interview with, 194, 195; visits Moscow, 195, 248, 308; said to receive help from Russia, 248; his desire to become China's strong man, 285; loses support of Russia, 307, 308; takes Tientsin, 307; driven out of Nankow Pass, 308; his position at beginning of 1928, 320; references to, 98, 167, 168, 177, 182, 183, 293.
- Fengtai, 189.
- Fengtien, province of, 167, 187.
- Fertilizers, 25, 29-35. See also Manure.
- Flag, dragon, 130, 286.
- Foochow, opened to the opium trade, 118.
- Food, 44.
- Forbidden City, 87, 113; plundered, 125; deposed emperor permitted to

INDEX

- Forbidden City, (continued)
 reside in, 126, 128, 175; occupied by Chang's soldiers, 155; emperor driven out of, 177.
- Foreign centers, 269-273.
- Foreign devil (Yang Kuci Tze), use of the expression, 240.
- Foreign loans, 253.
- Foreign powers, relation of China to, 116-125; political conduct of, a hindrance to mission work, 236, 237; improvement of their military and technical equipment, 241, 242; railroad-building of, in China, 242; their political ideals, 243; participate in civil wars in China, 248; attitude of, with regard to Boxer indemnity, 250; lack of constructive liberal policy on part of, 297; send troops to Shanghai, 314; extend precautionary measures to northern China, 320, 321; diplomatic action of, 321, 322; meet nationalistic movement with alacrity, 324. See also Foreigners, and under names of powers.
- Foreigners, China aroused against, 237; prestige of, lowered, 237, 273, 297-303; two categories of, 238; why the Chinese look askance at, 240; should exercise fair play toward China, 253-255; personalities among, 255-261; treatment of, in Shagkai, 268, 269; Chinese impressed by unity of, 273; thorough-going changes as to position of, should be made, 279; the modern national movement a reaction against, 291, 294; Kuomintang party opposed to, 310, 311; animosity against, along the Yangtze, 311, 312; movement against, 312-315; prospects for, in China, 324. See also Foreign powers, and under names of powers.
- Forestry, 47.
- Formosa, 122.
- Fossils. See Dragon.
- France, in war with China, 119; arranges treaty with China, 121; assumes political influence over Tonkin, 122; occupies Kuang-chow-wan, 123; takes Yunnan and Kuangsi as sphere of influence, 123; seizes land in Tientsin, 243, 244; sends troops to Shanghai, 314. See also Foreign powers, Foreigners.
- French, their treatment of Germans in Peking after the armistice, 273, 298.
- Frosvi, 84.
- Fruit, Chinese success in cultivation of, 19, 40, 41.
- Fuel, collecting of, 47.
- Fukien, 20, 310; taken by Japan as sphere of influence, 123.
- GARDENSE, temple for Tibetan lamas, 112.
- Gateways, of Chinese city walls, 87.
- German minister, assassinated, 125.
- German missionaries, murdered, 123.
- Germans, French treatment of, in Peking after the armistice, 273, 298.
- Germany seizes Chinese territory, 123. See also Foreign powers, Foreigners.
- Gingko, the, in China, 104, 105; imprints of its leaves at Spitzbergen, 105.
- Gobi Desert, 14, 20, 33, 111.
- Goldsmiths, 91.
- Goodnow, Mr., adviser of Yuan Shih Kai, 131.
- Gordon, Charles ("Chinese Gordon"), 115, 116.
- Gottenburg, 89.
- Government, Chinese, generals too often taken as premiers in, 184; often formed by compromise, 184.
- Grabau, Amadeus W., palaeontologist, Professor of Palaeontology at Columbia University and at the National University at Peking, 257, 258.
- Graft, 326.
- Grains, 19.
- Graves, of the Han period, clay effigies placed in, 85, 86.
- Great Wall, 11.
- Grip, Bo Jonsson, 305.
- Groove ax, 85.
- Gros, Baron, French envoy, arranges treaty with China, 121; penetrates to Peking, 121.
- Groundnuts, 19, 36, 93.
- Guilds, 94-96.
- HAN dynasty (206 B.C.-221 A.D.), 205, 286; graves of, 85, 86.
- Hangchow, taken by Cantonese, 310.
- Hankow, 168; foreign concessions in, 270; disturbance in, after massacre of May 30, 1925, 277; evacuated by Wu,

INDEX

- Hankow, (continued)
 310, 312; British concession at, evacuated, 313.
- Hanseatic League, 306.
- Hanyang, captured by Kuomintang faction, 309, 310, 312.
- Hart, Sir Robert, his reorganization work in China, 255, 256.
- Hay, John, his "open door" principle, 249.
- Heaven Altar (Heaven Temple), 101.
- Hei Lung T'an, village, 68.
- Heilungkiang, province of, 216.
- Hirth, Professor, of Columbia University, 224.
- Hewlett, Mr., English consul at Ichang, 132, 135.
- Hoang-ho, the, 165.
- Honan, province of, 19, 67, 166, 169, 182, 188; wells in, 28; stone age in, 40; a trip to, 42; women of, 63; yamen in, 98; Jewish colony in, 99; Feng in, 193; missionaries in, 213, 217; "Red Spear Society" formed by peasants in, 293, 306; effect of Cantonese propaganda in, 309; the province most strongly hostile to foreigners, 314; position of northern troops in, 317.
- Honanfu, 42, 43.
- Hongkong, 54; ceded to England, 118.
- Hotsun, village, 68, 72.
- Hsi Ling, Ming graves, 101.
- Hsiao Feng Tsai, courtesan, 145*n*.
- Hsien, district, 96.
- Hsien Feng, Emperor, flees to Jehol, 121.
- Hsü, author's assistant, 213.
- Hsu Shih Chang, President, 181, 182.
- Hsuan Hua Fu, district capital, 108.
- Hsuan-Lung, iron ore fields of, 107.
- Hsuan Tung, Emperor, minority of, 128; deposed, 128; permitted to reside in Forbidden City, 128, 175; celebrates marriage with "empress" and concubine, 176; his instructors, 176; driven out of Forbidden City, 177; becomes Mr. Pu Yi, 177; in Tientsin, 177.
- Hsuehchow, 156, 157, 318.
- Hu Shih, Dr. V. K., professor in State University of Peking, 206; leader in literary revolution, 206-211.
- Huai River, 15.
- Huang Yong Shan, temple near, 108.
- Hultkrantz, Maria, missionary, 214, 216.
- Human culture, a delicate plant, 3.
- Human life, disregard of, in Shanghai, 263.
- Hun River, 108.
- Hung Hsien dynasty, 138.
- Hungshan, village, 64-68.
- Hungshan episode, 64-77.
- Hungshan Mountain, 51.
- Hupeh, province of, 19, 191.
- Hupei, province of, 15, 17.
- Hwang-ho (Yellow River), the, one of two great rivers of China, 4, 5; navigable only by flat-bottomed boats and rafts, 5, 20; first civilization of China in region of, 5, 6; early Chinese culture advanced along, 6, 7; primitive Mongolian peoples in valley of, 7; efforts to control, 29.
- ISEN, HENRIK, 199, 243.
- Ichang, reported discovery of remains of dragon near, 131-138; Wu's relief of, 191, 192.
- Imperial mandate, 135, 136.
- Incense, makers of, 91.
- India, rivers of, early civilization along, 4.
- Indian millet, 85. See Kaoliang.
- Inns, 91, 92.
- Irrigation, 26-29.
- Irwin, J. O'Malley, quoted on the discovery of supposed fossil of dragon, 131-134, 138.
- Irwin, Mrs. J. O'Malley, 132.
- Itinerant vendors, 92.
- JAPAN, received first impulses to higher development from China, 9; in war with China (1894-1895), 122; negotiates Peace of Shimonsaki, 122; gains control of Korea, 122, 140; takes Fukien as sphere of influence, 123; makes demands on China, 143, 243, 245; her possessions in Shan-tung, question of the disposal of, 200-202; her goods boycotted by Chinese, 202; her favorable position as regards China, 244; her policy of penetration, 245; her more recent policy, 245; supposed to be assisting Chang Tso Lin, 248; restores possessions in Shantung, 250, 251; her resistance to the "white peril", 252; the Yangtze patrolled by, 312; sends troops to Shanghai, 314; sends forces to Tsingtao and Tsinanfu, 321; negotiates with China for revision of treaty, 323. See also Foreign powers, Foreigners.

INDEX

- Japan, (continued)
- Jehol, 121, 191.
- Jeme Tien Yü, engineer, 242.
- Jews, colony of, in Honan, 99.
- Johansson, Magnus, 120.
- Johnston, R. F., instructor of Hsuan Tung, 176.
- Joiners, 90.
- KAI-FENO, capital of Honan, Jewish colony in, 99; Feng marches to, 168; Feng military governor in, 193; references to, 59, 67, 166.
- K'ang, a high platform serving as sleeping place, 31.
- Kang Hsi, Manchu emperor, 114.
- K'ang Yu Wei, associate of Chang Hsun, 156.
- Kansu, province of, Great Wall in, 11; landscape of, 18; boundary of, 19; farming conditions in, 27, 28, 35; fruit cultivation in, 41; spinning done by men in, 84; replica of miniature farm from grave of Han period in, 86; temple service in, 111, 112; Mahometans in, 220-222.
- Kaoliang, 19; millet, 36, 85; coarse straw of, preserved for fuel, 47.
- Karlgren, Professor, his "East Asia in the Nineteenth Century", 12, 116; quoted on missions, 233.
- Kemal, Mustafa, 285.
- Kiangsi, 20, 310; neo-Buddhism in, 198; effect of Cantonese propaganda in, 309; lost to Sun, 310.
- Kiangsu, province of, 15, 169; lost to Sun, 310.
- King, Dr. F. H., Professor of Agriculture at the University of Wisconsin, 22; his "Farmers for Forty Centuries" quoted on the farming of the Chinese, 22-25, 29, 31, 34, 35, 38-40.
- Kiukiang, conference of Buddhist leaders near, 198; disturbance in, after massacre of May 30, 1925, 277; captured by Kuomintang faction, 309, 310; destruction of foreign property in, 314.
- Knutson, Karl, description of his time, 306.
- Kokonor, 112.
- Kokonor Lake, 112.
- Korea, made Chinese, 9; Japan gains control of, 122, 140.
- Kou, Wellington, 184.
- Kou Ming Tang, parliamentary leader, 151.
- Kowtow, 241.
- Kuang-chow-wan, occupied by France, 123.
- Kuang Hsu, emperor, starts reforms, 126, 141; put out of office and imprisoned by dowager empress, 126, 141, 180; death of, 127.
- Kuangsi, province of, taken as sphere of influence by France, 123; opposition to Yuan Shih Kai develops in, 146.
- Kuangtung, province of, opposition to Yuan Shih Kai, develops in, 146.
- Kuanyintang, 166, 213, 298.
- Kueichou, province of, rising against Yuan Shih Kai in, 146.
- Kueiliang, Chief Secretary, in negotiations at Tientsin, 119.
- Kuling, summer resort, 232.
- Kuling Mountain, 198.
- Kung Chiao, the moral teaching of Confucius, 197.
- Kung Sun Hung, premier, 205.
- Kuo Sung Lin, General, rebels against Chang, 187; makes secret agreement with Feng, 307; his march to Mukden, 307; death of, 307.
- Kuomintang faction, rises to power, 307; reorganized by Chiang, 308; Russian support of, 308, 309, 311; control of, extended to Yangtze, 309, 310; political principles of, 310, 311; movement of, against foreigners, 312-315; the Right and the Left in, 315, 316; movement to expel communistic radicals from, 317, 319; suffers loss of prestige from Chiang's retirement, 318, 319; its position at beginning of 1928, 320. See also Cantonese.
- Kwei Chow Fu, 132.
- LAGERBING, SVEN, his description of Karl Knutson's time, 306.

INDEX

- Lama Temple, ritual dances of, 101.
 Lamaism, 220.
 Lanchow, 27, 91, 221, 298.
 "Land-grabbing", in China, 122, 237, 241.
 Landsbrunn, West Gothland, 213.
 Laufer, Berthold, his "Sino-Iranica", 288.
 Lay, Mr., interpreter, in negotiations at Tientsin, 119, 120.
 Legation Quarter, at Peking, 270; a place of refuge for native politicians and generals, 271-273.
Leguminosa, collection of nitrogen from, 33-35.
 Lemonade sellers, 92.
 Li Tsungjen, lieutenant of Chiang, 318.
 Li Yuan Hung, President, 150, 153, 179, 180; refuses to resign in favor of empire, 155; escapes to Japanese legation, 156; recalled but obliged to withdraw, 182; takes refuge in Legation Quarter, 272; mentioned, 293.
 Liangchow, 111.
 Liaotung, peninsula of, 122.
Likin, 89, 90.
 Lin Yeh Fen Ti, tomb temple, 107.
 Literary revolution, 204-211.
 Lolos, 8, 21.
 Lönberg, Professor, 17, 264.
 Loyang, 213; military camp at, 166, 167, 190.
 Lu, Governor, 221.
 Lu Tsung Yu, Minister of Finance, 201.
 Luanchow, iron fields of, 103; temples of, 103.
Lung ku, dragons' bones, search for, 267-269.
 Lung Kuan, 60.
 Lunghai Railroad, 242.
 MA, General, 112.
 Ma, Mr., 222.
 Ma Chia Miao, temple of, 78.
 Macartney, Lord, embassy of, in 1792, 117.
 Mahometanism, in China, 100.
 Mahometans, in Kansu, 220-222.
 Malar region, 84.
 Malays, 8.
 Manichaeans, in China, 99.
 Manchu dynasty, decline and overthrow of, 113-115, 127, 128; documents bearing on, 113, 114; assumed culture of Chinese, 241.
 Manchu emperors, the great, 114.
 Manchuria, agriculture in, 25, 35, 37; railroads in, 123, 242; taken by Russians as sphere of influence, 123; progress made in, under Chang, 188, 283.
 Manchus, corruption under, 52; an East-Mongolian people, 113; considered an usurping people, 113.
 Mandarins, 291, 292.
 Manure, natural, collection of, 30, 31, 45-47. See also Fertilizers.
 Meat, 44.
 Medical institutions, in China, 259-261.
 Melons, 19, 41.
 Merchants, 92.
 Mesopotamia, the culture of, 6.
 Miaotze, 8, 21.
 Middle Kingdom, the, 8, 9, 116, 240.
 Military development, of Chinese, 294, 295.
 Millet, 19, 35, 36.
 Ming emperors, 113.
 Ming graves, tomb temples of, 101.
 Minister of Finance, 184.
 Ministry of Agriculture, quarters of, 89.
 Missionaries, Western politics and, 100; assured of freedom and protection by Peace of Tientsin, 120; killed at time of Boxer uprising, 125; personalities among, 214-225; medical side of, 220; Catholic, 225-228; bitter experiences of, 228-231; libels on, 231-233; evacuation of, in ports of Southern China occupied by the Kuomintang, ordered by United States, 315.
 Missions, struggle of, against traditions of Chinese culture, 233; requirements of, 234; impression of, on the average Chinaman, 235; tangible effect of, found in the personal contribution, 235, 236; difficulties in work of, 236, 237; influences suspected to be back of, 295; propaganda against, 313; the future of, 324-326.
 Mon Kmer, 21.
 Monetary system, 49, 50.
 Mongolia, agriculture in, 25, 35; missionaries in, 218-220; "reorganized" by Russia, 243; Outer, the Russians in, 247.
 Mongolians, in Hwang-ho valley, original source of Chinese race, 7; bar-

INDEX

- Mongolians, (continued)
 barous tribes of, on the north, 9; their dynasty of Yuan, 241.
 "Moratorium", 147.;
 Morocco, 252.
 Mukden, trans-Siberian Railroad to, 123; Kuo's march to, 187, 307.
 Mulberry trees, 19.
 Multiple harvests, 25, 35-37.
- NANCHANG, capital of Kiangsi, 310.
 Nanking, 15; Peace of, in 1842, 117, 119; plundering of, 154; Feng's seat at, 180; iron ore fields in district of, 263-266; occupied by Cantonese, 310; aggressions against foreigners in, 314-316.
 Nankou Pass, 242, 308.
 Närke, 18, 234, 266n.
 Nationalism. See Chinese nationalism, Swedish nationalism.
 Nestorians, in China, 99.
 Ni, Governor of Anhui, 153.
 Nietzsche, F. W., 199, 243.
 Night watchmen, 93.
 Nile, the, early civilization along, 4.
 Ninghsia, 225.
 Ningpo, opened to the opium trade, 118.
 Nitrogen, collection of, 33-35.
 Nystrom, Professor, 51, 67, 68.
- ONERO, missionary, 225.
 Old woman by the wayside, 80-83.
 Ollén, Gerda, missionary, 220.
 "Open door", the, 249.
 Opium, 243.
 Opium traffic, 117-119.
 Opium War, 117, 236.
- Pai hua*, vulgar speech of China, 211.
 Painting, school of, in Peking, 243.
 Paotingfu, Catholic mission at, 226.
 Paotzekou, 169, 170, 171.
 Paper makers, 91.
 Parliament, restoration of, after death of Yuan Shih Kai, 151; dispersed in 1924, 177.
 Parliamentarianism, China's experiment of, 178.
 Peace Conference at Paris, 200, 202.
 Peaches, 19, 41.
 Pehlang, 121.
 Peiho River, 121.
 Peitaiho, summer resort, 232.
 Peitang, Catholic mission at, 226.
 Peking, 14, 46, 53, 57; typical Chinese conditions at, 35; security of life and property in, 55; walls and towers of, 87; walls in, 88; General Tariff Bureau at, 89; beggars in, 94, 95; guilds in, 96; government in, by grace of dictators, 98; the plain of, 106; capital of the Ming emperors, 113; State University of, 113; England receives right to have permanent envoy in, 120; taken by Lord Elgin and Baron Gros, 121; troops sent to, as guard for legations, 124; Legation Quarter at, besieged, 124; international army forces way to, 125; violence exercised by the Powers in, 125; punitive military expedition sent to, 153, 155; extreme Left takes control in, 176; the speech of, 208; Legation Quarter in, 270-273; personal safety in, 271; events in, after the armistice, Nov. 11, 1918, 273, 274; demonstrations in, after the Massacre of May 30, 1925, 276-278; Peitang Cathedral in, 305; raid on communism in, 316, 317.
 Peking-Hankow Railroad, 242.
 Peking-Suiyuan Railroad, 242.
 Peking Union Medical School, 259-261.
 P'eng Ch'eng, factory town, 68.
 "Persian wheel", 27, 28.
 Pettersson, Maria, missionary, 213-218, 225, 235.
 Pettus, Mr., 224.
 Pigtales, 156, 158, 165, 166.
 Ping Shan Pa, 132.
 Polynesian Negroes, 8.
 Population, 24, 38, 115.
 Port Arthur, becomes Russian war port, 123.
 Porter, Lucius Chapin, his "China's Challenge to Christianity", 223, 235.
 Presidents, of China, 178-183.
 Pu Yi, name of Emperor Hsuan Tung, 177.
 Pukow, railway terminus at the Yangtze River, 15.
 Pu-lun, Manchu prince of the blood, 145.
 "Punitive expeditions", 236, 241.
 Pumpelly, Raphael, quoted on an experience in Shanghai, 262, 263.

INDEX

- RADICALISM, 199. See also Communism, Russia.
- Rag-collectors, 45.
- Railroads, 123, 242.
- Rectangular knife, 85.
- "Red Spear Society", 293, 306.
- Reichelt, K. L., Norwegian missionary, 198.
- Religion in China, 99, 100, 197-199.
- Renting a house, 50.
- Reorganization loan, 142, 178, 253.
- Revolution of 1911, 98, 113, 128-130, 148, 150, 177, 292.
- Ricc, 19, 36, 44.
- "Rice Christians", 229.
- Rice fields, 29*n*.
- Richthofen, F. von, his idea of exploitation of Shantung, 123.
- Rivers, early civilizations sprang up along, 4; banked with dikes, 29, 30.
- Roads, 48.
- Rockefeller, John D., his medical services in China, 259-261.
- Rockefeller Foundation, 259.
- Rome, cultural interchange between China and, 10.
- Rösiö, reference to, 30.
- Ross, Professor, 29*n*.
- Russell, Bertrand, his visit to China, 199.
- Russell Society, 199.
- Russia, secures Liaotung Peninsula, 122; obtains concession concerning trans-Siberian Railroad, 122, 123; extorts right to fortify Port Arthur, 123; takes Manchuria as sphere of influence, 123; "reorganizes" Mongolia, 243; of the empire, her attitude toward China, 245, 246; of the Soviet régime, her attitude toward China, 246 (cf. 176); carries on Red propaganda in China, 247, 248; assists Feng Yü Hsiang, 248; loses faith in Feng, 307, 308; puts faith in Kuomintang faction, 308, 309, 311; propaganda of, 309, 316. See also Foreign powers, Foreigners.
- Russian-Japanese War, 246.
- Russians. See White Russian fugitives.
- SALT, 45.
- Salt tax, 256, 279.
- Saratsi, 225.
- Schools, foreign, in China, 296.
- Scissors grinders, 92.
- Seed improvement, 40.
- Seoul, capital of Korea, 140.
- Servants. See Coolies.
- Scymour, Admiral, 124.
- Sha Ching, village, 33.
- Shan, 8, 21.
- Shan-Burmans, 21.
- Shan Hai Kuan, 11, 174, 187, 190, 191.
- Shanchow, 213.
- Shang P'o Ti, village, 108.
- Shanghai, 15, 54, 89, 116; opened to the opium trade, 118; foreign police officer fires on Chinese students in, 237; Red propaganda in, 248; experiences in, 262-269; disregard of life in, 263; the International Settlement in, 269-271; lawlessness in, 271; massacre in, May 30, 1925, 274-278; general strike declared in, 276; colony of White Russians at, 299; occupied by Cantonese, 310; English troops sent to, 314; troops of other powers sent to, 314.
- Shanghai-Hangchow Railroad, 318.
- Shanghai Museum, 264-267.
- Shansi, province of, 109, 164, 165, 264; wells in, 28; farmers in, 45; trip to, 51, 52, 60; judicial hearing in, 97.
- Shantung, province of, 15, 157, 169, 182; farming statistics of, 24, 36; rich men's estates in, defensive structure of, 88; exploitation of, planned by Germans, 123; "Boxers" in, 124; question of disposal of German possessions in, 200-202; Japan restores possessions in, 250, 251.
- Shensi, province of, 18, 19, 38, 42, 113, 125, 166, 193, 298.
- Shih Chia Chuang, 319.
- Shimonseki, Peace of, 122.
- Shoemakers, 92.
- Sian, 165-168.
- Sianfu, 42, 43, 193; ancient imperial capital, 118; dowager empress and emperor find refuge in, 125.
- Siberian (trans-) Railroad, 122, 123.
- Sigtuna, 304, 305.
- "Silk Way", 7, 10.
- Sinan, 214-218.
- Sinanh sien, 213.
- Sining, 112.
- Sinological Institute at the State University of Peking, 113, 288.

INDEX

- Sinology, 113ⁿ.
 Smiths, 91.
 Soya bean, 19, 36.
 Spain, treaty with, terminated, 323.
 Spanish influenza, 108, 109.
 "Spheres of influence", 123, 237, 249.
 Spinning, 84.
 Spitzbergen, 105.
 Stanley, Dr. Arthur, city physician of foreign section of Shanghai, head of Shanghai Museum, 265-267.
 Student demonstrations, at time of massacre of May 30, 1925, 274-277.
 Student movement, 199-203, 211, 212.
 Students, fired on, by foreign police officer, 237; Chinese, in United States, 249.
 Sui Shih, village, 42.
 Sun Chuang Fang, military governor of Nanking, 310; loses Kiangsi, 310; suffers defeat, 318, 319.
 Sun Mei Yao, bandit chief, 169; way-lays Blue Express, 170, 171; received into army, 173.
 Sun Yat Sen (Sun Wen), his career, 185, 186; a radical, 185, 186, 248, 309; his party (Kuomintang) comes to the fore, 307; mentioned, 292, 293.
 Sung dynasty, 286.
 Swedish Missions in China, 214, 220.
 Swedish National Museum, 263, 264.
 Swedish nationalism, struggle of, compared with struggle of Chinese nationalism, 304-307.
 Szechnan, province of, 5, 19, 28; opposition to Yuan Shih Kai develops in, 146.
 TAGORE, Rabindranath, his visit to China, 200.
 Tai Hsü, monk, 198.
 Taiping Rebellion, 115.
 Taiyanfu, capital of Shansi, 164, 165; "Temple of Self-Purification" at, 198, 264.
 Taku, 121.
 T'ang, General, 157.
 Tang dynasty, 9, 286.
 Tangar, 112.
 Tangshan, warm springs of, 106, 107.
 Tao Yuan movement, 198.
 Taoism, 198.
 Tariffs, foreign and domestic, 89, 90.
 Taxes, 89, 90.
 Tea, 19.
 Temples, country, 101-112; the culmination of the rural architecture, 102; fit into the landscape, 102.
 Tibet, influence of England in, 243.
 Tibetan temple, 112.
 Tibetans, 8, 9.
 Tibeto-Burmans, 21.
 Tien Tong, monastery of, 198.
 Tientsin, 14, 49, 139, 141; Chinese conditions at, 35; internal tariff office at, 89; Peace negotiated at, 119-121; provisional government established at, 153, 154; Wu goes to, after battle at Peking, 189; stormed and captured by Wu, 194; French seize land in, 243, 244; foreign concessions in, 270, 323; colony of White Russians at, 299; taken by Feng, 307; foreign troops at, 321.
 Tientsin-Pukow Railroad, 170, 242.
 Tigris, the, early civilization along, 4.
 Ting, Dr., geologist, 207, 240, 257.
 Toll barriers, 89.
 Tonkin, France assumes political power over, 122.
 Torsvi, 84.
 Towels, custom connected with, 94ⁿ.
 Towers, of Chinese city walls, 87.
 Trachoma, 94, 94ⁿ.
 Trinity Sunday, 84.
 Tsai Ao, General, escapes from Peking, 145, 145ⁿ.
 Tsao, his childhood, 160-163; becomes member of postal convoy, 163-166; becomes soldier, 166-168; sends letter home, 167; becomes bandit, 168-173; becomes soldier again, 173, 174; death of, 174.
 Tsao Ju Lin, Minister of Communications, 200.
 Tsao Jui, 182, 183.
 Tsao Kun, President, 177, 183; imprisoned, 177; crushes Aifu party, 181, his career, 182, 183; his fall, 183; mentioned, 188.
 Ts'ing dynasty, 7.
 Tsin Ling Shan Mountains, 18, 19.
 Tsinanfu, capital of Shantung, 15; Japanese troops sent to, 321.
 Tsinanfu-Tsingtao Railroad, 242.
 Tsing Hua, college of, 249.
 Tsingtao, "leased" to Germany, 123; Japanese sent to, 321. See Shantung.

INDEX

- Tso Tsung Tang, General, proposes reform program, 126.
- Tuan Chi Jui, Premier and General, 150, 151, 152, 293; dismissed, 153; back of rebellious military governors, 154; reinstated as Premier, 156; makes armed opposition to Chang Hsun, 156-158; "chief executive", 183.
- Tung An Men, 159.
- Tung Ling, forest, 18.
- Tung Wen Kuan, high school at Peking, 256.
- Tungkuan, 165, 166, 213, 298.
- Turkey, "capitulations" in, revoked, 254.
- Tzu Hsi, dowager empress, flight of, 125; puts emperor out of office, 126, 141; puts herself at head of reform movement, 127.
- UNDERTAKERS, 91.
- United States, her position with relation to China, 248-251; restores Boxer indemnity, 249, 250; Yangtze patrolled by, 312; sends troops to Shanghai, 314; orders evacuation of missionaries in parts of southern China held by the Kuomintang, 315.
- Universal state, Chinese idea of, 10, 116, 117, 121, 240.
- Unproductive profits, creation of, 49, 50.
- Upsala University, 219.
- Urga, capital of Outer Mongolia, 219, 247.
- VAN DYK, missionary, 225.
- Vasa, Gustaf, his method of governing, 142; his victory in 1536, 306.
- Vermland manor house, 214.
- Versailles, Treaty of, 251.
- Villages, 61; provided with walls, 87, 88.
- Visby, walls and towers of, 87, 305.
- WADE, Mr., interpreter in negotiations at Tientsin, 119.
- Walls, fondness of the Chinese for, 86-89; of Peking, 87-89.
- Walpurgis Night, 84.
- Wang, Dr. C. T., 184, 194, 258, 282-284.
- Washington, disarmament conference in, 251, 322.
- Wei-hai-wei, received by England, 123; England pledges herself to restore, 251.
- Wei-ho, the, tributary of the Hwangho, early Chinese culture lay around, 6, 8.
- Wells, 28.
- Wen Hsi Hsien, 51; lord magistrate of, 78; judicial hearing at, 97.
- West, the, products and culture of, in China, 296.
- White peril, 116, 251-253.
- White Russian fugitives, in China, 298-303.
- Wiklund, Hulda, missionary, 220.
- Winan, Prof. Carl, 219.
- Woosung, 242.
- World War, the, conduct of China during early stages of, 143; question of China's entry into, 151-153; prestige of white man weakened by, 237, 273, 298.
- Wu Pei Fu, 98, 167, 168, 174, 181, 182, 293; defeats Anfu party, 187; defeats Chang Tso Lin near Peking, 187, 188; reaches Tientsin, 188, 189; Feng's treachery toward, 190, 191; his relief of Ichang, 191, 192; honest and loyal, 192; as general and as administrator, 192; evacuates Hankow, 310; driven from Yangtze valley, 310; his position at beginning of 1928, 320.
- Wuan, 65, 66, 67, 71, 74.
- Wuchang, 185, 191; Li in, 179; resistance of, 310; taken by Cantonese, 312.
- Yamen*, 96-98.
- Yan Chu Hsien, 78.
- Yang Sen, his position at beginning of 1928, 320.
- Yangtze-kiang, one of two great rivers of China, 5; mentioned only episodically in archaic period of Chinese history, 8; rainfall in valley of, 15; the hilly country in valley of, has inspired Chinese landscapists, 16; delta, 31, 32; traffic on, granted, 120; England takes valley of, as sphere of influence, 123; valley, vice regents of, 127; reported discovery of remains of dragon in valley of, 131, 132; iron ore fields along, 263; animosity against foreigners along, 311, 312; patrolled by foreign powers, 312; banditry on, 312.

INDEX

- Yao, collector, 264-268.
 Yeh, Mr., assistant of author, 105.
 Yellow River. See Hwang-ho.
 Yen, W. W., 184.
 Yen Hsi Shan, General, his "Temple of Self-Purification", 197, 198; governor of Shansi, 283, 319; engages on two fronts, 319; his position at beginning of 1928, 320.
 Yen Ta Yen, overlord of Shansi, 164, 165.
 Yenning School of Chinese Studies, 224.
 Yochow, 188.
 Yu Wang Fu, palace, 260.
 Yuan dynasty, 241.
 Yuan Ming Yuan, summer palace of, sacked and burned, 121, 122.
 Yuan Shih Kai, president-emperor, and the reported discovery of fossil dragon, 131, 137, 138; career of, 140, 141 (cf. 127); becomes head of the government, 141, 142; his administration, 142; at height of his popularity, 143, 179; his motives, 143, 144, 147-149; accepts throne, 144, 145; prophecy concerning, 144*n.*; risings against, 146; abdicates emperorship and re-assumes title of president, 146; death of, 147 (cf. 140); relief felt at his death, 150; his position as president, 178, 179; the last really great mandarin, 292.
 Yulc, 84.
 Yang Kuei Tze, foreign devil, use of the expression, 240.
 Yungcheng, 79.
 Yunnan, province of, taken as sphere of influence by France, 123; rising against Yuan Shih Kai in, 146; railroad in, 242.